

WHOLE

BOOK OF

COLLECTED into English meeter

by Thomas Sternhold, John Hopkins, and others.

If any be afflifted, let have prays and if any be merrie, let him the platmer.

LONDON, Printed for the Companie of Stationers.

0.65 h 3 C. 27. 10.30

VENI CREATOR.

Ome holy Ghoft eternall God, proceeding from above:
Both from the Father and the Sou,
the God of peace and love.
Vifit our mindes, and into us thy heavenly grace in pire 2
That in all truth and godlineffe
we may have true defire.

Thou art the very Comforter in all wo and diffresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high which no tongue can expresse.
The fountain and the lively spring of joy celestial!

The fire fo bright, the love fo clear, and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts are manifold, whereby Christs church doth stand: In faithfull hearts writing thy law, The finger of Gods hand.

According to thy promife made thou giveft speech of grace: That through thy help the praise of God may fland in every place.

O holy Ghoft into our wits fend down thy heavenly light:

Xindle our hearts with fervent love to ferve God day and night.

Strength and stablish all our weaknesses fo feeble and so frail:

That neither fielh, the world por devil,

A .

The bumble (six of a finner, and back our enemics far from us, and grant us to obtain

Peace in our hearts with God and man, without grudge or difdain.

And grant, O Lord, that thou being our leader and our guide, we may eschew the sures of fin, and from thee never slide.

To us such plentic of thy grace,
good Lord grant, we thee pray?
That thou mayst be our comforter at the last dreadfull day.
Of all strife and differntion,
O Lord, dissolve the bands,
And make the knots of peace and love throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know the Father most of might,
That of his dear beloved son
we may attain the fight.
And that with perfect fath also we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both alway, one God in persons three.

Land and praife be to the Father,
and to the Son equall,
And to the holy Spirit alfo, one God coeternall.
And pray we that the only Son wonchafe his Spirit to fend To all that do professe his name muto the worldesend.

The humble fuit of a finner. M.

Lord of whom I do depend,
behold my carefull heart,
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my imart.

Thon

HEARING SHOTE PARKET Thou feelt my forrows what they are my grief is known to thee.

And there is none that can remove or take the fame from me :

But only thou whose aid I crave. whose mercie still is prest. To eafeall those that come to thee for fuccour and for reft.

And fith thou feeft my reftleffe eyes. my tears and grievous grone : Attend unto my fute, O Lord, mark well my plaint and mone.

For fin hath fo inclosed me and compast me about. That I am now remedileffe, if mercie help not out. For mortall man cannot releafe. nor mitigate this pain:

But even thy Christ, my Lord and God. who for my fins was flain.

Whose blondy wounds are yet to see, though not with mortall eye: Yet do thy faints behold them all, and fo I truft thall I. Though fin doth hinder me a while, when thou thalt fee it good,

I shall enjoy the fight of him, and fee his wounds and bloud.

And as thine angels and thy faints do now behold the fame : so truft I to posselle that place with them to praifethy name, But whilft I live here in this vale where finners do frequent,

Affift me ever with thy grace, my fins still to lament.

Left

Left that I tread the imners trace, and give them my confent, To dwell with them in wickednesse, whereto nature is bent.

Only thy grace must be my stay,
left that I fall down flat:

And being down, then of my felf cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again my fure and my request,

To grant me pardon for my im, that I in thee may reft. Then shall my heart and tongue also be inftruments of praife:

And in thy church and house of faints fing plalmes to the alwayes.

Venire exultemu. Pfal. xev.

Come and let us now rejoyce, And fing nnto the Lord:
And to our only Saviour, Alfo with one accord.
O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence:
Confessing all our former fins,

And that with diligence.

A King omnipotent.

To thank him for his benefites, Alway diffributing, Wherefore to him right joyfully In pfalmes now let us fing. And that becanfe that God alone Is Lord magnificent: And eke above all other gods

His people doth not he for false
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coafts
Of all the world in wide.

And with his loving countenance.

He locketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all.

The mountains far and near.

The fea and all that is therein Are his for he them made: And eke his hand hath fashioned The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worthip him,
And down before him fall:
And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King.

And we his people are:
His flock and theep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will hear his voice, Then harden not your heart; As in the bitter marmuring, When ye were in defart.

Which thing was of their negligence Committed in the time of trouble in the wildernesse, A great and grievous crime. Whereas your fathers tempted me, And tride me every way:

They proved me, and faw my workes, What I could do or fay.

These fourty years I have been grieved Withall this generation; And evermore I said, they ear'd In their imagination.

Wherewith their hearts were fore com-Long time and many dayes: (bred, Wherefore I faid affiredly They have not known my wayes.

A 4

To whom I in mine anger fwore,
That they should not be bleft;
Nor see my joy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.
Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might are most.
To God the Father and the Son, and to the hole Ched.

and to the holy Ghost.

And is now at this present time, and shall be evermore. The jong of samt Ambrose.

Called Te Deum.

E praise the God, we knowledge the only Lord to be: (thece and as eternall Father all the earth dorn worship thee.

To thee all angels crie, the heavens and all the powers therein:
To thee Cherub and Seraphin, to crie they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord, of abboth Lord the God, Through heaven & earth thy praise is spred.

and glory all abroad.

The Apostles glorious companie
yeeld praises unto thee:

The prophets goodly fellowship praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of martyrs found thy praise:

The holy church throughout the world, doth knowledge thee alwayes.

Pather of endless majestie, they do acknowledge thee: Thy Christ, thine honourable, true, and only son to be.

The

The holy Ghoft the Comforter: of glorie thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the son everlasting.
When finfull mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore,
To be inclosed in Virgins womb, thou diddest not abhor.

When thou hadft overcome of death the that p and cruell might,
Thou heavens kingdome didft fet ore, to each be leeving wight.
In glorie of the Father thou doeft fit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge, our cause to understand.

Lord help thy fervants, whom thou haft bought with thy precions bloud,
And in eternall glorie fet them with thy Saints fo good.
O Lord do thou thy people fave, bleffe thine inheritance:
Lord govern them, and Lord do thou for ever them advance.

We magnific thee day by day, and world withouten end Adore thy holy name, O Lord, vouchiafe us to defend From fin this day. Have mercie Lord, have mercie on us all: And on us as we truft in thee, Lord let thy mercie fall.

O Lord I have repoted all my confidence in thee, Put to confounding fhame therefore Lo d let me never be.

A

The

ledge thee

ed,

OAll ye works of God the Lord, bleffe ye the Lord, praife him, and magnific him for ever.

 O ye the angels of the Lord, bleffe ye the Lord, praife him, and magnific him for ever.

3 O ye the flarrie heavens high, bleffe ye the Lord, praise him, and magnific him for ever-

4 O ye the waters above the skie, bleffe ye the Lord &c.

5 O ye the powers of the Lord, a bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

6 O ye the shining sun and moon, blosse ye the Lord, &c.

7 O ve the gliffring fars of heaven, bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

8 O ye the thowers and dropping dew, bleff: ye the Lord,&c.

9 O ye the blowing windes of God, bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

so o ye the fire and warming hear, bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

ir Ye winter and the summer tide, blesse ye the Lord,&c.

32 Oye the dewes and binding frosts, bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

13 O ye the frosts and chilling cold, blesse ye the Lord, &c.

14 O ye congealed ice and fnow,
bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

16 O ye the darkneffe and the light, bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

17 O ye the lightnings and the clouds, bleffe ye the Lord, & c.

olet the earth eke bleffe the Lord.

bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

bleffe ye the Lord &c.

bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

12 O ye the feas, and ye the flouds,

bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

e5 O all ye beafts and cattel eke, bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

26 O ye the children of mankinde, bleffe ye the Lord,&c.

37 Let Israel eke bleffe the Lord, yea bleffe the Lord, &c.

28 O ye the priests of God the Lord, blesse ye the Lord, &c.

29 O ye the fervants of the Lord, bleffe ye the Lord, &c.

30 Ye spirits and souls of righteous men, blesse ye the Lord,&c.

or Ye holy and ye meek of heart, bleffe ye the Lord, & c.

bleffe thou the Lord, &c.

of O Azarias bleffe the Lord, bleffe thou the Lord, &c.

And Misael cke blesse the Lord, blesse thou the Lord, &c.

The fong of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

He only Lord of 'frael Be praifed evermore: For through his visitation, And mercie kept in flore, Hispeople now he hath redeem'd, That long have been in thrall, And spread abroad his saving health Upon his servants all.

In Davids house, his servant true 'According to his minde,
And also his anointed king,
As we in Stripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all,
Ofttimes he did declare:
The which were fince the world began,
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be delivered Prom those that make debate; Our enemies, and from the hands of all that do us hate.

The mercie which he promifed Our fathers to fulfill,

And think upon his covenant made

According to his will.

And also to perform the oath Which he before had sworn To Abraham our father dear, For us that were forlorn.

That he would give himself for us, And us from bondage bring, Out of the hands of all our foes, To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteoufneffe:
And alfo for to lead our lives
In ftedfaft holineffe.

And thou, o childe, which now art born, And of the Lord elect, Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest His wayes for to direct. Magnificat.

For thou shalt go before his face For to prepare his wayes: And also for to teach his will And pleasure all thy dayes.

To give them knowledge, how that their Salvation is near,
And that remission of their fins
Is through his mercie meer.

Whereby the day-spring from on high Is come us for to visit, And those for to illuminate Which do in darknesse sit.

Zan.

To lighten those that shadowed be With death, and eke oppress:
And also for to guide their feet.
The way to peace and rest.

The fong of blessed Marie, called Magnificat.

My foul doth magnifie the Lord, My spirit eke evermore Rejoyceth in the Lord my God, Which is my Saviour.

And why ? because he did regard, And gave respect unto So base estate of his handmaid, And let the mightie go.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right bleffed call.
Because he hath me magnified
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be ever sanctified
And praised day and night.

For with his mercie and his grace All men he doth inflame Throughout all generations, To such as fear his name. He shewed strength with his great arme, And made the proud to start, With all imaginations That they bare in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ons. From their supernall feat: And did exalt the meek in heart, As he hath thought it meet.

The hungrie he replenished
With all things that were good:
And through his power he made the rich,
Oft times to want their food.

And calling to rememberance His mercie every deal, Hath holpen up assistantly His servant Israel.

According to his promife made To Abraham before, And to his feed fuccessively To stand for evermore.

The fong of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

OLord because my hearts defire, My only Lord and Saviour, Thy Son before I die:

The joy and health of all mankinde, Defired long before, Which now is come into the world, Of mercie bringing store.

Thou fuffered thy fervant now
In peace for to depart:
According to thy holy word,
Which lighteneth my heart.
Because mine ever which thou hall

Because mine eyes which thou hast made To give my body light, Have now beheld thy saving health.

Which is the Lord of might.

Whom

Curcunque vul!. t arme, Whom thou mercifully haft fet, Of thine abundant grace, In open fight and visible, Before all peoples face.

The Gentiles to illuminate,

And sathan overquell: And eke to be the glorie of Thy people Ifrael.

rich.

The Symbole or Creed of Athana Rus. called Quicumque vuls.

Hat man foever he be that falvation will attain The Catholick belief he must before all things retain. Which faith unleffe he holy keep.

and undefiledly : Without all doubt, eternally

he shall be fure to die.

The Catholick belief is this that God we worship one In Trinitie, and Trinitie in unitie alone. So that we neither do confound the perfons of the three: Nor yet the fubstance whole of one in funder parted be.

One person of the Father is, another of the son, Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone. Of Father, son, and holy Ghoff. but one the Godhead is.

Like glorie, coeternall eke, the majestie likewije.

Such as the Father is, fuch is the Son in each degree,

And fuch also we do beleeve the holy Ghoft to be.

Increate

Uncreate is the Father, and uncreate is the Son,
The holy Ghoft uncreate, so uncreate is each one.

Incomprehenfible Father is, incomprehenfible Son, And comprehenfible also is the holy Ghost of none. The Father is eternall fo, And in like fort eternall is the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleeve that each of these eternall be,
Yet there but one eternall is, and not eternals three.
As ne incomprehensible we, ne yet uncreate three,
But one incomprehensible, one

Almightie fo the Father is, the Son almightie fo,
And in like fort almightie is the holy Ghoft alfo.
And albeit that everie one of thefe almightie be,
Yet there but one almightie is,
and not almighties three.

uncreate hold to be;

The Father God is, God the Son,
God holy Ghost also,
Yet are there not three Gods in all,
but one God and no mo.
So likewise Lord the Farher is,
and Lord also the Son,
And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not three Lords, but one.

50

TI

0

1

Quicunque vult.

for as we are compeld to grant by Christian veritie,

Each of the persons by himself both God and Lord to be: So Catholick religion forbiddeth us alway,

That either Gods be three, or that there Lords be three to fay.

Of none the Father is, ne made, ne create, nor begot: The Son is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got. The holy Ghoft is of them both, the Father and the Son,

Ne made, ne create, no begat, but doth proceed alone.

So we one Father hold, not three, one Son allo, not three, One holy Ghoft alone, and not three holy Ghofts to be. None in this Trinitie before nor after other is.

Ne greater any then the rest, ne lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves of all the persons three, Together coeternall all, and all coequall be. So Unitie in Trinitie, as faid it is before, And Trinitie in Unitie in all things we adore.

Therefore what man foever that falvation will attain,
This faith touching the Trinitle of force he must retain.

And needfull to eternall life
it is that every wight, of the incarnating of Christ
our Lord believe aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe and eke do know,
That Christ our Lord the Son of God is God and man also.

Sod of his Fathers substance got before the world began,
And of his mothers substance born

Both perfect God and perfect man in one, one Jefus Christ: That doth of reasonable soul and humane stells subsist. Touching his Godheadequall with his Father, God is he: Touching his manhood, lower then his Father in degree.

in world a very man.

Who though he be both very God, and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone, and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead into the slesh of man:
But by taking manhood to God, this being one began.

All one, not by confounding of the substance into one: But only by the unitie that is of one perfon.

For as the reasonable soul and flesh but one man is:

So in one person God and man is but one Christ likewise,

Who fu to h The thir to

He fits the From t

At wh wi And of ac

Who l

Belsey h To F

Asin

O Lame Befo

> How For How

But

THE TOMESTALLOW OF BE Who fuffred for to fave us all. to hell he did descend : The third day tofe again from death. to heaven he did afcend. He fits at the right hand of God. the almightie Father there :

From thence to judge the quick and dead again he shall appear.

At whose return all men shall rife with bodies new reftored: And of their own works they thall give account unto the Lord.

And they into eternall life thall go that have done well : Who have done ill, shall go inte eternall fire to dwell.

This is the catholick belief: who doth not faithfully Beleeve the fame, without all doubs he faved cannot be. To Father, son, and holy Ghoff, all glorie be therefor e: As in beginning was, is now, and shall be evermore.

The lamentation of a finner.

OLord turn not away thy face From him that lies proftrate. Lamenting fore his finfull life, Before thy mercie gate.

Which gate thou open'ft wide to those That do lament their fin :

Shut not that gate against me Lord, But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine account. How I have lived here, For then I know right well, O Lord, How vile I shall appear.

I used

I need not to confeste my life,

I need not to confeite my life,
I am fure thou canft tell
What I have been, and what I am,
I know thou know it it well.

O Lord thou knowst what things be past And eke the things that be: Thou knowst also what is to come, Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heavens & earth were made, Thou knowing what things were then, As all things elfe that have been fined. Among the lons of men.

And can the things that I have done Be hidden from thee then? Nay,nay, thou knowft them all, O Lord, Where they were done and when.

Wherefore with tears I come to thee To beg and to intreat,

Even as the childe that hath done ill, And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercie gate, Where mercie doth abound,— Requiring mercie for my fin, To heal my deadly wound.

O Lord, I need not to repeat What I do beg or crave: Thou knowft, O Lord, before I afk The thing that I would have.

Mercie good Lord, mercie I ask, This is the totall fum: For mercie Lord is all my fute, Lord let thy mercie come.

The Lords prayer, or Pater noster.

Our Father which in heaven art.

Lord hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the fame heaven our o

forgi to temp from or king

Ea

am the the ven fro in t

Mo mar

Nor an fh of any no Nor in

Nor fl a That

llpon 2 To th

The

The ten Commandments, heaven is Give us, O Lord,
our daily bread this day, s we forgive our debters, fo forgive our debts we pray, to temptation lead us not:
from cvil make us free,
or kingdome, power, and glorie thing,

The ten Commandments.

both now and ever be.

Audi Ifrael.

Eark Ifrael, and what I fay, give heed to understand:
am the Lord thy God, that brought thee out of Egypt land:
even from the house wherein thou dids in thrasdome live a slave.
None other Gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shale thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like, by thee shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in heaven above,
nor in the earth below,
Nor in the waters beneath the earth of them thou shalt not bow,

Nor fluit them ferve. The Lord thy God a jealous God am I, That punish parents faults unto the third and fourth degree, Upon their children that me hate.

and mercie do display

To thousands of such as me love.

and my precepts obay:

The name thou of the Lord thy God in vain shalt never use: The ten Commandments.

For him that takes his name in vain

the Lord will not excuse.

Remember that thou holy keep the facred fabboth day:

Six dayes thou labour fhalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The feventh day is fet by the Lord thy God to rest upon:
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid thine ox, nor yet thine asse, Nor stranger that within thy gates hath his abiding place;

For in fix dayes God heaven and earth, and all therein did make:

And after those, his rest he did upon the seventh day take.

Wherefore he blest the day that he for resting did ordain:

And facred to himself alone appointed to remain.

Yeeld honour to thy parents, that prolonged thy dayes may be upon the land, the which the Lord thy God hath given thee.

Thou shalt not murther. Thou shalt nos commit adulterie.

Thou shalt not steal. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.

Then shalt not covet house, that to thy neighbour doth belong: Me covet shalt in having of hiswise, to do him wrong. Nor his man-servant, nor his maid, age of use afte of his: Nor any thy

In wrate Vengeal I can it But need. How to The Law

But With Then And to That He fi

The Sev Will So Do But In .

TEVLA

The complaint of a finner, Nor any other thing that to the neighbour proper is.

The complaint of a finner.

Here righteousnesse doth say Lord, for my finfull part, In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeauce for my desert. I can it not denie, But needs I must confesse, How that continually, Thy laws I do transgresse.

But if it be thy will,
With finners to contend,
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without endFor who lives here so right.
That rightly he can say,
He fins not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day?

The fcripture plain tels me.
The righteous man offends
Seven times a day to thee,
Whereon thy wrath depends.
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no fuch path,
But he fals now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then fith the cause so stands,
That even the man right wise,
Fals oft in finfull bands,
Whereby the wrath may rise?
Lord I that am unjust,
And rightconfuesse none have?
Whereto then shall I trust,
My finfull foul to save?

The complaint of a finner, But truly to that post Whereto I cleave and thall : Which is thy mercie most, Lord let thy mercie fall: And mitigate thy mood, Or elfe we perish all, The prife of this thy blond.

Wherein mercie I call.

The Scripture doth declare, No drop of bloud in thec, But that thou didft not spare To fled each drop for me. Now let those drops most sweet so moilt my heart fo drie, That I with finne repleat, May live, and fin may die,

That being mortified This fin of mine in me. I may be fandified By grace of thine in thee So that I never fall Into fuch mortall fin, That my foes infernall Rejoyce my death therein.

But vouchfafe me to keep From those infernall focs, And from that lake fo deep Whereas no mercie grows. And I thall fing the fongs Confirmed with the just, That unto thee belongs, Which art mine only trufts to for led nor But in dot and in him

He fh faf Which in Whole bn

Even i

th

50 But as The

Fo And

The Pfalmes of David

He man is bleft that hath not bent to wicked read his ear:
for led his life as finners do, nor late in (corrers chair,
But in the law of God the Lord doth fet his whole delight:
and in that law doth exerc. fe himfelf both day and night.

He shall be like the tree that grows fast by the rivers side, Which briegeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide:
Whose leaf shall never sade nor fail,
but stourish still and stand:
Eyen so all things shall prosper well, so shall not the ungodly men they shall be nothing to, but as the dust which from the earth the winde drives to and fro.

that this man takes in hand.

Therefore shall not the wicked men in judgement stand apright: Nor yet the suners with the just shall come in place or sight.

For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known: And eke the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSAL. II. T.S. who TT7 Hy did the Gentiles tumults rai what rage was in their brain? Why did the lewith people muse, Seet feeing all is but vain? 2 The kings and rulers of the earth that confpire, and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Son, See which he among us fent. 5 Shall we be bound to them ? fay they oft in ! let all their bonds be broke : And of their doctrine and their law If of let us reject the voke. But he that in the heaven dwels h then their doings will deride: And make them all as mocking stocks, throughout the world so wide. For in his wrath the Lord will fay to them upon a day, They And in his furie trouble them, and then the Lord will fay: But t I have anointed him my King upon my holy hill: v wo I will therefore Lord preach thy laws and cke declare thy will. Ther For in this wife the Lord himfelf and h

be

int

to hi per ih

tha

Lo

I

d

Ilaid

w 10

If

Rif

1

1

did fay to me I wot, Thou art my dear and only Son, to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee, as heires at thy request :

The ends and coafts of all the earth by thee shall be possest. Thou flalt them bruife even with a mach as men under foot trod : And as the potters sheards shalt break them with an iron rod.

To Now ye O kings and rulers all, be wife therefore and learn'd;

whom the matters of the world, be judged and differn'd.

See that we ferve the Lord above in trembling and in fear; that with reverence ye rejoyed to him in like manner.

his bleffed son I fay:
he wift in his wrath ye fuddenly perish in the mid-way.

If once his wrath never so small shall kindle in his breft, then all they that truft in Christ.

p SAL. III. T. S.

Deard how are my foes increast, which vex me more and more?
They kill my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.
But thou, O Lord, art my defence,

when I am hard bestead:

y worthip and my honour both,
and thou holdit up my head.

Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and crie; and he out of his holy hill did hear me by and by.
Ilaid me down, and quietly

I flept and rofe again a or why? I know affuredly the Lord will me fuftain.

ak

If ten thousand had hembd me in,
I could not be afraid:
for thou art fill my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rife up therefore, save me my God,

for new to thee I sall;

Fot

PSAL iiii. For thon haft broke the cheeks and ted en the full of these wicked men all. In pea & Salvation only doth belong taki to thee, O Lord, above : ot thou Thou doet bestow upon thy folke alor thy bleffing and thy love. PSAL. IIII. T.S. Nelin God that art my right confineffe, OL Lord hear me when I call: And l Thou haft fet me at libertie tot when I was bound and thrall. Beart 2 Have mercic, Lord, therefore on me, for and grant me my requelt ! y pra For unto thee unceffantly to to crie I will not reit. 3 O mortall men, how long will ye And my glory thus dispite? non a Why wander ye in vanitie, and follow after lies? And 4 Know ye that good and godly men the Lord doth take and chuse: ain v And when to him I make my plaint he doth me not refuse.

sin not,but ftand in awe therefore, examine well your heart: And in your chamber quietly fee you your felves convert. 6 Offer to God the facrifice of righteoutuelle, I fay :

And look that in the living Lord you put your trust alway.

7 The greater fort crave worldly good B Lo and riches do embrace: Ent Lord grant us thy countenance, thy favour and thy grace. & For thou thereby thalt make my hear 9 F more joyfull and more glad,

The

And

7 Th

And

And

d tee en they that of their corn and wine full great increase have had.

In peace therefore lie down will I taking my reft and sleep:

For thou only wilt me, O Lord,

PSAL. V. T.S.

alone in fafety keep.

ie,

Ncline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord, my plaint confider:
And hear my voice my King, my God,
tothee I make my prayer.
Hear me betimes, Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect,
y prayer early in the morne, to thee for to direct.

And I will trust through patience in thee my God alone: Thou art not pleas'd with wickednesses, and ill with thee dwelsnone.

And in thy fight shall never stand these furious fools, O Lord:

there furfous fools, O Lord a fain workers of iniquity thou haft alwayes ablord,

The liers and the flatterers thou shalt destroy them than : And God will hate, the bloud thirsty and the deceiful man.

Therefore will I come to thy house, trusting upon thy grace:

And reverently will worthip thee toward thy holy place.

for to confound my foes,
And eke the way that I shall walk before my face disclose.
For in their mouths there is no truth, their hearts are foul and vain:

2

Their

PSAL VI Their throat an open sepulcher, their tongues do glose and faine To Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought : Subvert them in their heaps of fin, which have rebellion wrought. It But they that put their truit in the BBnt no let them be glad alwayes:

And render thanks for thy defence, and give thy name the praise.

For thou with favour wilt increase the just and tighteous still: And with thy grace, as with a thield, defend them from all ill.

PSAL. VI. T. S. Ord in thy wrath reprove me not though I deferve thine ire: Ne yet correct me in thy rage, O Lord, I thee defire.

& For I am weake, therefore O Lord, of mercie me forbear:

And heal me Lord, for why? thou know !! my bones do quake for fear.

My foul is troubled very fore, and vexed vehemently: But Lord how long wilt thou delay to cure my miserie?

& Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace, my filly foul up take:

Oh lave me not for my deferts, but for thy mercies fake.

g For why ? no man among the dead remembreth thee one whit : Or who shall worship thee, O Lord, in the infernall pit ? 6 to grievous is my plaint and mone, that I wax wondrous faint :

the nig with

My figh wit or fear and that For why of . He h and

> But it 1 31 And

th And fi t

Save

Wh

Or

AII

with tears of my complaint.

My fight is dim and waxeth old with anguish of my heart: For fear of those that be my foes, and would my foul fubvert.

thee B But now away from me all ye that work iniquitie:

for why? the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and crie.

He heard not only the request, and prayer of my heart: But it received at my hands, and took it in good part.

And now my foes that vexed me
the Lord will foon defame:

And fuddable confound themall

And fuddenly confound them all, to their rebuke and shame.

PSAL. VII. T.S.

Lord my God, I put my trust and confidence in thee:
save me from them that me pursue,
and cke deliver me.

a Left like a lion he me teat and rend in pieces small: While there is none to succour may and rid me out of thrall-

c Lord my God, if I have done the thing that is not right: Or else if I be found in fault, or guilty in thy fight :

4 Or to my friend rewatded ill,
or left him in diffress:

Which me pursu'd most cruelly, and hated me causelesse.

g Then let my focs purfue my foul, and eke my life down thrust

Hute

PSAL VIII Unto the earth, and alfo lay mine honour in the duft.

6 Start np,O Lord, now in thy wrath. and put my foes to pain: Perform the kingdome promifed to me which wrong fustain.

7 Then thall great nations come to thet In The and know thee by this thing : If thou declare for love of them, thy felt as Lord and King. 8 And thou that arr of all men judge, O'Lord, now judge thou me According to my righteoulnelle and mine integritie.

The fecond part.

o Lord ceafe the hate of wicked men, and be the just mans guide :

to By whom the fecrets of all hearts are fearthed and deferide.

II I take my help to come of God in all my pain and fmart: That doth preferve all those that be of pure and perfect heart.

12 The just man and the wicked both God judgeth by his power: So that he feels his mightie hand even every day and houre. 13 Except he change his minde I die, for even as he thould fmite, He wetshis fword, his bow he bends, aiming where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortall darts, his arrows keen and tharp,

For them that do me perfecute whilfthe dothm fchief warp.

Is But lo, though he in travell be of his devillish forecast :

And

nd of h

6 He

But he

in 1

tha

of

th

Aud al

8 T V

And W

Who

2 E

For

Th

O

5

PSAL. viii.

nd of his mischief once conceiv'd, yet brings forth nought at last.

6 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit

that he digd up for other.
Thus wrong returneth to the hure of him in whom it bred:
And all the milchief that he wrought shall fall upon his head.

8 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteoufly:
And with a forg will praife the name of him that is most hie.

PSAL. VIII. T.S.

God our Lord how wonderfull are thy works every where; Whofe fame furmounts in dignitie above the heavens clear!

2 Even by the mouths of fucking babes thou wilt confound thy foes: For in those babes thy might is seen, thy graces they disclose.

And when I fee the heavenshigh, the works of thine own hand: The fun, the moon, and all the stars, in order as they stand.

4 What thing is man, Lord think I them, that thou doest him remember ?

Or what is mans posteritie that thou doest it consider?

5 For thou hast made him little less then angels in degree: And thou hast crowned him also with glore and dignitie.

6 Thou half preferd him to be Lord of all thy works of wonder:

Bs

And

PSAL. ix. And at his feet halt let all things, And it that he thould keep them under. As fheep and neat, and all beafts elfe Wi which in the fields do feed : & Fowls of the aire,fish in the fea. And fe with all that therein breed. Therefore must I fay once again, Hei O God that art our Lord, How famous and how wonderfull He is are thy works through the world PSAL. IX. T.S. Al WIth heart and mouth unto the Lore will I fing laud and praise : FOI 1 And freak of all his wondrons works. and them declare alwayes. I will be glad, and much rejoyce in thee, O Lord, most hie; 11 5 And make my fongs extoll thy name above the starrie skie. Publ Por that my foes are driven back. 32 1 and turned unto flight : They fall down flat, and are destroid For by thy great power and might. Thou haft revenged all my wrong, my grief, and all my grudge: 32 H Thou doeft with justice hear my cause, most like a righteous judge. W 5 Thou doeft rebuke the heathen folke. and wicked so confound, That afterward the memorie An of them cannot be found. My foes thou haft made good dispatch and all their towns destroid : 35 Thou hast their fame with them defac'd through all the world fo wide. A Know thou, that he which is above, 16 for evermore shall raigne:

t

11

t

1

PSAL. And in the feat of equitie, true judgement will maintain. elfe With justice he will keep and guide the world and every wight: And fo will yeeld with equitie, to every man his right. He is protectour of the poore, what time they be opprest: He is in all adverfity their refuge and their reft. All they that know thy holy name, therefore shall truft in thee : For thou forfakeft not their fait in their necessitie. The second part. 11 Sing pfalmes therefore unto the Lotd. that dwels in Ston hill : Publish among all nations his noble acts and will. 72 For he is mindfull of the bloud of those that be opprest: Forgetting not th' afflicted heart, that feeks to him for reft. 3 Have mercy Lord on me poore wretch. whose enemies fill remain : Which from the gates of death art wont to raife me up again. 14 In Sion that I might fet forth thy praise with heart and voice: And that in thy falvation, Lord, my foul might still rejoyce. h The heathen flick fast in the pit that they themselves prepar'd:

And in the net that they did set,
their own feet are fast suar'd.

26 God shews his judgements, which were for every man to mark; good (good Whee

d

PSAL. x.
When as ye fee the wicked man lie trapt in his own wark.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men go down to hell for ever:
And all the people of the world that will not God remember.

18 But fire the Lord will not forget the poore mans grief and pain;

The patient people never look for help of God in vain.

19 O Lord, arife left men prevail

that be of worldly might:

And let the heathen folk receive their judgment in thy fight.

20 Lord firike fuch terrour, fear and dread,
into the hearts of them,

That they may know affuredly they be but mortall men.

PSAI. X. T. C.

What is the cause that thou, O Lord, art now so far from thine;
And keepest close thy countenance from us thistronblous time?

The poore do perish by the proud and wicked mens defire:

and wicked mens defire:
Let them be taken in the craft that they themselves conspire.

For in the luft of his own heart the ungodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked praife himself, and doth the Lord delpight.
He is for mond that right and week.

4 He is so proud, that right and wrong he setteth all apart:

May, nay, there is no God, faith he, for thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his wayes do prosper still, he doth thy lawes neglea: Tuff le And v nd w tu

His

Inder

o A

If he

¥2 His

23

7

And

PSAL. x.

Ind with a blaft doth puffe against tuch as would him correct.

Tufh, tufh, faith he, I have no dread left mine cftate should changes.

And why? for all advertitie to him is very strange.

His mouth is full of curfednesse, of fraud, deceit and guile: Inder his tongue doth mischief sie, and travell all the while.
B He lieth hid in wayes and holes to flay the impocent:
Orainst the poore that passe him by

Against the poore that passe him by his cruell eyes are bent,

And like a Lion privily lies lurking in his den,
If he may fuare them in his net,
to spoil poore simple men.
To And for the nonce sull crastily
he croucheth down I say:
It So are great heaps of poore men made by his strong power his prey.

The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this faith he; therefore I may be bold:
His countenance is cast aside, he doth it not hehold.

13 Arise O Lord, O God, in whom the poore mans hope doth rest:
List up thy hand, forget not Lord, the poore that be oppress.

14 What blasphemie is this to thee,
Lord doest thou not abhor it ?
To hear the wicked in their hearts fay, Trish, thou careft not for it.

15 But thouseest all their wickednesse, and well doest understand,

d ad,

d,

PSAL. xi. 16 That friendleffe and poore fatherleff And fo are left into thy hand. 17 Of wicked and malicious men. then break the power for ever ? But in That they with their iniquitie may perish all together. An 18 The Lord thall reigne for evermore as King and God alone : Fire a And he shall chaf the heathen folk our of his land each one. 19 Thou hearst, O Lord, & poor mens plaint, their prayers and request : And Their hearts thou wilt confirm untill, thine ears to hear be preft : 20 To judge the poor and fatherlede, and help them to their right : That they may be no more opprest by men of worldly might. PSAL. XI. T.S. Trust in God, how dare ye then fay thus my foul untill, Flie hence as fast as any fowl, and hide you in your hill? 3 Behold, the wicked bend their bows, and make their arrows preft, To shoot in tecret, and to hurt the found and harmleffe breft. a Of worldly hope all stayes were freunk, and clearly brought to nought : Alas, the just and righteons man what evil hath he wrought ? But he that in his temple is most holy and most hie; And in the heavens hath his feat of royall majestie. The poore and fimple mans efface confidereth in his minde:

And

And

For

3 B

Ou

PSAL. xii. les And fearcheth out full narrowly. the manners of mankinde. And with a chearfull countenance the righteons man will use : But in his heart he doth abhor all fuch as mischief muse. And on the finners casteth snares, as thick as any rain: Fire and brimftone, and whirlwinds thick. appointed for their pain. Ye fee then how a righteons God int dothrighteousnesse embrace : And to the just and upright men shewes forth his pleasant face. PSAL. XII. I.H. TElp Lord, for good and godly men do perith and decay: And faith and truth from worldly men is parted clean away, his talk is all but vain :

Who fo doth with his neighbour talk. For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie and fain.

But flattring and deceitfull lips, and tongues that be follout, To speak proud words, & make great brags, the Lord foon cuts them out. For they fay ftill, we will prevail, our tongues shall us extell :

Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak, what Lord shall us controll?

But for the great complaint and crie of poore and men opprest, Arise will I now, faith the Lord, and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to filver pure, that from the earth is tride :

PSAL. xiii. xiiii. And hath no leffe then feven times in fire been purified. The 7 Now fith thy promife is to help, Lord keep thy promife then: And fave us now and evermore from this ill kinde of men. & For now this wicked world is full They of mischiefs manifold, When vanity with mortall men fo highly is extold. PSAL. XIII. T.S. Tow long wile thou forget me Lord, shall I never be remembred ? ating How long wiltthou thy vifage hide, as though thou wert offended? 3 In heart and minde how long shall I with care tormented be ? How long eke shall my deadly foes thus triumph over me? Behold me now my Lord my God, and hear me fore opprest: Becau Lighten mine eyes, left that I fleep as one by death poffest. 4 Bu 4 Lest thus mine enemie fay to me, behold I do prevail: Left they also that hate my foul Thy I rejoyce to fee me quail. 5 But from thy mercie and goodnesse my hope iliall never fart: In thy relief and faving health right glad shall be my heart. 6 I will give thanks unto the Lord, and praises to him fing: Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing. PSAL. XIIII. T.S. Here is ne God, as foolish men affirm in their mad mood :-

no

th

th at it

1 Is a

th

n

8 E

Then

Their

d fa

PSAL xv.

eir drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.
The Lordbeheld from heaven high the whole race of mankinde:
ad faw not one that fought indeed the living God to hade.

They went all wide, and were corrupt, and truly there was none at in the world did any good, I fay there was not one.

Is all their judgement fo far loft, that all work mischief still ating my people even as bread, not one to seek Gods will?

When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall:

For God doth love the righteous men, and will maintain them all

Ye mock the doings of the poore to their reproch and shame : Because they put their trust in God, and call upon his name.

But who shall give thy people health?

and when wilt thou fulfill

Thy promise made to Israel, from out of sion hill?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again fuch as were captive lad:

Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce, and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. X V. T.S.

Or who fhall inhabite ftill?

Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell in thy most holy hill?

The man whose life is uncorrupt, whose works are just and straight:

Whole

eir

rd,

PSAL. XVI. Whose heart doth think the very truth, vill whose tongue speakes no deceit. Nor to his neighbour doth noneill, For in body, goods or name : Nor willingly doth move false tales. and t which might empair the fame. 4 That in his heart regardeth not 攫Th malicious wicked men : But those that love and fear the Lord, mine he maketh much of them. 5 His oath and all his promifes It that keepeth faithfully : Although he make his covenant lo For that he doth lofe thereby. That putteth not to niurie his movie and his coin : Ne for to hurt the innocent, for doth bribe or else purloin. · V

7 Who fo doth all things as you fee that here are to be done, Shall never perith in this world, nor in the world to come. PSAL. XVI. T.S. Ord keep me, for I trust in thee, and do confeste indeed, Thou art my God, and of my goods. O Lord, thou haft no need.

2 I give my goods unto the Saints. that in the world do dwell:

And namely to the faithfull flock in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heap forrows on their heads which run as they were mad, To offer to the idol gods, alas it is too bad.

As for their bloudy facrifice, and offerings of that fort,

I will

No

Df

n

PSAL. xvii.

will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

For why, the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance:
and thou art he that doest maintain my rent, my lot, my chance.

ord, hine heritage afsign'd to me, doth please me wondrous well.

> I thank the Lord, that caused me to understand the right:

For by his means my fecret thoughts do teach me in the night.

I fet the Lord still in my fight, and trust him over all : For he dothstand on my light hand, therefore I shall not fall.

leg

ads

will

Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together; My flesh and body rest in hope, when I this thing consider.

for Lord thou lovest me:

Not yet wile sive thine holy One.

Nor yet wilt give thine holy One, corruption for to fee.

for all treasure and store of perfect joy are in thy face, and power for evermore.

PSAL. XVII. T.S.

Lord give ear to my just causes attend when I complain;
And hear the prayer that I put forth, with lips that do not fain.

And let the judgement of my cause, proceed alwayes from thee:

And

PSAL. Tvii. And let thine eyes behold and clear this my simplicity. 2 Thou haft well tride me in the night. and yet couldft nothing finde, That I have fpoken with my tongue, that was not in my minde. A As for the works of wicked men, and paths perverfe and ill: For love of thy most holy name I have refrained still. 5 Then in thy paths that be most pure. flay me Lord and preferve: That from the way wherein I walk my steps may never fwerve.

6 For I do call to thee, O Lord, furely thou wilt me aide:

Then hear my prayer, and weigh right well the words that I have faid.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their trust in thee, Declare thy strength on them that fourn against thy majestie.

& O keep me Lord, as thou wouldst keep the apple of thine eye:" And under covert of thy wings defend me fecretly.

The fecond part. 9 From wicked men that trouble me, aud daily me annoy:

And from my foes that go about my foul for to deftroy.

To Which wallow in their wordly wealth fo full and eke fo fat:

That in their pride they do not spare to speak they care not what.

II They lie in wait where I should passe, with craft me to confound ;

Save

14 D

And n

12 M

Or lu

13 Up

Which

15 I That

Thei 17 B

Sow

2 My

Myr

And

PSAL. xviii. And musing mischief in their mindes to calt me to the ground. 12 Much like a lion greedily that would his prey embrace: Or lurking like a lions whelp within some fecret place. 13 Up Lord in hafte, prevent my foe, and caft him at thy feet:

Save thou my foul from the ill man. and with the fword him fmite.

14 Deliver me Lord by thy power out of thefe tyrants hands: Which now fo long time reigned have and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean from worldly men, to whom all worldly goods are rife: That have no hope nor part of joy

but in this present life. 16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill with pleasure to their minde :

Their children have enough, and leave to theirs the rest behinde.

17 But I shall with pure conscience behold thy gracious face: So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace. PSAL. X VIII. T.S. God my strength and fortitude of force I must love thee: Thou art my castle and defence in my necessitie.

2 My God, my rock, in whom I truft the worker of my wealth: My refuge, buckler, and my shield, 1 the horn of all my health.

3 When I fing land unto the Lord, most worthy to be served:

PSAL. XVIII. Then from my foes I am right fure; that I thall be preferv'd. 4 The pangs of death did compaffe ma and bound me every where: The rowing waves of wickednesse did put me in great fear. The flie and fubtil fnares of hell were round about me fet: And for my death there was prepar'd a deadly trapping net. 6 I thus befet with pain and grief, did pray to God for grace: And he forthwith did hear my plaint out of his holy place. such is his power, that in his wrath he made the earth to quake: Yea the foundation of the mount of Basan for to shake. & And from his noftrils came a fmoak. when kindled was his ire : And from his mouth came kindled coals of hote confuming fire. The Lord descended from above, and bowd the heavens hie; And underneath his feet he cast the darkneffe of the skie. To On Cherubs and on Cherubins, full royally he rode: And on the wings of all the winds, came flying all abroad. The second part. at And like a den most dark he made his hid and fecret place: With waters black and airie clouds environed he was. 12 But when the presence of his face, in brightnesse shall appear, Then clouds confume, and in their fread some hail and coals of fire.

z; The 32 7

And

34 L

The !

25 A

And]

15 A

Yea fi

But y

18 H

Andk

And t

20 F

And h

M B

His f

22 B

PSAL. xviii.

The fierie darts and thunderbolte disperse them here and there:

And with his often lightening: he puts them in great fear.

14 Lord at thy wrath and threatenings, and at thy chiding chear,

The springs and the foundations of all the world appear.

25 And from above the Lord fent down to fetch me from below:

And plukt me out of waters great, that would me over low.

16 And me deliver'd from my focs, that would have made me thrall:

Yea from such foes as were too strong for me to deal withall.

77 They did prevent me to oppresse in time of my great grief:

But yet the Lord was my defence, my fuccour and relief.

x8 He brought me forth in open place, whereas I might be free:

And kept me fafe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent: fo did he me regard:

And to the cleannesse of my hands he gave me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes, and in his paths have trod : And have not wayer'd' wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third part.

But evermore I have respect to his law and decree:

His statutes and commandements.
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt
appear'd before his face:

PSAL. xvili. 'And did refrain from wickedneffe at all and fin in any cafe. 23 The Lord therefore will me reward as I have done aright : nd for And to the cleannesse of my hands ' int appearing in his fight. He di 34 For Lord with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too: And with the good and vertuous men o brea right vertuoufly wilt do. Thou And to the loving and elect thy love thon wilt referve: by lov And thou wilt use the wicked men as wicked men deferve. 26 For thou doest lave the simple folk And in trouble when they lie: that ! And doest bring down the countenance of them that look full hie. And 27 The Lord will light my candle for nd fro that it thall thine full bright: The Lord my God will make allo. my darkneffe to be light. Sol 28 For by thy help an hoft of men discomfite Lord I shall: or at n By thee I scale and overleap the strength of any wall. For 3 9 Unspotted are the wayes of God; hat th his word is purely tride :

He is a fure defence to fuch as in his faith abide. 30 For who is God except the Lord ! for other there is none:

Or elfe who is omnipotent, faving our God alone?

The fourth part. er The God that girdeth me with ftrength is he that I do mean:

did

That

in f

to

he thy dot

nor

my till tha

Ιft

to '

tha

m in f

no

to

yet

Doro

nd all

i he

PSAL. xviii. at all the wayes wherein I walk did evermore keep clean. That made my feet like to the harts in swiftnesse of my pace: d for my furety brought me forth into an open place. He did in order put my hands to battel and to fight: o break in funder bars of braffe. he gave mine armes the might. Thou teachest me thy faving health thy right hand is my tower: ly love and familiarity doth still increase my power. And under me thou makest plain the way where I should walk : that my foot thall never flip nor stumble at a balk. And fiercely I purine and take my foes that me annoid: nd from the field do not return till they be all destroid. So I suppresse and wound my foes that they can rife no more: or at my feet they fall down flat, I firike them all fo fore. For y doest gird me with thy strength to war in fuch a wife : hat they be all scattred abroad that up against me rife. ord thou haft put into my hands my mortall enemies yoke: nd all wy foes thou doest devide in funder with thy stroke. They cald for help, but none gave ear, nor holp them with relief : to the Lord they cald for help, yet heard he not their grief. The

bı

CH

2

2

PSAL. xviii.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the winde,
I drive them under feet:
And sweep them out like filthy clay that sticketh in the street.

42 Thou keepst me from seditious folk,

that ftill in ftrife are led:
And thou doeft of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.

4; A People frange, to me unknown, and yet they shall me ferve: And at the first obey my word, whereas mine own will swerve.

44 I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:

But wander wide out of the way, and hide them out of fight.

45 But bleffed be the living Lord, most worthy of all praise:

That is my! rock and faving health, praised be the alwayes.

46 For God it is that gave me power, revenged for to be: And with his holy word subdued

And with his holy word fube the people unto me.

And from my foes delivered me, and fet me higher then those, That cruell and ungodly were, and up against me rose.

48 And for this caufe, O Lord my God, to thee give thanks I shall: And fing out praises to thy name, among the Gentiles all.

49. That gavest great prosperitie unto the king, I fay:

To David thine anointed king, and to his feed for aye, The ni

Mall the

The glo

The v

his

by

In the

With

6 And he Nothir

> Hov ho

Convert S Juff

His pr

The ju

to Ar

PSAI. XIX. T.S. He heavens and the firmament do wendroufly declare the glorie of God omnipotent, his works and what they are. The wondrous works of God appear by every dayes successe: The nights likewise which their race run, the felf fame things expresse. where their found is not heard;

There is no language, tongue or speech, all the earth and coasts thereof, their knowledge is conferd.

In them the Lord made for the fun a place of great renown :

Who like a bridegroom ready trimd doth from his chamber come.

And as a valiant champion, who for to get a prife, With joy doth hatte to take in hand fome noble enterprise, 6 And all the fkie from end to end he compasseth about : Nothing can hide it from his heat, but he will finde it ont.

How perfect is the law of God, how is his covenant fure ? Converting fouls, and making wife the simple and obscure. Just are the Lords commandments, and glad both heart and minde; His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blinde. The fear of God is excellent and doth endure for ever : The judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether, to And more to be embraced alwayes then fined gold I fay :

Th.

PSAL. XX. The hony and the hony combe are not fo fweet as they.

II By them thy fervant is forewarn'd to have Cod in regard:

And in performance of the same there thall be great reward.

But Lord what earthly man doth know In c the errours of his life ? Then cleanie my foul from fecret fins which are in me most rife. 13 And keep me that prefamptuous fins prevail not over me: And then I shall be innocent, and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth, and eke my heart, my words and thoughts each one :

For my redeemer and my itrength, O Lord, thou art alone.

PSAL. XX. T. S. N trouble and adverfitie the Lord God hear thee ftill : The majeftie of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.

2 And fend thee from his holy place his help at every need.

And fo in Sion stablish thee, and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remember well the facrifice that unto him is done: And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-offrings each one.

4 According to thy hearts defire the Lord grant unto thee : And all thy counfel and devise full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou usfavist, and our panners difplay into t fu The

And fe

O

But w th

The 31

Nov on

Row v

in For hi To him

of Thou 31

And the And

th To hav

> Grea thy

Great V th

Tho th

Liuto

Into the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hathalway.

The Lord will his anointed fave, I know well by his grace:

I know well by his grace: and fend him health by his right hand out of his holy place.

In chariots fome put confidence, and fome in horfes truft:

But we remember God our Lord, that keepeth promife just.

They fall down flat, but we do rife, and fland up fledfaftly:

Now fave and help us Lord and King, on thee when we do crie

PSAL. XXI. T.S,

OLord how joyfull is the King in thy strength and thy power :

How vehemently doth he rejoyce in thee his Saviour ?

For thou hast given unto him his godly hearts defire:

To him nothing thou hast denied of that he did require.

Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts and bletsings manifold:

And then hast set upon his head a crown of perf & gold.

And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou mad'th him fure,

To have long life, yea such a life, as ever shall endure.

Great is his glorie by thy help, thy benefit and aid:

Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

Thou wilt give him felicitie that never shall decay:

And

2012
And with thy cheerfull countenance wilt comfort nim alway.	cease
7 For why? the King doth ftrongly trust in God for to prevail: Therefore his goodnesse and his grace will not that he shall quail. 8 But let thine enemies feel thy force, and those that thee withstand: Finde out thy foes, and let them feel the power of thy right hand.	Even an Thou a a And h And w
 And like an oven burn them Lord, in fierie flame and fume: Thine anger shall destroy them all, and fire shall them consume. And thou wilt root out of theearth, their fruit that should increase: And from the number of thy solk their feed shall end and cease. 	And for the But mo
11 For why? much mischief they did muse against thy holy name: Yet did they fail, and had no power for to perform the same. 12 But as a mark thou shalt them set in a most open place: And charge thy bowltrings readily against thy enemies face.
13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore, in thy strength every houre: So shall we sing right solemnly, praising thy might and power. PSAL.XXII. T.S. God my God, wherefore doest thou forsake me utterly? And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and crie.	9 But I Thou to I Since

2 To thee my God, even all day long

I do both crie and call;

I cease

II T in

. 5.

Even thou that in thy fan@uarie and holy place doeft dwell: Thou art the comfort and the joy, and glorie of Ifcael.

ıft

(e

And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for ever; and when they put their trust in thee, thou didst them aye deliver.

They were deliv'red ever when they called on thy name: and for the faith they had in thee, they were not put to thame.

But I am now become a worm more like then any man : An outcast, whom the people form with all the spite they can.

All men despise as they behold me walking on the way: They grin, they mow, they nod their heads, and on this wise they say:

8 This man did glorie in the Lord, his favour and his love:

Let him redeem and help him now, his power if he will prove.

But Lord out of my mothers womb
I came by thy request:
Thou didt preserve me still in hope

while I did fuck her breft,

10 I was committed from my birth, with thee to have abode:

Since I was in my mothers womb thou hast been ever my God.

The second part.

It Then Lord depart not now from me in this my present grief;

PSAL. XXII.
Since I have none to be my help,	And my fuccour and relief.	me
32 So many buls do compaffe me	nd from that be full strong of head:	Lo
Yea buls fo fat, as though they had	Then in Basan field been fed.	thy
33 They gape upon me greedily	and in t
as though they would me flay :	of
A facility of the second secon	A 11 and ramping for his prey.	3 All y
	tho
my joynts in funder break:	nd all
My heart doth in my hody melt	A For like wax against the heat.	he 15 And like a potsheard dries my ftrengt
my tongue it cleaveth fast	bu Unto my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.	35 Am 36 And many dogs do compasse me,	Thy P and wicked counsel eke	f
Conspire against me cursedly,	26 Th
they pierce my hands and feet.
37 I was tormented fo that I	To kn
might all my bones have told	th
Yet still upon me they do look,	27 All and ftill they me behold.	1
38 My garments they divided eke	The 1
in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots	38 T
to whom it might befall	1
39 Therefore I pray thee be not far	And from me at my great need .
But rather fith thou art my strength,	29 7
to help me Lord make speed.	W.
30 And from the fword Lord fave my foul,	'And by thy might and thy power:
And keep my foul thy darling dear	20 1
from dogs that would devoure.
B triang to the total contract	F1.505

21 And

And from the lions mouth that would me all in funder fliver:

nd from the horns of unicorns, Lord, fafely me deliver.

Then thall I to my brethren all thy majestic record:

and in thy church shall praise the name of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

All ye that fear him, praise the Lord,

thou Jacob honour him :

with reverence worthip him.

4 For he despiseth not the poore,

he turneth not awrie

His countenance when they do call, but granteth to their crie.

Among the flock that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim

Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy name.

The poore thall cat and be ft fficed, and those that do their dever

To know the Lord, shall praise his name, their hearts shall live for ever.

and turn to him for grace:

The heathen folk shall worship him before his blessed face. 8 The kingdome of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:

And he shall be their governour and King for evermore.

29 The rich men of his godly gifts thall feed and talte also:

And in his presence worship him, and bow their knees full low.

And all that thall go down to dust, of life by him must taste:

C

My

My feed shall ferve and praise the Lord, while any world thall laft.

at My feed shall plainly shew to them that shall be born hereafter, His justice and his righteousnesse, and all his works of wonder.

DS AL. XXIII. W.W. He Lord is only my support, and he that doth me feed: How can I then lack any thing whereof I ftand in need?

2 He doth me fold in cotes moft fafe. the tender graffe fait by : And after drives me to the ftreames which run most pleasantly. 2 And when I feel my felf near laft.

then doth he me home take: Conducting me in his right paths, even for his own names take. 4 And though I were even at deaths dore, Yea, hi ver would I fear none ill:

For with thy rod and thepheards crook I am comforted ftill.

5 Thou haft my table richly deckt in despite of my foe:

Thou haft my head with balm refresht, my cup doth overflow.

6 And finally while breath doth laft, thy grace shall me defend : And in the house of God will I my life for ever fpend.

Another of the same, by T.S. AY thepherd is the living Lord, nothing therefore I need;

In paftures fair with waters calm he fetsme forth to feed.

He did and l walk for h

Yea tho yet ' Thy rod. and

And. niy Thou fl

> Thro 10 hat i

and

- For

And 1

2 For

His

2 He

P SAL. xxiiii.

He did convert and glad my foul,
and brought my minde in trame, walk in paths of righteoufnesses, for his most holy name.

yea though I walk in vale of death, yet will I fear none ill: Thy rod, thy staffe doth comfort me, and thou art with me ftill.

And in the presence of my foes

my table thou shalt spread : Thou shalt, O Lord, fill tull my cup, and eke anoint my head.

Through all my life thy favour is to frankly thewd to me, that in thy houte for evermore my dwelling place thall be.

PSAL. XXIIII. J.H.
He earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:

that therein doth endure.
For he hath faftly founded it above the sea to stand:

and laid alow the liquid flouds, to flow beneath the land.

For who is he,O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill? or passe into thy holy place, whose hands are harmlesse, & whose heart no spot there doth defile:

His foul not fet on vanitie, who hath not fworn to guil.

Him that is fuch a one, the Lord fhall place in blisfull plight: And God his God and Saviour, fhall yeeld to him his right.

c

PSAL. XXV. This is the brood of travellers. in feeking of his grace : As Jacob did the Hraelite in the time of his race. 7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope the everlasting gate, For there shall enter in thereby the King of glorious state. 8 Who is the King of glorious flate ? the ftrong and mightie Lord: The mightie Lord in battel fout, and triall of the fword. ye princes ope your gates, frand ope the everlatting gate : For there shall enter in thereby the King of glorious state. 10 Who is the King of glorious state? the Lord of holts it is: The kingdome and the royaltie . of glorious state is his. PSAL. XXV. T.S. Lift my heart to thee, my Cod and guide most just : Now futter me to take no flame. for in thee do I truft. z Let not my foes rejoyce, nor make a fcorn of me : And let them not be overthrown that put their truft in thee. 3 But shame shall them befall, which harm them wrongfully : Therefore thy paths and thy right wayes, unto me Lord descrie. d Direct me in thy truth, and teach me I thee pray: Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I wait alway.

Thy

And e

6 Ren

Reme

Nor :

But c

7 H

Ther

8 T

He

9 F

To

Io

To

T

5 The

PS A L. XXV.

Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee Lord remember:

And eke thy pitie plentifull, for they have been for ever.

6 Remember not the faults and frailty of my youth:

Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deserts let me thy mercie finde :

But of thine own benignitie, Lord have me in thy minde.

7 His mercie is full fweet,

his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will finners teach,
and fuch as go afide.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep: He will direct in all his wayes

the lowly and the meek.
For all the wayes of God are truth and mercie both:

To them that keep his Testament,
the witnesse of his truth.

The fecond part.

O Lord, I thee intreat,
To grant me pardon for my fin.

for it is wondrous great.

11 Who so doth fear the Lord,

To lead his life in fuch a way as he doth best accept.

12 His foul shall evermore in goodnesse dwell and stand:

His feed and his posteritie inherite shall the land.

PSAL. XXV. This is the brood of travellers, Thy in feeking of his grace : As Jacob did the Ifraelite And el in the time of his race. 6 Ren 7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope the everlasting gate, Reme For there shall enter in thereby the King of glorious state. 8 Who is the King of glorious state ? Nor a the ftrong and mightie Lord: The mightie Lord in battel fout, But o andtriall of the fword. 7 Hi ye princes ope your gates, fand ope the everlaiting gate : Ther For there shall enter in thereby the King of glorious state. 10 Who is the King of glorious flate? the Lord of holts it is: The kingdome and the royaltie . of glorious state is his. PSAL. XXV. T.S. Lift my heart to thee. my Cod and guide most just : Now futter me to take no flame. for in thee do I truft. z Let not my foes rejoyce, nor make a fcorn of me : And let them not be overthrown that put their trust in thee. 3 But shame shall them befall, which harm them wrongfully : Therefore thy paths and thy right wayes, unto me Lord descrie. 4 Direct me in thy truth, and teach me I thee pray: Thou art my God and Saviour, on thee I wait alway. s Thy fo

8 T

He v

9 F

To

H

PS A L. XXV.

5 Thy mercies manifold, I pray thee Lord remember: And eke thy pitic plentifull, for they have been for ever-

6 Remember not the faults and frailty of my youth:

Remember not how ignorant I have been of thy truth.

Nor after my deferts let me thy mercie finde :

But of thine own benignitie, Lord have me in thy minde.

7 His mercie is full (weet,

his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will finners teach,
and fuch as go afide.

8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:

He will direct in all his wayes the lowly and the meek.

9 For all the wayes of God are truth and mercie both:

To them that keep his Testament, the witnesse of his truth.

The second part.

O Lord, I thee intreat,

To grant me pardon for my fingfor it is wondrous great.

the Lord will him direct,

To lead his life in such a way as he doth best accept.

12 His foul shall evermore in goodnesse dwell and stand:

His feed and his posteritie inherite shall the land.

13 All those that fear the Lord, know his secret intent:

And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.

14 Mine eyes and cke my heart to him I will advance:

That pluckt my feet out of the snare of sin and ignorance.

to thee 1 make my mone:

For I am poore and defolate, and comfortlesse alone.

16 The troubles of my heart are multiplied indeed:
Bring me out of this miferie, necessitie and need.

17 Behold my povertie, mine anguish and my pain

mine anguith and my pain : Remit my fin and mine offence, and make me clean again.

18 O Lord behold my foes, how they do still increase: Pursuing me with deadly hate, that fain would live in peace.

Preserve and keep my foul, and eke deliver me:

And let me not be overthrown, because I trust in thee.

20 Let my simple purenesse me from mine enemies shend:
Because I look as one of thine, that thou shouldst me defend.

and fend them some relief:

I mean thy chosen Israel, from all their pain and grief.

PSAL.

Ord my trust in wil

Prove

As men my

Thy Ide

4 I do n wi

wi

I much

My i

Then to

And for

g O G

I have

901

Nor ye

TAT VEIGH O

Ord be my Judge, and thou thalt fee my paths be right and plain : truft in God, and hope that he will strength me to remain

Prove me my God, I thee defire, my wayes to fearch and trie:

As men do prove their gold with fire, my reins and heart efpie.

Thy goodnesse laid before my face, I durst behold alwayes:

For of thy truth I tread the trace, and will do all my dayes.

I do not lust to haunt or use with men whose deeds are vain;

To come in house I do refuse. with the deceitfull train.

I much abhor the wicked fort, their deeds I do despise:

I do not once to them refort, that hurtfull things devise. 6 My hands I wash, and do proceed in works to walk upright :

Then to thine altar I make fpeed, to offer there in fight.

That I may speak and preach the praise, that doth belong to thee:

And fo declare how wondrous wayes thou haft been good to me.

8 O God, thy house I love most dear, to me it doth excell:

I have delight, and ould be near whereas thy grace doth dwell.

O shut not up my foul with them in fin that take their fill : Nor yet my life among those men that feek much blond to fpill.

10 Whofe

PSAL. XXVII. In Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full: (guil, And their right hand with wrench & wile My foes for bribes doth pluck and pull. II But I in righteouineffe intend my time and dayes to ferve:

Have mercie Lord, and me defend, fo that I do not fwerve.

12 My foot is staid for all assayes, it standeth well and right:

Wherefore to God will I give praise in all the peoples fight.

PSAL. XXVII. J.H. THe Lord is both my health and light, shall man make me difmaid ? Sith God doth give me ftrength and might,

why should 1 be afraid? 2 While that my foes with all their ftrength begin with me to brall, And think to eat me up at length, themselves have caught the fall.

Though they in camp against me lie, my heart is not afraid:

In battell pight if they will trie. I trutt in God for aid.

4 One thing of God I do require. that he will not denie, For which I pray, and will defire, till he to me apply: 5 That I within his holy place my life throughout may dwell :

To fee the beautie of his face, and view his temple well.

In time of dread he thall me hide within his place most fure:

And keep me ferret by his fide, as on a rock most fure .

Withp to

At le fh

th The giv

I.ord for Have m 311

> to My Ifi Then fee

Lo II In w not

Thou a be 12 My and And the of

Teac and For fea

to 34 Do of

For the fall

ES My thi The Lo

in Id Truft

his

PSAL. XXVII. At length I know the Lords good grace shall make me strong and stout, Ayfoes to fuil and clean deface, that compasse me about. Therefore within his house will I give facrifice of praife . With pfalmes and fongs I will apply to land the Lord alwayes. The (ccond part. Lord hear the voice of my request, for which to thee I call: Have mercie Lord on me oppreft, and fend me help withall, My heart doth knowledge unto thee, I fue to have thy grace: Then feek my face, failt thou to me, Lord I will feek thy face. In wrath turn not thy face away. nor fuffer me to flide : Thou art my help still to this day. be still my God and guide. 12 My parents both their fon forfook, and cast me off at large : and then the Lord himfelf yet took of me the care and charge. Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee, and lead me on forth right : For fear of fuch as watch for me to trap me if they might. Do not betake me to the will of them that be my foes: For they furmile against me ftill, false witnesse to depose. My heart would faint, but that in me this hope is fixed fast: The Lord Gods good grace shall I see, in life that ave shall last.

ToTrust still in God, whose whole thou art, his will abide thou must:

And

And he shall ease and strength thy heart, if thou on him do trust.	crea fet
PSAL. XXVIII. T.S. Thou art, O Lord, my strength and state the succour which I crave:	J ye Neglect me not, left I be like to them that go to grave. The voice of my suppliant hear,	Give ye unto
When I lift up my hand unto thy holy ark most hie.	Worthij wit
3 Repute me not among the fort of wicked and pervert:	3 His ve
That speak right fair unto their friends, but think full ill in heart.	an
4 According to their handy work, as they deferve indeed,	The v
And after their inventions led them receive their meed.	It is mo
For they regard nothing Gods works, his law, ne yet his lore:	the
Therefore will he them and their feed destroy for evermore.	The ced

To render thanks unto the Lord, how great a cause have I:

My voice, my prayer, and my complaint, that heard fo willingly.

7 He is my shield and fortitude, my buckler in distresse:

My hope, my help, my hearts defire, my fong thall him confesse.

8 He is our frength and our defence, our enemies to refift: The health and the falvation of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage, Lord bleffe, guide and preferve: And or Not on

His

8 Ic m th o It m

Then i

To Th

10

Increase

PSAL. xxix. creafe them Lord, and rule their hearts, that they may never fwerve.

PSAI. XXIX. T.S.

Ive to the Lord ye potentates,

J ye rulers of the world:

Give ye all praife, honour and ftrength, unto the living Lord.

Give glorie to his holy name, and honour him alone: Worthip him in his majestie within his holy throne.

His voice doth rule the waters all, even as himfelf doth pleafe: He doth prepare the thunderclaps, and governs all the feas.

The voice of God is of great force, and wondrous excellent:

It is most mightie in estect, and most magnificent.

the cedar trees of Libanus, which are most high and strong.

And makes them leap like as a calf,

or elfe the unicorn:
Not only trees, but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born-

His voice devides the flames of fire and thakes the wildernesse.

8 It makes the desert quake for fear, that called is Cades.

o It makes the hinds for fear to calve, and makes the coverts plain:

Then in his temple every man his glorie doth proclaim.

[6

The Lord was fet above the flouds ruling the raging fea;

.50

PSAL. XXX.

So shall he reigne as Lord and King for ever and for aye.

II The Lord will give his people power in vertue to increafe:

The Lord will bleffe his chofen folk with everlasting peace.

PSAL. XXX. J.H. Ll laud & praise with heart and voice, O Lord, I give to thee:

Which didft not make my foes rejoyce, but haft exalted me. 2 OLord my God, to thee I cri'd in all my pain and grief : Thou gav'ft an ear, and didft provide to cafe me with relief.

2 Of thy good will thou haft cald back my foul from hell to fave:

Thou didft revive when strength did lack, and keptft me from the grave.

Sing praile ye faints that prove and fee the goodnesse of the Lord: In memorie of his majestie rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space doth last and flack again : But in his favour and his grace alwayes doth life remain.

Though gripes of gri f and pangs full fore thall lodge with us all night;

The Lord to joy shall us restore before the day be light.

6 When I enjoyd the world at will, thus would I boaft and fay: Tush, I am fure to feel noneill, this wealth thall not becay. 7 For thou,O Lord, of thy good grace hadft fend me ftrength and aid :

ut whe my

Wher tot

y God and

Wha if Doth di

ory b Wh 01

Do not t of The 111 The mo 211

2 Wh fh My Lor g

As the an

Hear t e tho m

> For th

For th Plu

PSAL. XXXI.

nt when thou turndit away thy face my minde was fore difmaid.

Wherefore again yet did I crie to thee, O. Lord, of might :

My God with plaints I did apply, and praid both day and eight.
What gain is in my bloud, faid.
if death destroy my dayes?
oth dust declare thy majestie, oryet thy truth doth praise?

o Wherefore my God some pitie take.
O Lord, I thee defire:
Do not this simple soul for sake,

of help I thee require.

Then didft thou turn my grief and woe into a cheerfull voice:

the mourning weed thou tookst me fro ; and mad'st me to rejoyce.

2 Wherefore my foul uncessanly fhall sing unto thy praise: My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwayes.

PSAL. XXXI. J.'H.

Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:
and set me quite from blame.
Hear me, O Lord, and that anone, to help me make good speed:

my fence in time of need.

For why? as stones thy strength is tride, thou art my strength and tower:

For thy names sake be thou my guid, and lead me in thy power.

Pluck forth my feet out of the snare which they for me have laid:

Thon

PS A L. xxxi. Thon are my firength, and all my care is for thy might and aid.	fow the s Into thy hands Lord I commit my spirit, which is thy due: For why t thou hast redeemed it, O Lordeny God most true. I hate such tolk as will not part from things to be abhord: When they on trifles set their hearts, my trust is in the Lord.	or I co tho 15 The O I Defend of
T For I will in thy mercie joy, I fee it doth excell: Thou feeff when ought would me annoy, and knowft my foul full well. Thou haft not left me in their hand, that would me overcharge: But thou haft fet me out of band, to walk abroad at large.	and fave thy Lord for lat let an 18 O 1
The second part. Great grief, O Lord, doth me affail, fome pitie on me take: Mine eyes wax dim,my fight doth fail, my womb for wo doth ake. No My life is worn with grief and painy years in wo are pait:	and creases

My strength is gone, and through disdain

my bones corrupt and waite.

Ir Among my foes I am a fcorn, my friends are all difmaid : My neighbours and my kinfmen boin, to fee me aroafraid. As men once dead are out of minde fo am I now forgot:

As small effect in me they finde as in a broken pot.

12 I heard the brags of all the rout, their threats my minde did fray;

How

Thy

fr ithi

tro

Th e to d on 25

w D,I W

Y

The

PSAL. XXXI. low they conspir d and went about to take my life away. But Lord I truft in thee for aid, not to be overtrod : or I confesse and still have said, thou art my Lord and God. Ir The length of all my life and age. O Lord, is in thy hand: befend me from the wrathfull rage, of them that me withstand. To me thy fervant, Lord, expresse and shew thy joyfull face : and fave me Lord for thy goodnesse, thy mercie and thy grace. The third part. Lord let me not be put to blame, for that on thee I call : Int let the wicked bear the sname, and in their graye to fall. B O Lord, make dumb their lips outright, which are addict to lies: and cruelly with pride and spight, against the just devise.

15

O how great good hast thou in store laid up full safe for them that fear and truft in thee therefore, before the fons of men.

36 Thy presence shal them fence and guid from all proud brags and wrongs: Within thy house thou shalt them hide trom all the strif of tongues.

I Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd on me his grace fo far, to defend with watch and ward, as in a town of war. Thus did I fay both day and night, when I was fore opprest:

To, I was clean cast out of light, yet heardft thou my request.

PS AL. xxxii.

the faithfull he doth guid:

And to the proud he doth repay,

according to their pride.

24 Be ftrong, and God will ftay your hear, be bold and have a luft:

For fure the Lord will take your part.

For fure the Lord will take your part, fith ye in him do truft.

PSAL XXXII. T.S.

He man is bleft whose wickednesse the Lord hath clean remitted:

And he whose fin and wretchednesse is hid and also covered.

2 And bleft is he to whom the Lord imputeth not his fin :

Which in his heart hath hid no guil, nor fraud is found therein.

For whilft that I kept close my fin in filence and confirmint:

My bones did wear and wafte away with daily mone and plaint. • For night and day thy hand on me fo grievous was and fmart,

That all my blond and humours moift

That all my blond and humours moist to drinesse did convert.

5 I did therefore confesse my fault, and all my fins discover: Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive, and all my fins passe over.

The humble man shall pray therefore, and seek thee in due time:

So that the flouds of waters great finall have no power on him.

7 When trouble and advertitie do compaffe me about: Thou art my refuge and my joy, and thou doeft rid me out.

I Come

PSAL. xxxiii. y, Com hither, and I will thee teach how thou shalt walk aright: nd will thee guid, as I my felf have learn'd by proof and fight r heart Be not so rude and ignorant as is the horse and mule : part, Whole mouths without a rein or bit from harm thou can't not rule. The wicked man thall manifold dnelle forrows and griefs tuftain: d: t unto him that trufts in God his goodnesse shall remain. Be merrie therefore in the Lord, ye just lift up your voice : ad ye of pure and periest heart iL be glad and eke rejoyce. PSAL. XXXIII. fin TE righteous in the Lord rejoyce, it is a feemly fight, at upright men with thankfull voice should praise the Lord of might. me Praise ye the Lord with harp and song in pfalmes and pleafant things: fli With lute and instrument among, that foundeth with ten ftrings. sing to the Lord a fong most new, with courage give him praise: e, For why? his word is ever true, his works and all his wayes, fore, To judgement, equitie and right, he hath a great good will: hd with his gifts he doth delight the earth throughout to fill. For by the word of God alone the heavens all were wrought : Their hofts and powers every one his breath to passe hath brought. Come 7 The PS AL. xxxiii.

7 The waters great gath'red hath he on heaps within the thore: And hid them in the depth, to be as in a house of store.

$ All men on earth, both least and most, fear God and keep his law :

Ye that inhabite in each coalt, dread him and stand in aw,

9 What he commanded, wrought it was, at once with prefent speed. What he doth, will, is brought to pass.

with full effect indeed.

The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought

He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

But his decrees continue ftill, they never flack nor fwage:

11 The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The second part.

12 And bleft are they to whom the Lord 25 God and guid is known: Whom he do:h chuse of meer accord

Whom he do h chuse of meer according to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his fight on men mortall by birth:

24 Confidering from his feat of might the dwellers of the earth, nans heart, and doth it frame:

For he alone doth know the thought and working of the fame.

16 A king that trusteth in his host shall not prevail at length:

Theman that of his might doth boast hall fall for all his strength.

17 The

PSAL XXXIIII. he The troups of horsemen cke shal fail. their flurdy fleeds thall flerve: The strength of horse shall not prevail the rider to preserve. 18 But lo the eyes of God attend moft, and watch to aid the just : With fuch as fear him to offend, and on his goodnesse trust. was 19 That he of death and great distresse, may fet their fouls from dreed : affe and if that dearth their land oppresse, in hungen them to feed. Wherefore our foul doth fill depend ide on God our ftrength and ftay: : 31 e is the fhield us to defend, and drive all darts away. I Our foul in God hath joy and game, rejoycing in his might: will for why? in his most holy name we hope and much delight. 2 Therefore let thy goodnest, O Lord, Lord still present with us be : swe alwayes with one accord ord do only trust in thee. PSAL. XXXIIII. T.S. fight Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord alwayes: night nd eke my mouth for evermore shall speak unto his praise. I do delight to land the Lord vrough in foul and eke in voice : ght hat humble men and mortified may heare, and to rejoyce. Therefore fee that ye magnific with me the living Lord : boaft Ind let us now exalt his name together with one accord, 17 The D 2

PSAL. XXXIII...
4 For I my felf befought the Lord,
he answered me again:

And me deliver'd incontinent from all my fear and pain.

5 Who fo they be that him behold, shall fee his light most clear:
3 heir countenance shall not be dasht, they need it not to fear.

This filly wretch for fome relief, unto the Lord did call: Who did him hear without delay, and rid him out of thrall.

7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch his tents in every place, To save all such as fear the Lord, that nothing them deface.

8 Tafte and confider well therefore that God is good and just:

O happie man that maketh him his only stay and trust.

Fear ye the Lord his holy ones above all earthly thing: For they that fear the living Lord, are fure to lack nothing.

and pin'd with famine much:

But as for them that fear the Lord, no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

11 Come near therefore my children des and to my words give ear: I shall you teach the perfect way how ye the Lord should fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long and lead a blessed life?

See thou refrain thy tongue and lips, from all deceit and ftrife?

4 Tur

ord. and do the godly deed : quire for peace and righteoufueffe. and follow it with speed. For why? the eyes of God above upon the just are bent : ld, disears likewife do hear the plaint of the poore innocent. iht, But he doth frown and bend his brows upon the wicked train: nd cuts away the memorie that should of them remain. But when the just do call and crie, the Lord doth hear them fo, tch that out of pain and miserie forthwith he lets them go. 18 The Lord is kinde and straight at han ! to fuch as be contrite: He faves also the forrowfull, the poore and meek in fprite. 19 Full many be the miseries that righteous men do fuffer : But out of all adverfities the-Lord doth them deliver, 2 o The Lord doth fo preferve and keep hisvery bones alway, That not fo much as one of them doth perith or decay: I The fin shall flay the wicked man which he himself hath wrought: n der And fuch as hate the righteous man fhall foon be brought to nought 22 But they that fear the living Lord, long the Lord doth fave them found: And who that put their trust in him, nothing fhall them confound. D3 PS A L. Tura

Turn back thy face from doing ill

Tord plead my caule against my foes, confound their force and might:
Fight on my part against all those that seek with me to fight.

2 Lay hand upon thy spear and shield, thy self in armour dresse:

Standap for me, and fight the field, to help me from diffresse.

3 Girdon thy fword, and stop the way, mineenemies to withstand:

That thou unto my foul maift fay, lo, I thy help at hand.

4Confound them with rebuke and blame that feek my foul to spill:

Let them turn back and flie with shame that think to work me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flie abroad as winde doth drive the dust:

And that the angel of our God their might away may thrust.

Let all their wayes be void of light, and flipprie like to fall:

And fend thine angel with thy might, to perfecute them all.

For why? without my fault they have in fecret fet their grin:

And for no canfe have digd a cave to take my foul therein.

8 When they think left, and have no care, O Lord, destroy them all:

Let them be trapt in their own fnare, and in their mischief fall.

9 And let my foul with heart and voice, in God have joy and wealth? That in the Lord I may rejoyce, and in his faving health.

ny parts thall all agree.

O Lord.

y foes. ord, though they do feem full gay, ight: what man is like to thee ? The second part. Thou doest defend the weak from them cld. that are both flout and ftrong : d rid the poore from wicked men that spoil and do them wrong. My cruell foes againft me rife, to witnesse things untrue; wav. nd to accuse me they devise of that I never knew. Where I did owe to them good will, lamo they quit me with difdain : That they thould pay my good with ill, ame : my foul doth fore complain. 4When they were fick, I mournd therfore and clad my felf in fack: With fafting I did faint full fore, to pray I was not flack. As they had been my brethren dear, ic, I did my felf behave: As one that maketh wofull cheer about his mothers grave. 6 But they at my difease did joy. ave and gather on a rout : Yea abject flaves at me did toy, with mocks and checks full fout. re. 17 The belly gods and flattring train, that all good things deride: At me do grin with great difdain, and pluck their mouths afide. 18 Lord, when wilt thou amend this gear, why doeft thou flay and paufe? O rid my foul, my only dear, out of these lions claws. 19 And then will I give thanks to thee, tefore the church alwayes: And 1. D 4

PSAL. XXXV.

And where most of the people be there will I shew thy praise.

20 Let not my foes prevail on me which hate me for no fault:

Nor yet to wink or turn their eye, that causelesse me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they think or fay, their talk is all untrue:

They all confult, and would betray all those that peace ensue.

22 With open mouth they run at me, they gape, they laugh, they fleer: Well, well, lay they, our eye doth fee the thing that we defire.

2; But Lord y feeft what wayes they take cease nor the gear to mend:

Be not far off, nor me forfake, as men that fail their friend.

24 Awake, arife and fir abroad, defend me in my right:

Revenge my cause, my Lord my God, and aid me with thy might.

as According to thy righteou fnesse, my Lord God, fet me free: 'And let them not their pride expresse, nor triumph over me.

26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and crie, The te, there, this gear goes trim:

Nor give them canfe to fay on hie, we have our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke and fhime that joy when I do mourn: And pay them home with spite and blame that brag at me with fcorn.

38 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce which love mine upright way:

And

Unt

PSAL. XXXVI. d they all times with heart and voice Thall praise the Lord, and fay: Great is the Lord, and doth excell, for why? he doth delight To fee his fervants profper well, that is his pleafant fight. Wherefore my tongue I will apply thy righteoufnesse to praise: Unto the Lord my God will I fing laud and praise alwayes. PSAL. XXXVI. J. H. He wicked with his works uninft doth thus perfwade his heart, That of the Lord he hath no truft, his fear is fet apart. Yet doth he joy in his estate to walk as he began : o long till he deferve the hate of God and eke of man. His words are wicked, vile and naught, his tongue no truth doth tell: Ict at no hand will he be taught, which way he may do well. When he should fleep, then doth he muse his mischiefs to fulfill:

ake,

IC

d

No wicked wayes doth he refuse, nor nothing that is ill.

But Lord thy goodnesse dothascend above the heavens hie:

unto the cloudy skie.

Much more then hills fo Ligh and fleep

thy inflice is express:

Thy indgements like to feas most deep, thou fay of both man and beaft.

Thy mercie is above all things, O God, it doth excell:

I

In trust whereof as in thy wings, the fons of men shall dwell. 8 Within thy house they shall be fed with plentie at their will: Of all delights they shall be sped, and take thereof their fill. o For why? the well of life fo pure dothever flow from thee: And in thy light we are full fure. the lafting light to fee. To From tuch as thee defire to know let not thy grace depart: Thy righteousnette declare and thew to men of upright heart. It Let not the proud on me prevail, O Lord of thy good grace: Nor let the wicked me affail to throw me out of place. 12 But they in their device thall fall. that wicked works maintain & They thall be overthrown withall. and never life again. PSAL, XXXVII. W.W. Rudge not to fee the wicked men I in Wealth to flourith ftill: Nor yet envie fuch as to ill have bent and fet their will. 2 For as green graffe and flourithing herbs are cut and wither away : So fhall their great profperitie foon paffe, fade and decay. 2 Trust thou therefore in God alone. to do well give thy minde : So shalt thou have the land as thine. and there (urefood thalt finde. In God fet all thy hearts delight, and look, what thou wouldst have. Or elfe canft with in all the world.

thou needst it not to crave.

TANK OF THE PARKET Caft both thy felf and thine affairs on God with perlect truft : And thou shalt see with patience the effect both fure and juft. 6 Thy perfect life and godly name he will clear as the light : So that the fun even at noon dayes shall not shine half so bright.

fed

rbs

Heftill therefore and ftedfaftly on God fee thou wait then : Not fhrinking for the profeerous state of lewd and wicked men. & shake offdespite, envie and hate, at leaft in any wife: Their wicked steps avoid and flie, and follow not their guife,

9 For every wicked man will Cod deftroy both more and leffe : But fuch as truft in him are fure the land for to possesse.

10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt fee no more the wicked train :

No not fo much as house or place, where once he did remain.

The second part. 11 But mercifull and humble men enjoy shall fea and land :

In rest and peace they shall rejoyce, for nought shall them withstand. 12 The lewd men and malicious against the just conspire: They gnafh their teeth at him, as men which do his bane defire.

12 But while that lewd men thus do think, the Lord laughs them to fcorn: For why? he feeth their terme approch, when they thall figh and moun.

14 The

PS AL. XXXVII.

14 The wicked have their (words out drawn their bow eke have they bent, al

he

Recat

ne i

B

III s

To overthrow and kill the poor, as they the right way went.

15 But & fame fword shal pierce their hearts, which was to kill the full:

Likewise the bow shall break to shivers, wherein they put their trust.

is better a great deal more,

Then all thefe lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped ftore.

17 For be their power never fo strong, God will it overthrow:

Where contrarie he doth preferve the humble men and low.

18 He feeth by his great providence the good mens trade and way:

And will give them inheritance which never shall decay.

They shall not be discouraged, when some are hard bested:

When others shall be hungerbit, they shall be glad and fed.

20 For whosoever wicked is, and enemie to the Lord,

Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs greafe, or smoak that flies abroad.

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borroweth much, and never payeth again:

Whereas the iust by liberall gifts makes many glad and fain.

22 For they whom God doth bleffe, flial have the land for heritage:

And they whom he doth curse likewise shall perish in his rage.

21 The

PSAL. Ixxxvii. The Lord the inft mans wayes doth guid, and gives him good fucceffe: every thing he takes in hand he fendeth good addresse. Though that he fall, yet is he fure not utterly to quail: Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand at need and doth not fail. I have been young, and now am old. yet did I never fee he iust man left, nor yet his feed to beg for miferie. But gives alwayes most liberally. and lends whereas is need: Hischildren and posteritie receive of God their meed. Flie vice therefore and wickedneffe and vertue do embrace: God shall grant thee long to have on earth a dwelling place. For God fo loveth equitie, and thewes to his fuch grace, hat he preserveth them alway, but stroyes the wicked race. Whereas the good and godly men inherit thall the land : wing as Lords all things therein in their own power and hand. The just mans mouth doth ever fpeak of matters wife and hie: dis tongue doth talk to edifie with truth and equitie. For in his heart the law of God his Lord doth still abide : that where ever he goes or walkes, his foot can never flide. The wicked like a ravening wolf the just man doth befet : By arts

rs.

9

PSAL. XXXVIII. By all means feeking him to kill, if he fall in his net. The fourth part. 33 Though he should fall into his hands yet God would fuccour fend : Though men against him fentence give, God would him yet defend, 34 Wait thou on God, and keep his wa he shall preferve thee then, The earth to rule, and thou shalt see deftroid these wicked men. 35 The wicked have I feen most strong, and plac'd in high degree: Flourishing in all wealth and store, as doth he lawrel tree. 36 But inddenly he paft away, and lo, he was quite gone: Then I him fought but could not finde the place where dwelt fuch one. 3 7 Mark an behold the perfect man, how Goe doth him increase: For the ju m. n shall have at length great joy with rest and peace. 38 As for transgressours, wo to them, destroid they shall all be : God will cut off their budding race and rich posteritie, 29 But the falvation of the just doth come from God above: Who in their trouble fends them aid of his meer grace and love. 40 God doth them helpe, fave and deliver, from lewd men and unjust: And ftill will fave them, whilft that they in him do put their truft. PSAL. XXX VIII. J.H. Put me not to rebuke ,O Lord , in thy provoked ire:

Ne

TANK TO BE ACCOUNTED Ne in thy heavie wrath, O Lord, co red me I defire. Thine arrows do stick fast in me, thy hand doth preffe me fore: And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more. And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in : Nor any rest is in my bones. by reason of my sin. For lo my wicked doings, Lord, above my head are gone: A greater load then I can bear, they lie me fore upon. My wounds flink and are feft'red fore, as lothfome is to fee : Which all through mine own foolithnesse betideth unto me. 6 And I in car full wife am brought in trouble and distresse: That I go wailing all the day in dolefull heavineffe. 7 My loins are fild with fore difeafe. my fleth hath no whole part : 8 I feeble am and broken fore, I roar for grief of heart. o Thou knowst, Lord, my desire, my grones are open in thy fight : 10 My heart doth pant my ftrength doth fail, mine eyes have loft their light. 11 My lovers and my wonted friends stand looking on my wo: And eke my kinimen far away, are me departed fro. 12 They that did feek my life laid fnares, and they that fought the way To do me hurt spake lies, and thought on mischief all the day.

The

ands

e, ng,

Spe

iver,

cy

Ne

The second part. The second part. To But as a deaf man I became, that cannot hear at all a that cannot hear at all :

14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.

15 For all my confidence, O Lord, is wholy fet on thee:

O Lord, thou Lord that art my God, thou shalt give ear to me.

This did I crave, that they my foes triumph not over me:

For when my foot did flip, then they did joy my fall to fee,

17 And truly I poore wretch am fet in place a wofull wight:

And eke my grievous heavinesse is ever in my fight.

18 For while that I my wickednesse in humble wife confesse:

And while I for my finfull deeds

my forrows do expresse:

39 My foes do still remain alive, and mightie are also:

And they that hate me wrongfully, in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me that my good with evil do repay:

Because that good and honest things I do entue alway.

er Forsake me not, O Lord my God, be thou not far away:

22 Hafte me to help my Lord my God, my fafety and my ftay.

PSAL. XXXIX. J.H.

Said I will look to my wayes,
for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

. ..

M

hi

t

Min

2

P $ A L. XXXIX.

As with a bit I will keep fast my mouth with force and might;
to once to whisper all the while the wicked are in fight;

theld my tougue, and spake no word, but kept me close and still;
from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.

My heart waxt hot within my breast, withmusing, thought, and doubt,
shich did increase and stir the fire.

Lord number out my life and dayes which yet I have not past, that I may be certified how long my life shall fast.
Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span :

at last these words burst out:

in length much like a fpan : ine age is nothing unto thee, fo vain is every man.

Man walketh like a shade, and doth in vain himself annoy, in getting goods, and cannot tell who shall the same enjoy. Now Lord, sith things this wise do frame, what help do I desire? of truth my help doth hang on thee,

The fecond part.

from all the fins that I have done.
Lord quit me out of hand:
and make me not a fcorn to fools that nothing understand.

I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move:
ecause I knew it was thy work my patience for to prove.

I nothing elfe require.

II Lord

PSAL. XI. II Lord take from me thy iconrge & plague I can them not withstand: I faint and pine away, for fear of thy most heavie hand. 12 When thou for fin doeft man rebuke, he waxeth wo and wan : As doth a cloth that moths have fret, Co fi fo vain a thing is man.

1 3 Lord hear my fuit, and give good heeig Bu regard my tears that fall :

I fojourn like a stranger here, as did my fathers all.

14 O spare, a little give me space my ftrength for to reftore : Before I go away from hence, and shall be feen no more.

PSAL. XL. J.H. Waited long and fought the Lord, and patiently did bear : At length to me he did accord my voice and crie to hear.

2 He pluckt me from the lake fo deep out of the mire and clay : And on a rock he fet my feet, and he did guid my way.

3 To me he taught a pfalme of praise, which I must shew abroad : And fing new fongs of thanks alwayes unto the Lord our God. 4 When all the folktheie things flull fee, as people much afraid:

Then they unto the Lord will flee, and trust unto his aid.

o bleft is he, whose hope and heart doth in the Lord remain: That with the proud doth take no part, 1 nor fuch as lie and fain.

6 For

or

2

PSAL. XI. plague or Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds in greatnesse far do passe : favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was. buke, When I intend, and do devise thy works abroad to flow : et, To fuch a reckning they do rife, thereof no end I know. d heeig Burnt offrings thou delightft not is, I know thy whole defire : With facrifice to purge his fin thoudoft no man require. Meat offerings and facrifice thou wouldft not have at all : thou, O Lord, haft open made mine ears to hear withall. But then faid I, behold and look, I come a mean to be : in the volume of thy book thus is it faid of me : That I,O Lord, should do thy minde, cp which thing doth like me well: in my heart thy law I finde fast placed there to dwell. Thy uffice and thy righteoulnelle in great reforts I tell: old, my tongue no time doth ceafe, O Lord, thou knowst full well. The second parts Il fee, I have not hid within my breaft thy goodnesse as by stealth; t I declar'd and have exprest thy truth and faving health. I kept not close thy loving minde, that no man should it know : e trust that in thy truth I finde, art, i to all the church I flow. For 15 Thy PSAL. X Is Thy tender mercie Lord from me withdraw thou not away : But let thy love and veritie preferve me still for aye. 16 For I with mischiefs many 2 one am fore befet about: My fins increase and fo come on, I cannot fpie them out.

the hairs upon my head : My heart doth faint for very dread, that I am almost dead. 18 With speed fend help, and fet me free

17 For why? in number they exceed

O Lord, I thee require : Make hafte with aid to fuccour me,

O Lord, at my defire.

To Let them fustain rebuke and shame that feek my foul to fpill : Drive back my foes, and them defame.

that wish and would me ill. 20 For their ill feats do them descrie that would deface my name:

Alwayes on me they rail and crie. Fie on him, fie for thame.

21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth that feek to thee alwayes:

That those that love thy faving health, may fay, To God be praise,

22 But as for me, I am but poore, opprest and brought .full low :

Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.

23 For why? thou art my hope and truff, my refuge, help and ftay: Wherefore my God as thou art just, with me no time delay.

PSAL

PSAL XLI. T.S. He man is bleft that carefull is the needy to confider: r in the feafon perilous the Lord will him deliver. The Lord will make him fafe and found and happie in the land: and he will not deliver him into his enemies hand. And in his bed when he lies fick the Lord will him restore : nd thon, O Lord, wilt turn to health his ficknesse and his fore. Then in my ficknesse, thus fay I, have mercie Lord on me: nd heal my foul which is full wo, that I offended thee. Mine enemies wifht me ill in heart. and thus of me did fay: When shall he die, that all his name may vanish quite away ? And when they come to vifit me, they afk if I do well: ut in their heart mischief they lutch. and to their mates it tell. They bite their lips and whifper for as though they would me charm ? And cast their fetches how to trap me with fome mortall harm. Some grievous fin hath brought him to this fickneffe, fay they plain : He is fo low, that without doubt, rife can he not again. The man alfo that I did truff. with me did use deceit: Who at my table ate my bread, the same for me laid wait. To Have mercie Lord on me therefore, and let me be preferved ? Thas mo

ne

eed

1.

ne

c, ric alth

ealth.

e fred

PSAL. xlii.

That I may render unto them the things they have deserved, at By this I know affiredly to be beloved of thee:

When as mine enemies have no cause to triumph over me.

12 But in my right thou haft me kept and maintained alway:

And in thy prefence place affign'd where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of lirael be praifed evermore: Even so be it Lord will I say, even so be it therefore-

PSAL. XLII. J. H.

I ke as the hart doth breath and bray the well fprings to obtain;
so doth my foul defire alway with thee Lord to remain.

2 My foul doth thirst and would draw as the living God of might:
Oh when shall I come and appear in presence of his sight?

3 The tears all times are my repaft, which from mine eyes do filde: When wicked men crie out fo faft, where now is God thy guid?

Alas what grief is it to think, what freedome once I had: Therefore my foul as at pits brinke most heavie is and fad.

When I did march in good array, furnifled with my train: Unto the temple was our way, with fongs and hearts moft fain. g! My foul why art thon fad alwayes, and fretst thus in my brest?

Trule

hi

PSAL xlii. uft fill in God, for him to praile I hold it ever best. him I have fuccour at need against all pain and grief : is my God, which with all speed will hafte to fend relief. And thus my foul within me Lord, doth faint to think upon e land of Jordan, and record the little hill Hermon. The second part. One grief another in doth call, as clouds burft out their voice: e flouds of evil that do fall. run over me with noise. Wet I by day felt thy goodnesse. and help at all affayes : kewise by night I did not cease the living God to praise. I am perswaded thus to say to him with pure pretence : Lord, thou art my guid and ftay, my rock and fure defence. Why do I then in pensivenesse hanging the head thus walk? While that mine enemies me oppresse. and vex me with their talk? For why? they pierce my inward parts, with pangs to be abhord: When they crie out with stubbern hearts Where is thy God thy Lord? So foon why doft thou faint and quail my foul with pain opprest? With thought why doft thy felf affail fo fore within my breft ? II Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes, and thou the time shalt fee. To give him thanks with laud and praise for health reftor'd to thee.

PSAL

ed,

ule

pt

d bray

PSAL X LIII. T.S.

Udge and revenge my cause, O Lord from them that evil be: From wicked and deceitfull men, O Lord, deliver me. 2 For of my ftrength thou art the Gode Itr why putft thou me thee fro ? And why walk I fo heavily oppressed with my foe?

3 Send out thy light and eke thy truth, and lead me with thy grace : Which may conduct me to thy hill, and to thy dwelling place.

4 Then shall I to the altar go, of God my joy and chear : And on my harp give thanks to thee, O God, my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then fo fad my foul, and fretft thus in my brett ? Still truft in God, for him to praife,

I hold it alwayes beft. By him I have deliverance against all pain and grief : He is my God, which doth alwayes at need fend me relief.

PSAL. XLIIII. T.S.

Ur ears have heard our fathers tell and reverently record The wondrous works that thou haft do in elder time,O Lord.

3 How thou didft caft the Gentiles ont, and ftroy'dft them with ftrong handing Planting our fathers in their place, and gay'ft to them their land.

2 They conquered not by fword nor the land of thy beheft: (Itrengt But by thy hand, thy arm and power, because thou lov'dit them best.

4 Thos

2 The

OUT C

tŀ inc

PSAL. xliii. ord, hou art my King,O God, that holp Jacob in fundrie wife: ed with thy power, we threw down fuch as did against us rife. Gode Itrusted not in bow nor fword, they could not fave me found : Thou keptit us from our enemies rage, thou didit our foes contound. uth, 8 and still we boast of thee our God, and praise thy holy name: Yet now thou goeft not with our hoft, 11, but leavest us to shame. Thou madft us flie before our foes, and fo were overtrod: hee, our enemies spoild and robd our goods when we were sparit abroad. hou haft us given to our foes ul, as theep for to be flain : Amongst the heathen every where e, feattred we do remain. Thy people thou hast fold like flaves, and as a thing of nought: For profit none thou hadit thereby, no gain at all was fought. And to our neighbours thou hast made of us a laughing stock : and those that round about is dwell at us do grin and mock. aft do The second part. es or Thus we ferve for none other afe handi but for a common talk : They mock, they fcorn and nod their heads, where ere they go or walk. I am asham'd continually nor to hear thefe wicked men : ftrengt ... fo I blush, that all my face er, with red is covered then. 16 For 4 Thou PSAL. XIV. 16For why? we hear fuch flandcous words fuch false reports and lies: That death it is to fee their wrongs, their threatnings and their cries. 17, For all this we forgot not thee, nor yet thy covenant brake: 18We turnd not back our hearts from thee, nor yet thy paths forfake. To Yet thou haft trod us down to duft, where dens of dragons be: And covered us with thade of death, and great adversitie.

20 If we had our Gods name forgot, and help of idols fought:

21Would not God then have tride this out? for he doth know our thought.

22 Nay, nay, for thy names fake, O Lord. alwayes are we flain thus: As fheey unto the shambles fent.

right fo they deal with us. 23 Up Lord, why fleepest thou? awake, and leave us not for all: 24 Why lidest thou thy countenance, and doest forget our thrall?

25 For down to dust our foul is brought, and we now at last cast:

Our belly like as it were glude unto the ground cleaves fast.

26 Rife up the refore for our defence, and help us, Lord, at need:

We thee befeech for thy goodnette to refcue us with speed.

PSAL. XLV. J. H. Y heart doth take in hand fome godly fong to fing: The praise that I thall thew therein pertaineth to the King.

2 My

F

T

B

PSAL XIV. 2 My tongue shall be as quick his honour to indite. As is the pen of any fcribe that uleth fast to write. 3 O faireft of all men. thy speech is pleasant pure : For God hath bleffed thee with gife for ever to endure. a About thee gird thy fword, O Prince of might elect : With honour glorie, and renown.

vords thee,

out?

d,

thy person pure is deckte

5 Go forth with godly fpeed, in meeknelle, truth, and right: And thy right hand thall thee initrus in works of dreadfull might. Thine arrows tharp and ken, their hearts fo fore thall thing:

That folk shall come and kneel to these yea all thy foe, O King.

7 Thy royall feat, O Lord, for ever fh. Il remain: Because the scepter of thy realm doth right coutnesse maintain

8 Because thou lovelt the right, and doft the ill d teft : God even thy God hath nointed the with joy above the reft.

9 With mirrhe and favours fweet thy clothes are all befor d: When thou doft from thy paliace palle therein to make thee glad. Io Kings daughters do attend in fine and rich array : At thy right hand the queen doch fland in gold and garments gay.

The

PSAL. xlvi.

B

The second part.

incline and give an ear:
Thou must for take thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.

22 Then thall the King defire thy beautic fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God, and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre, with gifts full fair to fee: And all the wealthy of the land fhall make their fuit to thee.

14 The daughter of the King is glorious to behold:

Within her clofet fhe doth fit all deckt with beaten gold

15 In robes well wrought with needle, and many a pleafant thing:

With virgins fair on her to wait the cometh to the King.

Thus are they brought with joy and mirth on every fide,

Into the pallace of the King, and there they do abide.

27 In ftead of parents left,
O Queen thy chance fo ftends, Thou shalt have fons, whom thou maist fet as Princes in all lands.

all ages thall record:
The people thall give thanks to thee for everyore, O Lord.

PSAL. XLVI. J.H.

He Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand :
When we with woe are much dismaid,
he is our help at hand.

2 Though

PS AL. Alvi.

Though th'earth remove, we will not fear though hills fo high and steep Be thrust and hurled here and there within the sea so deep.

Nor though the waves do rage so fore,

that all the banks it fpils:
And though it overflow the fhore,
and beat down mighty hils.

4 Yet one fair floud doth fend abroad his pleafant streams apace,

To fresh the citie of our God, and wash his holy place.

5 In midft of her the Lord doth dwell,

the can no whit decay:

All things againft her that rebell
the Lord will truly flay.

6 The heathen folk the kingdomes fear,
the people make a notic:

The earth doth melt, and not appear, when God puts forth his voice.

The Lord of hosts doth take our part, to us he hath an ey :-Our hope of health with all our hearts on Jacobs God doth lie.

8 Come hear & fee with minde & thought the working of our God:

What wonders he him felf hath wrought in all the world abroad.

9 By him all wars are huft and gone which countries did confpire:
Their bows he brake, and fpears each one, their chariots burnt with fire.

Io Leave off therefore faith he, and know
I am a God most stout:

Among the heathen high and low, and all the earth throughout.

3 II The

PS AL. xivii.

the Lord of hofts doth us defend,

On haobs God we do depend, and on his mightie power.

PSAL. XLVII. J. H.
Y people all with one accord
clap hands and eke rejoyce:
Be glad and fing unto the Lord with tweet and pleatant voice.

For high the Lord and dreadfullis with wonders manifold:

Amightie King he is truly in all the earth extold.

The people shall he make to be anto our bondage thrall:

And underneath our feet thall he the nations make to fall.

The fourthing worthing of Jacob, his welbeloved one.

5 Cur God ascended up on hie with joy and pleasant notice: The Lord goes up above the skie with trumpets royall voice.

Sing praises unto God, fing praise,

fing praises to our King;
Tor God is King of all the earth,
all skilfull praises fing.

3 God on the heathen reignes, and firs upon his holv throne:

The princes of the people have them joyned every one

To Abrahams people for our God which is exalted hie.

As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSAL.

Th

Fo

PSAL. XLVIII. J.H.

Reat is the Lord, and with great praise to be advanced ftill; Within the city of our God, upon his holy hill.

Mount Sion is a pleafant place, it gladdeth all the land:

The citie of the mightie King on her northfide dorh stand.

3 Within the pallaces thereof God is a refuge known: For lothe Kings are gathered, and

But when they did behold it fo, they wondred and they were Astonied much and suddenly were driven back with fear.

5 Great terrours there on them did fall for very wo they crie: As doth a woman, when the thall go travell by and by.

As thou with eaftern winde the ships

upon the fea doest break: Sothey were stroid, and even as we heard our fathers speak.

7 So in the citie of the Lord we faw as it was told:
 Yea in the citie which our God for ever will uphold.
 8 O Lord we wait and do attend on thy good help and grace:

For which we do all times attend within thy holy place.

 O Lord, according to thy name for ever is thy praise:
 And thy right hand O Lord, is full of righteousnesse alwayes.

E 4

PSAL. XIIX. To Let for thy judgements Sion mount fulfilled be with joyes: And eke of Judah grant O Lord, or th the daughters to rejoyce. II Go walk about all Sion hill, 3 It yea round about her go : And tell the towers that thereupon Ort are builded on a row. 13 And mark ye well her bulwarks all, 97 behold her towers there: That ye may tell thereof to them that after thall be here. 12 For this Godisour God, our God for evermore is he: Yea, and unto the death alfo our guider shall he be. PSAL. XLIX. T. S. LL people hearken and give ear to that that I shall tell : 2 Both high and low, both rich and poore that in the world do dwell. 2 For why?my mouth shall make di scourse of many things right wife : In understanding shall my heart his study exercise. A I will incline mine ear to know the parables fo dark: And open all my doubtfull speech in meeter on my harp. 5 Why should I fear afflictions, or any carefull toil : Or elfe my foes, which at my heels are prest my life to spoil ?

For as for fuch as riches have, wherein their truft is most : And they which of their treasures great themselves do brag and boast.

7 Thire

An

TO

T

11

1

PS AL. xlix.

ount

11.

urfa

7 There is not one of them that can his brothers death redeem : Or that can give a price to God fufficient for him.

3 It is too great a price to pay, none can thereto attain : Or that he might his life prolong, or not in grave remain. o They fee wife men as well as fools fubject unto deaths bands: And being dead strangers possesse their goods, their rents, their lands.

To Their care is to build houses fair, and fo determine fure To make their name right great on earth, for ever to endure. 11 Yet thall no man alwayes enjoy high honour, wealth and reft : 12 But thall at length tafte of deaths cup as well as the bruit beaft.

The (e cond part.

13 And though they try their foolish thoughts to be both lewd and fain :

Their children yet approve their talk, and in like fin remain.

14 As sheep into the fold are brought, to shall they into grave: Death shall them eat, and in that day the just shall lordship have.

15 Their image and their royall port shall fade and quite decay: When as from house to pit they passe with wo and wel-away. 16 But God will furely preferve me from death and endleffe pain :

Because he will of his good grace my foul receive again.

17 If

PSAL. 1.

If any man wax wondrous rich, fear not, I fay, therefore:

Although the glorie of his honfe increef the more and more.

If For when he dies, of all these things nothing thall he receive:

Fis gloric will not follow him, his pompe will take her feave.

the happiest under sun:
And others likewise flatter him, saying all is well done.

And presuppose he live as long as did his fathers old:

Yer must he needs at length give place, and be brought to deaths fold.

Thus man to honour God hath brought, yet doth he not confider:

Ent like bruit beafts fo doth he live, which turn to dust and pouder.

PSAL. L. W.W.

He mightie God,
th'Eternall hath thus ipoke, and all the world
he will call and provoke,

Even from the east, and so forth to the west:

= Brom noward sion, which place he liketh best = 2 God will appear in beautie most excellent:

Our God will come before that long time be spent.

Devauring fire

Agresa tempest shall round about him trace.

4 Then

My

F

L

7

PSAL. 1.

4 Then shall he call the earth and heavens bright

To judge his folk with equitie and right:

5 Saying, go to, and now my Saints affemble : My pact they keep, their gifts do not diffemble.

6 The heavens shall declare his righteonsnesse:

For God is judge of all things more and lesse.

Hear my people, for I will now reveal:

Lift Ifrael, I will thee nought conceal:

Thy God thy God am I, and will not blame thee $

S For giving not all maner offrings to me-

9 I have no need to take of thee at all

Goats of thy fold, or calf out of thy stall.

ro For all the beafts are mine within the wood :

On thousand hills, cattell are mine own goods.

II I know for mine all birds that are on mountains:

All beafts are mine which haunt the fields and fountains.

12 Hungrie if I were I would not thee it tell:

For all is mine that in the world doth dwell.

of great buls or bullocks:

Cz

ngs

ght.

. .

en

Or drink the bloud of goats and of the flocks ? 14 Offer to God praise and heartie thanksgiving:
And pay thy vows unto God everliving. Is Call upon me whentroubled thou fhalt be : Then will Ihelp, and thou thalt honour me. 18 To the wicked thus faith the eternall God : Why doest thou preach my laws and hefts abroad, Seeing thou haft them with thy mouth abused: 37 And hat'ft to be by discipline reformed ? My words, I fay, thou doeft reject and hates 38 If that thou feelt a theef, as with thy mate Thou runft with him, and so your prey do feek :. And art all one with bands and ruffians eke. 19 Thon giv'ft thy felf to backbite and to flander : And how thy tongue deceives, it is a wonder. Thou fittelt mufing thy brother how to blame? And how to put thy mothers fon to fhame. at Thefe things thou didit, and whilft I held my tongne, Thou didft me judge because I staid ie long,

PESTA DAME

PSAL. I.

Like to thy felf:
yet though I kept long filence, Once that thou feel of thy wrongs just recompence.

22 Confider this ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when he threatneth with his word, Left without help
I spoil you as a prey.

23 But he that thanks
offreth, praifeth me ay,

Saith the Lord God, and he that walketh this trace,

I will him teach Gods faving health to embrace.

Another of the same, by J.H.

The God of gods, the Lord, hath cald the earth by name:
From whence the Sun doth rife, unto the setting of the same.
From Sion his fair place,

his glorie bright and clear:
The perfect beautie of his face from thence it did appear.

our God shall come in haste, to speak he shall not doubt? Before him shall the fice waste, and tempests round about.

The heavens from on hie, the earth below likewife, He will call forth to judge and tric his folk he doth devife.

ke

5 Bring forth my faints faith he, my faithfull flock to dear: Which are in band and league with me. my law to love and fear. PSAL. L

25

6 And when these things are tride, the heavens thall record, That God is just, and all must bide

the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed
If rael to thee I crie:
I am thy God, thy help at need, thou canft it not denie.

8 I do not fay to thee, thy factifice is flack: Thou offrest daily unto me much more then I do lack.

2 Thinkst thou that I do need thy cattell young or old?

Or elfe defire fo much to feed on goats out of thy fold?

in woods that eat their fills:

And thousands more of neat and kine

And thousands more of neat and kind that run wilde on the hils.

The fecond part.

rr The birds that build on hie in hils and out of fight:
And beafts that in the fields do lie are subject to my might.

12 Then though I hungred fore, what need I ought of thine?

Sith that the earth with her great store, and all therein is mine.

13 To buls flesh have I minde to eat it dost thou think?

Or fuch a sweetnesse do I finde the bloud of goats to drink?

14 Give to the Lord his praise, with thanks to him apply:

And see thon pay thy vowsalwayes unto the Lord most hie.

[15 Then

PSAL. 1.

15 Then feek and call to me when ought would work thee blame ?
And I will fure deliver thee, that thou mayst praise my name.

16 But to the wicked train, which talk of God each day: And yet their works are foul and ya

And yet their works are foul and vain, to them the Lord will lay,

17 With what a face darest thou my word once speak or name? Why doth thy talk my law allow, thy deeds denie the same:

18 Whereas for to amend thy life, thou art fo flack: My word the which thou doft pretend is call behinde thy back.

The third part.

by theft to live in wealth:
With him thou runft, and doft agree likewise to thrive by stealth.

2. When thou dost them behold, that wives and maids defile:

Thou lik'ft it well, and waxeft hold to use that life most vile.

21 Thy lips thou dost apply to slander and defame:

Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie, and still doth use the same.

22 Thou studiest to revile thy friends to thee for near:

With flander thou wouldft needs defile thy mothers fon most dear.

2; Hereat while I do wink, as though I did not fee: Thou goeft on ftill, and so doft think that I am like to thee.

24 But

PSAL. li.
24 But fure I will not let to ftrike when I begin :
Thy faults in order I will fet, and open all thy fin.

25 Mark this, I you require, that have not God in minde: Left when I plague you in mine ire, your help be far to finde.

26 He that doth give to me the factifice of praife,

D th please me well, and he shall see to walk within my wayes.

P S A L. L I. W.W.

Lord confider my diffreste, and now with speed some pity take:
My fins deface, my faults redresse,

good Lord for thy great mercies fake.

Wath me.O Lord, and make me clean from this unjust and finfull aft:

from this unjust and finfull act:
And purific yet once again
my hainous crime and bloudy fact.

Remorfe and forrow do confirmin me to acknowledge mine excesse:

My fin alas doth still remain before my face without release.

For thee alone I have offended, committing evil in thy fight:

And if I were therefore condemued,

And if I were therefore condemned, yet were thy judgements just and right;

5 It is too manifest alas, that first I was conceived in fin : Yea of my mother fo born was, and yet vile wretch remain therein.

6 Alfo behold, Lord, thou doft love the inward truth of a pure heart: Therefore thy wifedome from above thou half reveald me to convert.

7 If

T

7

PSAL. li.

7 If thou with hylope purge this blot, I shall be cleaner then the glasse:

And if thou wash away my spot, the snow in whitenesse thall I passe.

8 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send, that inwardly I may finde grace:

And that my ftrength may now amend, which thon hait fwag'd for my trefpaffe.

9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire, for I have felt enough thy hand:

And purge my fins I thee defire, which do in number paffe the fand.

no Make new my heart within my breft, and frame it to thy holy will:

Thy constant spirit in me let rest, which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

xI Cast me not Lord out from thy face, but speedily my torments end:

Take not from me thy spirit of grace, which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those joyes again, which I was wont in thee to finde:

And let me thy free spirit retain, which unto thee may stir my mindes

15 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,

And men that are like wife brought low, by mine example thall flie fin.

14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgive me this my bloudy vice:

My heart and tongue shall then accord to fing thy mercies and justice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tougue untie; O Lord, which at the only key: And then my mouth (hall testifie thy wondrous works and praise alway.

16 And

PS AL. 1i.

16 And as for outward facrifice
 I would have offred many a one:
But thou efteemft them of no price,
 and therein pleafure tak'ft thou none.

17 The heavie heart, the minde oppreft,
 O Lord, thou nevel doft reject:
And to speak truth, it is the beft,
 and of all facrifice the effect.

18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face,

18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face, poure out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Jerusalem thy grace, build up the walls, and love it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offrings of peace and righteousin sle, I say : Yea calves and many other things upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same, by J. H.

After thy mercies multitude do thou my finnes deface.

2 Yea wash me more from mine offence, and cleanse me from my sin:

For I do know my faults, and still my fin is in mine cy n.

Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case: And evil have I done before the presence of thy face,

That in the things that thou haft done upright thou mayft be tride:

And cke in judg ng that the doome may passe upon thy side.

5 Behold, in wickednesse my kinde and shape I did receive: And lo my finfull mother eke in fin did me conceive.

& But

A

Y

8

I

9 ľ

I

PSAL. II.

But lo the truth in inward parts,
is pleafant unto thee:
And fecrets of thy will dome thon revealed haft to me.

7 With hysope, Lord, besprinkle me, I shall be cleaned so: Yea wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow-

8. Of joy and gladnesse make thou me to hear the pleasant voice:

That fo the bruifed bones which thous haft broken may rejoyce.

9 From the beholding of my fins, Lord, turn away thy face: And all my deeds of wickednesse do utterly deface.

10 O God create in me a heart

unspotted in thy fight.

And eke within my bowels Lord, renew a stabled spirit.

It Ne cast me from thy fight nor take thy holy Spirit away:

The comfort of thy faving helth give me ag in, I p ay.

13 With the tree spirit establish me, and I will teach the refore

Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The fecond part.

73 O God that art God of my health, from bloud deliver me: That praifes of thy right onfnesse, my tongue may fing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be dothou, The profes of thumsieltie

The praises of thymajestie my mouth shall so disclose.

But

one.

ft,

II:

11.

gs

e.

10

PSAL. lii.

15 I would have offred factifice, if that had pleafed thee:
But pleafed with burnt offerings, I know thou wilt not be.

15 A troubled fpirit is factifice delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart, God thou wilt not defpile.

17 In thy good will deal gently, Lord, to Sion, and with all Grant that of thy Jerufalem apreard may be the wall. 18 Burnt-offrings, gifts, and (acrifice of inflice in that day

Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

PSAL. LII. J.H.
WHy doest thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God, whose mercies last alwayes?
Why doth thy minde yet still devise such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies is like a razor sharp.

3 On mischief why sets thou thy minde, and wilt not walk upright?

Thou hast more luft false takes to finde, then bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guil.

in mischief, blond and wrong:
Thy lips have learnd the flattring stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for aye confound and pluck thee from thy place: Thy feed root out from off the ground, and so shall thee deface.

6 The

H

17

PS AL. liji. 6 The just when they behold thy fall, with fear will praise the Lord: And in reproch of thee withall, crie out with one accord, Behold the man that would not take the Lord for his defence: But of his goods his god did make, and trust his corrupt ience. But I an olive fresh and green shall spring and spread abroad: or why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God. For this therefore will I give praife to thee with heart and voice : will let forth by na ne alwayes, wherein thy faints rejoyce. PSAL. LIII. T.S. He foolish man in that which he within his heart hath faid : That there is any God at all hath utterly denied. They are corrupt, and they also a hainous work have wrought: among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought. The Lord lookt down on fons of men, from heaven all abroad, o fee if any were that would be wife and feek for God. They are all gone out of the way, they are corrupted all: here is not one doth any good, there is not one at all. Do not all wicked werkers, know that they do feed upon My people, as they feed on bread, the Lord they call not on ? 6 Even ad,

ide,

ul,

und ıd.

The

PSAL. lini. Even there they were afraid, and flood with trembling all difmaid: Whereas there was no cause at all why they should be atraid,

7 For God his bones that thee befieg'd hath scattred all abroad . Thou halt confounded them for they resected are of God.

3 O Lord, give thou thy prople health, and thou, O Lord fulfill Thy promise made to Ifrael from out of Sion hill.

9 When Godhis people fliall reftore, that earth were captive lad: Then Jacob thall therein rejoyce, and Ifrael thal b glad.

PSAL. LIIII. J.H. Od fave me for thy holy name J and for thy goodneff fake: Buto the ftrength Lord of the fame I do my felf betake:

a Regard, O Lord, and give an ear to me when I do pray: Bow down thy felf to me and hear the words that I do fav. a For strangers up against me rife, and tyrantsvex me till: Which have not God before their eyes, they feek my foul to fpill.

4 But lo, my God doth give me aid, the Lo: d is itraight at hand :

With them by whom my foul is daid, the Lord doth ever stand.

5 With plagues repay again all those. for me that lie in wait : And with thy truth destroy my foes with their own fnare and bair.

PSAL. IV. flood An offring of free heart and will, then . to thee shall make : nd praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take. lieg'd O Lord, at length do fet me free from them that craft confpire? ey And now mine eye with joy doth fee on them my hearts defire. alth, PSAL. LV. I.H. God give ear and do apply to hear when I do pray : and when to thee I call and crie, hide not thy felf away. ore, Take heed to me, grant my request. and answer me again : With plaints I pray full fore opprest, great grief doth me constrain. Because my foes with threats and cries oppresse me through despight: and fo the wicked fort likewife me to vex me have delight. For they in counfell do conspire to charge me with fome ill: So in their haftie wrath and ire they do purfue me still. My heart doth faint for want of breath it panteth in my breaft: ir eyes, The terrours and the dread of death do work me much unreft, iid, such dreadfull fear on me doth fall that I therewith do quake: taid, such horrour whelmeth me withall that I no shift can make. hole But I did fay, Who will give me the fwift and pleafant wings foes of some fair dove, that I may flee air. and reft me from thefe things ?

PSAL. Iv.

2 Lo then I would go far away, to flie I would not cease: And I would hide my felf, and flay in some great wildernesse.

9 Iwould be gone in all the haste, and not abide behinde:

That I were quit and overpast these blasts of boisterous winde.

To Devide them Lord, and from them puil their devilith double tongue:

For Phave spide their cities tull of rapine, strife and wrong.

x4Which things both night&day throughdo close her as a wall: (out

In midst of her is mischief stout, and forrow eke withall.

12 Her inward parts are wicked plain, her deeds are much too vile:

And in her streets there doth remain all crastie fraud and guil.

The second part.

13 If that my foes did feek my shame, I might it well abide:

From open enemies check and blame, fome where I could me hide.

Mut thou it was my fellow dear, which friendship didst pretend : And didst my secret counsel hear,

as my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talk in fecret and abroad:

And we together oft did walk within the honse of God.

16 Let death in hafte upon them fall, and fend them quick to hell:

For mischief reigneth in the hall and parlour where they dwell.

17 But

PSAL. Iv. 7 But I unto my God will crie. to him for help I flie: the Lord will hear me by and by, and he will fucconr me. At morning none and evening tide unto the Lord I pray: Vhen I fo instantly have cri'd. he doth not fay me nav. To peace he shall restore me yet. though war be now at hand : Ithough the number be fall great, that would against me stand. The Lord that first and last doth raigne, both now and evermore. Vill hear when I to him complain, and punish them full fore. For fare there is no hope that they to turn will once accord : or why ? they will not God obey, nor vet do fear the Lord. Upon their friends they laid their hands. which were in covenant knit : f friendship to negled the bands they passe or care no whit. While he hath war within his heare as butter are his words : Ithough his words were fmooth as oil they cut as fharp as fwords. Caft thou thy care upon the Lord, and he shall wourish thee: For in no wife he will accord the just in thrall to fee. But God doth cast them deep in pit that thirst for bloud alwayes: e will no guilfull man permit to live out half his dayes. 7 But 26 Though pui!

ngh-

(out

1, ilk

1, ps A L. lvi.

26 Though inch be quite defiroid and gone, in thee, O Lord, I truft:

I fhall depend thy grace upon with all my heart and luft.

PSAL. LVI. J.H.

Ave mercie, Lord, on me, I pray,
for man would me devoure:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
Mire enemies daily enterprife to (wallow me outright:
To fight against me many rife,

O thou most High of might.

3 When they would make me most afraid with boasts and brags of pride:

I trust in thee alone for aid, by thee I willabide.

Gods promise I do minde and praise, O Lord, I stick to thee:

I do not care at all affaics what fiesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or fpake, they wreit them at their will: And all the counfel that they take is how to work me ill.

They all confent them felves to hide close watch forms to lav:

close watch forme to lay: They spie my paths, and snares have tide

7 Shall they thus scape, on mischief set? thou God on them wilt frown:

For in thy wrath thou doft not let to throw whole Kingdomes down.

2. Thou feet how off the words me flee

8 Thou feeft how oft they made me flee, and on my tears doft look:

Referve them in a glasse by thee, and write them in thy book.

9 When

i I

hd

PSAL. lvii.
When I do call upon thy name
my foes away do ftart:
well perceive it by the fame that God doth take my part.
I glorie in the word of God,
to praife it I accord:

to praife it I accord: Vith joy I will d. clare abi oad the promise of the Lord.

I trust in God, and yet I say as I before began:
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
I will perform with heart so free to God my vows alwayes:
Id I,O tord, all times to thee will offer thanks and praise.

My foul from death thou doft defend, and keepft my feet upright: hat I before thee may afcend with fuch as live in light.

PSAL. LVII. J. H.

Ake pitic for thy promife take,
have mercie Lord on me:
fr why? my foul doth her betake unto the help of thee.

Within the thindow of thy wings
I fetony felffull faft, Ill mifchief, malice, and like things be gone and overpast.

I call upon the God most hie,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

From heaven he hath fout his aid to save me from their spight a hat to devoure me have all id, his mercie, truth and might.

N'hen

fraid ife,

ke,

le

ide

et?

Vil.

fice,

2 I lead

P S A L. 'lvii.
5 I lead my life with lions fell all fet on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell that fret like slames of fire.
6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long.

as tharp as I have feen:
They wound & cut with their quick tongue like fwords and weapons keen.

A

Y

1

7 Set up and shew thy felf, O God, above the heavens bright: Exalt thy praise on earth abroad, thy majestic and might.

8 They lay their net and do prepare a privic cave and pit:

Whereinthey think my foul to fnare, but they are faln in it.

9 My heart is fet to laud the Lord, in him to joy alwayes:

My heart, I fay, doth well accord to fing his laud and praife. To Awake my joy, awake, I fay, my lute my harp and ftring, For I my felf before the day will rife, rejoyce and fing.

the goodnesse of my God:

And thew his praise that doth excell in heathen lands abroad.

as heavens all are hie:
His truth as high as any ftar that thineth in the fkie.

1; set forth and flew thy felf O God, above the heavens bright: Extoll thy praife on earth abroad, thy majestic and might.

PSAL. LVIII. J.H.

Y Erulers that are put in trust to judge of wrong and right: Be all your judgements true and just, not knowing meed or might?

ong,

ongu

Nay in your hearts ye mark and muld

And where ye should true justice use your hands to bribes are bent.

The wicked fort from their birth day.

And from their mothers womb alway

4 In them the poison and the breath of serpents do appear:

Yea like the adder that is deaf, and fait doth ftop her ear.

5 Because she will not hear the voice of one that charmeth well:

No though he were the chief of choice, and therein did excell.

6 O Godbreak thou their teeth at once. } within their mouths throughout:

The tuskes that in their great jaw bonce, like lion whelps hang our.

7 Let them confume away and wafter as water runs forth right:

The flafts that they do shoot in haste, let them be brok in flight.

S As fuails do waste within their shell, and unto slime do run:

As one before his time that fell and never faw the fun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young

The storms of anger waxing strong, shall take them ere they know.

F 2

Io The

PSAL. lix. To The just shall joy, it doth them good B B that God doth vengeance take : And they thall wash their feet in bloud of them that him forfake. II Then thall the world thew forth & tell that good men have reward: And that a God on earth doth dwell that justice doth regard. PSAL. LIX. I.H. Endaid and f ve me from my foes, O Lord, I pray to thee: Def nd and keep me from all those that rele and thrive with me. 2 O Lord preferve me from those men whose doings are not good: And let m fure and fafe from them that therft still after bloud. For lo they wait my foul to take, they rage against me still: Yea for ro fault that I did make, I nev r did them ill. 4 They run and do themfelves prepare. when I no whit offend: Arise and save me from their snare, and fee what they intend. 5 O Lord of hofts of Ifrael, arise and ftr ke all lands: And pitie none that do rebell, and in their mifchief fands. & Atnight they for and feek about. as hounds they houl and grin : And all the citie clean throughout,

The

OTH

My

Th

II

BI

1

T

from place to place they rin. 7 They peak of me with mouth alway, but in their lips are fwords: They greed my death, and then would fay, What? none doth hear our words.

F 4 8 But

PSAL. lix. bocg 8 But Lord thou haft their wayes efpi'd, and laught thereat apace : loud The heathen folk thou doft deride. and mock them to their face. The firength that doth my foes withfrand. & tell O Lord, doth come of thee : 11 My God he is my help at hand. a fort of fence to me. The Lord to me doth fhew his grace in great abundance ftill : es, That I may tee my foes in cafe, fuch as my heart doth will-The record part. em II Destroy them not t once,O Lord, left it from minde do fall: But with thy minde drive them abroads and fo confume them all. 12 For their ill words & truthleffe tongues confound them in their pride: Their wicked oaths, with lies and wrong, let all the world deride. 13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord, that nought of them remain : That men may know throughout the world that Jacobs God doth reigne. 14 At evening they return apace, as dogs they grin and crie; Throughout the ffreets in every place they run about and spie. 15 They feek about for meat, I fay, but let them not be fed :

Nor finde a house, wherein they may be bold to put their head. 6 But I will thew thy ftrength abroad, thy goodnesse I will praise: For thou art my defence and God at need in all affayes. F 4

17 Thom

PSAL Ix.

But

Our

The

12 B

He

17Thou are my ftrength, thon haft me flaid O Lord, I fing to thee :

Thou art my fort, my fence and aid, aloving God to me.

PSAL. LX. J.H.

Lord thou didft us clean forfake, and scatteredft us abroad : Such great displeasure thou didft take, return to us,O God.

2 Thy might did move the land fo fore, that it in funder brake :

The hurt thereof, O Lord, reftore, for it doth bow and quake.

With heavie chance thon plaguest thus the people that are thine:

And thon haft given unto us a drink of deadly wine.

But yet to inch as fear thy name, a banner thou didft shew That they may triumph in the fame, because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and fave thy folk that favour thee :

That they the help at hand may have, O Lord, grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speak from his own place; this was his joyfull tale:

I will devide Sichem by pace, and mete out Succoths vale.

7 Gilead is given to my hand, Manasses mine beside : Ephraim the strength of all my land, my law doth Jud h guid.

8 In Moab I will wath my feet, over Edom throw my fhoe:

And thou Palestine oughtst to feek for favour me unto.

PSAL. lxi. But who shall bring me at this tide unto the citie ftrong? or who to Edom shall me guide, fo that I go not wrong? wilt thou, not God, which didft for fake thy folk, their land and coasts ? Our wars in hand that wouldft not take. nor walk among our hoafts, t Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us difdain :

re,

ake,

thus

: 93

The help that hofts of men can give it is but all in vain.

22 But through our God we shal have might to take great things in hand & He will tread down and put to flight all those that us withstand.

PSAL. LXI. J.H. Egard, O Lord, for I complain, and make my fuit to thee : Let not my words return in vain but give an ear to me.

From off the coasts and utmost parts of all the earth abroad:

In grief and anguish of my heart I crie to thee, O God.

2 Upon the rock of thy great power my wofull minde repofe: Thou art my hope my fort and tower, my fence against my foes. 4 Within thy tent I luft to dwell for ever to endure:

Under thy wings I know right well, I shall be safe and fure.

The Lord doth my defire regard, and doth fulfill the fame: With goodly gifts will he reward all those that fear his name.

6 The

PSAL. Ixii.

The King shal he in health maintain, and so prolong his dayes:

That he from age to age shall raigne, for evermore alwayes

7 That he may have a dwelling place before the Lord for ive:

O let thy mercie, truth and grace, defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I fing for ever still with praise une o thy name:
That all my vows I may sulfill, and daily pay the same.

P S A E. LXII. J.H.

My foul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:

For why? my health and hope to speed doth whole on him depend.

2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health and aid;
He is my stay, that no presence

3 O wicked felk how long will ye ule craft? fure ye that fall:

that make me much difinaid.

For as a rotten hedge ye be, and like a tottring wall.

4 Whom God toth love ye feek alwayes to put him to the worfe?

Ye love tolie, with mouth ye praife, and yet your heart doth curfe.

5 Yet full my foul doth whole depend on God u y chief defire: From all ill fears me to defend, none but him I require.

He is my rock, my fort and tower, my health is of his grace: He doth support me that no power can move me out of place.

7 God

Po

T

PSAL. Ixiii.

God is my gloric and my health, my fouls defire and luft:

My fort my fire ngth, my ftay, my wealth, God is my only truft.

O have your hope in him alway we folk with one accord:

ye folk with one accord:
Powre out your hearts to him, and fay,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The fons of men deceitfull are, on ballance but a fleight:

With things most vain do them compare, for they can keep no weight.

IoTrust not in wrong, robberie nor stealth, let vain delights be gone:

Though goods wel got flow in with wealth rt The Lord long fince one thing did tell, which here to minde I call:

He (take it off I beard it well

He spake it oft. I heard it well, that God alone doth all.

12 And that thou, Lord, art good & kinde, thy mercie doth exceed:

So that all forts with thee that finde according to their deed. ...
PS AL. IXIII. I.H.

God my God, I watch betime to come to thee in hafte: For why? my foul and body both do thirst of thee to take.

And in this barren wilderneffe, where waters there are none, My flosh is parche for thought of thee, for thee I wish alone.

od

2 That I might fee yet once again thy glorie, firength and might: As I was wont it to behold within thy temple bright.

3 Fet

PSAL. Ixiiii.

For why? thy mercies far furmount this life and wretched dayes: My lips therefore thall give to thee due honour land and praife.

And whiles I live I will not fail to worship thee alway: And in thy name I shall lift up my hands when I do pray.

My foul is fild as with marrow, which is both fat and fweet:

My mouth therefore thall fing fuch fongs

as are for thee most meet.

When as in bed I think on thee, and eke all the night tide:

7 For under covert of thy wings thou art my joyfull guide.

8 My foul doth furely flick to thee, thy right hand is my power.

And those that feek my soul to stroy, them death shall foon devoure.

their carcafies thall feed

The hungrie foxes which do run

The hungrie foxes, which do run their prey to feek at need.
II The King and all men Haall rejoyce that do professe Gods word:

For liers mouths shall then be stopt which have the truth disturbed.

PSAL. LXIIII. J.H.
O'Lord unto my voice give ear with plaint when I do pray?
And rid my life and foul from fear of foes that threat to flay.
Defend me from that fort of men which in deceit do lurk:

And from the frowning face of them that all ill fears do work.

2 Who

PSAL. Ixv.

nt

125

ne,

Who whet their tongues as we have feet men whet and sharp their swords: They shoot abroad their arrows keen, I mean most bitter words.

4. With privie fleight shout they their the upright man to hit: (shafts,

The just unwares to strife by crast they care or fear no whit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed, in counfel thus they crie:
To use deceit let us not dreed, what, who can it espie?
6 What way to hurt they talk and muse all times within their heart:

They all confult what feats to use, each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevail
when they think lest upon,
God with his dart shall fure assail,
and wound them every one,

8Their crafts & their ill thoughts withall, thall work themfelves such blame, That they which then behold their fall thall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that fee shall know right wells that God the thing hath wrought:

And praise his mightie works, and tell what he to patie hath brought.
Io Yet shall the just in God rejoyce, still trusting in his might:
So shall they joy with minde and voice, whose heart is pure and right.

PSAI. LXV. J.H.

Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth raigned in Sion thine own hill:

Their vows to thee they do maintain, and their behefts fulfill.

PSAL. Ixv.

For that thou doft their prayers hear, and doft thereto agree:

The people all both far and near

The people all both far and near with crust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life to far exceeds, that we shall fall therein: But Lord forgive our great middeeds, and purge us from our fin.

4 The man is bleft whom thou doft chuse within thy courts to dwell:

Thy house and temple he shall use with pleasures that excell.

5 Ofthy greet justice hear us God, our health of thee doth rife:

The hope of all the earth abroad, and the sea coasts likewise.

6 With strength thou art befet about, and compast with thy power: Thou mak'st the mountains strong & stout to stand in every shower.

7 The swelling seas thou dost asswage and make their streams full still: Thou dust restrain the peoples rage

Thou dost restrain the peoples rage, and rule them at thy will

3 The folk that dwell full far on earth fliall dread thy fignes to fee: Which mourn, and even in great mirth do passe with praise to thee.

when that the earth is chapt and drie, and thirsteth more and more:

Then with thy drops thou dost apply and much increase her store:

The find of God doth overflow, and fo doth caufeto spring

The feed and corn which men do fow, for he doth guid the thing.

s. With

PSAL. Ixvi.

whereby her clouds do fall:

Thy drops on her thou dost distill, and blesse her fruit withall.

rt Thou deckit the earth of thy good grace with fair and pleafant crop:
The clouds diffill their day appear

The clouds diftill their dew apace, great plentie they do drop.

12 Whereby the defart shall begin full great inc. ease to bring:

The little hills shall joy therein, much fruit in them shall spring.

13 In place plain the flocks shall feed, and cover all the earth:

The vales with corn shall fo exceed, that men shall fing for mirth.

PSAL. LXVI. J. H.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce, with praife fit forth his name e

Extell his might with heart and voice, give glorie to the fame.
2 How wonderfull O Lord, fay ye,

in all thy works thou art?
Thy foes for fear thall feek to thee full fore against their heart.

3 All men that dwell the earth throughoute fhall praife the name of God:
The land thereof the world about is the wed and fet abroad.

4 All folk come forth, behold and fee what things the Lord hath wrought. Mark well the wondrous works that he for man to paffe hath brought.

5 He laid the feelike heaps on hie, therein a way they had
On foot to passeboth fair and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.

6 His

PS A L. lxvi.

His might doth rule the world alway, his eyes all things behold:

And fuch as would him difobey, by him thall be controld.

7 Ye people give unto our God due laud and thanks alwayes: With joyful voice declare abroad, and fing unto his praise.

8 Which doth endue our foul with life.

and it preserve withall: A He stayes our feet, so that no strife can make us slip or fall.

9The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire, if that they will abide: As workmen do, when they defire to have their mettals tride,

To Although thou fuffer us fo long in prison to be cast:

And there with chains and fetters ftrong to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

II Although I say, thou sufferst men on us to ride and raigne:

Though we through fire and water ruff of very grief and pain.

12 Yet sure thou doest of thy good grace dispose it to the best:

And bring us out into a place to live in wealth and reft-

13 Unto thy house refore will I to offer and to pray:

And there I will my felf apply my vows to thee to pay.

14 The vows that with my mouth I spake in all my grief and smart:

The vows, I say, which I did make in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt-

PS A L. Ixvii.

15 Burnt-offrings I will give to thee of oxen fat and rams:
Yea this my facrifice shall be of bullocks, goats and lambs.

16 Come forth and hearken here full foon

all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poore foul hath done,

What he for my poore foul hath done, to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call to minde his grace, this mouth to him did crie: And thou my tongue make speed apace to praife him by and by.

18 But if I feel my heart within in wicked works rejoyce:

Or if I have delight to fin, God will not hear my voice.

19 But furely God my voice hath heard, and what I do require: My prayer he doth well regard.

and granteth my defire.

20 All praise to him that doth not put nor cast me out of minde: Nor yet his mercies from me shut, which I do ever finde.

PSAL. LXVII. J.H.

Ave mercie on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou accord
the brightnesse of thy face.
That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row may see thy saving health.

give praife unto thy name a O let the people all abroad extoll and laud the fame.

4 Throughout

PSAL. Ixviii.

A Throughout the world fo wide fet all rejoyce with wirth: For thou with truth and right doft guid the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world, O God, give praife unto thy name:

O let the people all abroad extoll and land the fame.

6 Then shall the earth increase, great store of from thall fall: And then our God the God of peace

And then our God the God of peace fhall bleffe us eke withall,

7 God shall us blesse, I say, and then both far and near The tolk throughout the earth alway of him shall stand in fear.

PSAL. I.X VIII. T.S.

Et God arife, and then his toes will turn themfelves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad, and feather out of fight.

and wind blows moke away,

So in the presence of the Lord the wicked thall decay.

3 But righteous men before the Lord thall heartily rejoyce: They thall be glad and merrie all,

and cheerfull in their voice.

A. Sing praise fing praise unto the I

A Sing praife, fing praife unto the Lord, who rid th on the fk. .: Extell the name of Jah our God, and him do magnifie.

5 The fame is he that is above!
with a his holy place:
That Fatter is of fatherleffe, and judge of widows cafe.

6 Houses

PSAL Ixviii.

6 Houses he gives, and iffue both unto the comfortlesse:

He bringeth bondmen out of thrall, and rebels to diffreste.

7 When thou didst march before thy folk, the E pytians from among:

And broughtit them through the wildernes which wasboth wide and long.

8The earth did quake y rain pov.r'd down, heard were gr at claps of thunder:

The mount S man shook in such fort as it would cleave in funder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rain abundantly was watht:

And if fo be it barren waxt, by thee it was refreiht.

To Thy choien flock do chere remain, thou half prepared that place:

And for the poore thou doft provide of thine especiall grace.

The second part.

to magnifie his name:

When as his people triumphs make, and purchase bruit and fame.

12For purssant Kings with all their power shall flig and take the foil:

And women which remain at home shall help to part the spoil.

13 And though you were as black as pots your nue thall past the dove,

Whose wings and feathers seem to have filver and gold above.

14 When in the land God shall triumple over Kings both high and low:

Then thall it be like Salmon hill as white as any fnow.

uses

15 Though

5000	PSAL. Ixviii.
	Though Basan be a fruitfull hill, and in height others passe:
	Yet Sion Gods most holy hill doth far excell in grace.
	26 Why brag ye thus ye hils most high and leap for pride together ?
	The hill of Sion God doth love, and there will dwell for ever-17 Gods armie is two millions of warriers good and ftrong:
	The Lord also in Sinai is present them among.
	18 Thou didft, O Lord, ascend on high, and captives led them all:
	Which in times past thy chosen flock in bondage kept and thrall.

Thou madeft them tribute for to pay, and such as did repine,
Thou didft subdue, that they might dwell in thy temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord for that he poures on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God of our health and tolace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
falvation cometh plain:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death and pain.
21 This God will wound his enemies head, and break the hairie scalpe
Of those that in their wickednesse

22 From Basan I will bring said he, my people and my sheep: And all mine own, as I have done from danger of the deep.

continually do walk.

23 And

2

1

PSAL. Ixviii. 2: And make them dip their feet in blond of thofe that hate myname : And dogs shall have their tongues embru'd with licking of the fame. 24 All men may fee how thon, O God. thine enemies doft deface: And how thou goeft as God and King, into thine holy place. 25 The fingers go before with joy, the minstrels follow after : And in the midft the damfels play with timbrell and with taber. 26 Now in thy congregations, O Ifrael, praise the Lord: And Jacobs whole posteritie give thanks with one accord. 27 Their chief was little Benjamin, but Judah made their hoft. With Zabulon and Nepthalim, which dwell about their coaff. 28 As God hath given power to thee, to Lord make firme and fure, The thing that thou hast wrought in us, for ever to endure. 29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord, For thine unto Jerusalem, fure promife ma le by word. The four h part. Yea, and ftrange Kings to us fubdu'd, thall do like in those dayes: I mean to thee they thall prefent their gifts of laud and praise. 30 He shall destroy the spear-mens ranks those calves and buls of might: And cause them tribute pay, and daunt all fuch as love to fight. at Then gh,

ell

ead.

And

PS AL. Ixix.

IT Then shall the lords of Egypt come, and prefents with them bring:

The Mores most black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. (hands 22 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth give praise unto the Lord:

Sing psalm: sto him with one consent,

33 Who though he ride, and ever hath above the heavens bright: Yet by the fearfull thunderclaps men may well know his might.

Therefore the strength of Israel afcribe to God on hie:

thereto let all accord.

Whose might and power doth far extend above the cloudy skie.

15 O God, thy holinesse and power are dread for evermore:
The God of Hrael gives us strength, Praised be God therefore.

PSAL LXIX. J. H.

Save me, O God, and that with speed, the waters flow full fait:

so nigo my foul they do proceed, that I am fore agait,

I stickfull deep in mire and clay, whereas I feel no ground:

I fall into such flouds, I say, that I am like be drownd.

with crying oft Ifaint and quail, my throat is hoarfe and drie; With looking up my fight doth fail for help to God on hie.

4 My foes that guilt leffe do oppreffe my foul with hate are 1 d: In number fore they are no leffe then haires are on my head.

5 Though

p S A L. lxix.

5 Though for no cause they year me fore;
they prosp r and are glad:
They do compell me to restore the things I never had.

6 What I have do c for want of wit, thou Lord all times canist tell:
And all the fins that I commit to thee is known full well.

7 O God of hosts defend and stay all those that trust in thee:

eir

ids

nd

gh

h all those that troft in thee:

Let no man doubt or fhrink away for ought that chancath me.

8 It is for thee and for thy fake

8 It is for thee and for thy fake that I do bear this blame: In fpite of thee they would me make to hidem, face for thame.

My mothers fons my brethrenall fortakeme on a row:

And as a ft anger they me call, my face they will not know. To Unto thy houf fuch zeal 1 bear, that it doth pine me much: Their checks and taunts at thee to hear my very heart doth grutch.

The second part.

Though I do fast my fesh to chast,
yea if I weep and mone:
Yet m my teeth this gear is cast, they p ste not the renpos.
If I for grief and pain of heart in seckcloth use to walk:
Then they anone will it pervert, thereof they jest and talk.

Both high and low and all the throng that fit within the gate:

of me they talk and prate.

14 The

PS AL. Ixix. To The drunkards which in wine delight, it is their chiefpastime : To feek which way to work me fpight. of me they fing and rime, Is But thee the while, O Lord, I pray, that when it pleaseth thee, For thy great truth thou wilt alway fend down thine aid to me. 16 Pluck thou my feet our of the mire, from drowning do me keep: From fuch as owe me wrath and ire, and from the waters deep.

17Left with the waves I should be drownd, and depth my foul devoure : And that the pit should me confound, and shut me in her power. 18 O Lord of hofts to me give ear, as thouart good and kinde:

And as thy mercie is most dear, Lord have me in thy minde.

19 And do not from thy fervant hide nor turn thy face away : I am oppreft on every fide, in hafte give ear, I fay.

Zo O Lord unto my foul draw nie, the fame with aid repose: Because of their great tyrannie acquite me from my foes. The third part.

ar That I abide rebuke and shame, thou knowst, and thou canst tell : For those that feek and work the same, thou feeft them all full well.

22 When they with brags do break my I feek for help anone: (heart

But finde no friends to eafe my fmart, to comfort me not onc.

23 Bat

And

nd

5 1

Tet:

PSAL. Ixix. ight, But in my meat they gave me gall, too cruell for to think : t, And gave me in my thirst withall, itrong vineger to drink. 4 Lord turn their table to a fnare, to take themselves therein: ad when they think full well to fare. then trap them in the gin. And let their eyes be dark and blinde. re, that they might nothing fee : low down their backs, and do them binde in thraldome for to be. 5 Poure out thy wrath as hote as fire, that it on them may fall: wnd, let thy difpleasure in thine ire take hold upon them all. As deferts drie, their house difgrace, their off-tpring eke expell: That none thereof possesse the place, nor in their tents do dwell. If thou doft ftrike the man to tame. on him they lay full fore: and if that thou doft wound the fame, they feek to hurt him more.

they feek to hurt him more.

Then let them he ap up mischies still,
fish they are all pervert:
hat of thy favour and good will they never have a port.
And race them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their name they never look in number of the just.

The fourth part.

t Though I,O Lord, with pain and grief have been full fore opproft:
Thy help thall give me tuch relief, that all thall be redreit.

Bat

heart

as That

PSAL. IXX.

32 That I may give thy name the praife, and shew it with a fong: I will excell the same alwayes

I will extoll the fame alwayes with hear we thanks among.

33 Which is more pleasant unto thee, (such minde thy grace hath born)

Then either ox or calf can be that hath both hoof and horn34 When fimple folk do this behold it thall rejoyee them furne

it shall rejoyce them fure:

Allye that feek the Lord, behold, your life for aye shall dure.

35 For why? the Lord of hofts doth her the poore when they complain:

His prisoners are to him full dear, he doth them not disdain.

36 Wherefore the fixie and earth below, the fea with floud and stream:

His praise they shall declare and shew with all that live in them.

37 For fure our God will Sion fave, and Judahs cities build: 28 Much folk possession there shall have.

her streets thall all be fild. His fervants feed stall keep the same all ages out of minde:

39 And there all they that love his name a dwelling place shall finde.

PSAL. LXX. J.H.

OGod to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of holts with halte make fpeed,
help, help, I thee defire.
With thame confound them all that feek my foul to full:

Rebuke them back with blame to fall, that think and with me ill.

2 Confound

6

1

PSAL IXXI. aife, Confound them that apply and feek to work me thame: And at my harm do laugh and cries so in, there goes the game. a But let them joyfull be in thee with joy and wealth: Which only truit and feek to thee and to thy faving health. That they may fay alwayes in mirth and one accord: All glorie, honour, land and praife, be given to thec, O Lord. 6 But I am weak and poore, h hea come Lord thine aid I lack : 1: Thou art my flay and help, therefore make fpeed and be wot flack. ·low. PSAL. LXXI. J. H. Y Lord, my God, in all diffreffe w I my hope is whole in thee : Then let no thame my foul oppreffe, nor once take hold on me. 2 As thou art just defend me Lord, have, and rid me out of dreed: Give ear, and to my fuit accord, and fend me help at need. 10 2 Be then my rock to whem I may for aid all times refort : Thy promife is to help alway, thou art my fence and fort. 4 Save me my God from wicked men, and from their ffrength and powers From folk unjust and eke from them peed, that cruelly devource. 5 Thou art the flay wherein I truft, thou Lord of hofts art he: Yea from my youth I had a luft full to depend on thee. nfour

PSAL. ixxi. 6 Thou hast me kept even from my birth, and I through thee was born : Wherefore I will thee praife with mirth, both evening and at morne. 7 As to a monfter feldome feen, much folk about me throng : But thou art now, and still hatt been my fence and aid fo ttrong. 8 Wherefore my mouth no time shal lack, thy glorie and thy praise: And eke my tongue thall not be flack to honour thee alwayes. 9 Refuse me not, O Lord, I fay, when age my lims doth take: And when my ftrength doth waite away do not my foul fortake.

10 Among themselves my foes enquire to take me through deceit: And they against me do conspire that for my foul laid wait.

The second part.

It Lay hand and take him now, they faid for God from him is gone: Dispatch him quite, for to his aid (I wis) there cometh none. 12 Do not ablent thy felf away, O Lord when need thall be:

But that in time of grief thou may in hafte give help to me.

13 With thame confound and overthrow all those that feek my life : Oppresse them with rebuke alfo. that fam would work me itrife. 14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all a layes:

Still more and more, each time and tide I will fet forth thy praife.

15 My

15

Bu

16

TI

17

T

18

F

15

2

T

2

PSAL. Ixxi. Is My mouth thy justice shall record. irth, that daily help doth fend; But of thy benefits. O Lord, nirth, I know no count nor end. 16 Yet will I go and leck forth one with thy good help, O God: The faving health of thee alone, to thew and fet abroad. l lack 17 For of my youth thou took'ft the care. and dolt instruct me still: Therefore thy wonders to declare I have great minde and will. 18 And as in youth from wanton rage thou didit me keep and fray : Forlake me not unto mine age. vay untill my head be gray. The third part. ire 19 That I thy strength and might may shew to them that now be here: And that our feed thy power may know hereafter many a year. 20 O Lord, thy justice doth exceed, y faid thy doings all may fee : Thy works are wonderfull indeed, oh! who is like to thee? 21 Thou mad'ft me feel affliction fore, and yet thou didft me tave : Yea thou didit help and me rettore, and tookft me from the grave. 22 And thou mine honeur doit increale, row my dignitie maintain : Yea thou giett wake all grief to ceafe, and comfertit me again. 23 Ther fore thy arthfulneffe to praife twill with viol fing : My harp shall tound thy praise alwayes, le O liraels holy King. 5 My 24 My G 3

PS AL. Ixxii. My mouth thall joy with pleafant voice 8 H when I shall fing to thee: And eke my foul thall much rejoyce. for thou halt made me free. zr My tongue thy uprightnesse shal found o T and fpeak it daily ftill : For grief and thame do them confound that feek to work me ill. PSAL. LXXII. J.H. Ord give thy judgements to the King, therein instruct him well: And with his fon that princely thing, Lord, let thy justice dwell. That he may govern uprightly, and rule thy folk aright: And fo defend with equitie the poore that have no might. 2. And let the mountains that are hie unto thy folk give peace : And eke let little hils apply in justice to increase. A That he may help the weak and poore with aid, and make them ftrong : And eke deftroy for evermore all those that do them wrong. 5 And then from age to age flull they regard and fear thy might: So long as fun doth fline by day, or elfe the moon by night. & Lord make the King unto the just like rain to fields new moon ? And like to drops that lay the dust, and fresh the land new fown. 7 The just shall flourish in his time.

and all thall be at peace, Murill the moon shall leave to prime, waste, change, and to increase.

And

And

Th

12

1

H

8 He

Voice	PSAL. Ixxii. 8 He shall be Lord of sea and land, from shore to shore throughout? And from the slouds within the land, through all the earth about.
ound nd King,	The people that in defarts dwell fhall kneel to him full thick: And all his enemies that rebell the earth and dust shall lick. To The Lords of all the Iles thereby great gifts to him shall bring: The Kings of Saba and Arabie give many a costly thing.
	The second part.
	in his good grace to ftand: And all the people of the world fhall ferve him at his hand. For he the needy fort doth fave that unto him do call: And eke the fimple fort, that have no help of man at all.
te	13 He taketh pitie on the poose that are with need opprest : He doth preserve them evermore, and bring their fouls to rest. 14 He shall redeem their lives from dreed, from fraud, from wrong, from might a And eke the bloud that they shall bleed is precious in his sight.
Не	15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Sabaes gold: He shall be honoured as a King, and daily be extold. 16 The mightie mountains of his land of corn shall bear such throng: That it like cedar trees shall stand in Libanus tull long. G 4 17 Their

PS AI. lxxiii.

17 Their cities eke full well shal speed, the fruit thereof shall passe, In plentie it shall far exceed, and spring as green as grasse.

18 For ever they shall praise his name,

An

while that the fun is light:
And think them happie through the fame all folk shall blesse his might.

19 Praife ye the Lord of hofts, and fing to If acts Godeach one:
For he doth every wondrous thing, yea he himfelf alone.
So And bleffed be his holy name

all times eternally: That all the earth may praise the same, Amen, Amen, say I.

PSAL. LXXIII. T.S.

And to all fisch as fafely keep their confeience pure and well.

Yet like a fool I almost flipt,
my feet began to flide:

And ere I wift, even at a pinch,

my steps awriegan glide.

For when I saw such soolish men,
I grudged and did distain,
That wicked men all things should have

That wicked men all things thould have withoutturmoil or pain.

They never suffer pain nor grief,

as if death thould them finite:
Their bodies are both flout and ftrong, and ever in good plight.

s And free from all adverfice,
when other men be shent:
And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

6 Therefore

PSAL. IXXIII. 6 Therefore presumption doth embrace eed, their necks as doth a chain : And are even wrapt as with a robe with rapine and difdain. ame. They are fo fed that even for fat their eyes oft times out fart ! e fame And as for worldly goods, they have more then can wish their heart. 8 Their life is most licentious. ing boafting much of the wrong Which they have done to fimple men, and ever pride among. The heavens and the living Lord they spare not to blaspheme: me. and prate they do of worldly goods, no wight they do effeeme. The people of God oft times turn back to fee their prosperous state: and almost drink the felf same cup, and follow the fame rate. The [cond part. In How can it be that God, fay they, should know or understand These worldly things, fith wicked men be lords of fea and land? 12 For we may fee how wicked men in riches still increase: Rewarded well with worldly goods, have and live in rest and peace. Then why do I from wickednesse my fantafie refrain: And wash my hands with innocents, ong, and cleanfe my heart in vain? And fuffer icourges every day, as subject to all blame: and every morning, from my youth fustain rebuke and shame. 35 ANd erefore 11.

PSAL. IXXIII. re And I had almost faid as they, misliking mine estate : But that I should thy children judge, as folk unfortunate. 16 Then I bethought me how I might this matter understand : But yot the labour was too great for me to take in hand.

17 Untill the time I went into thine holy place, and then Lunderstood right perfectly the end of all thefe men.

18 And namely how thou fettest them upon aslipperie place :

And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.

19 Then all men muse at that strange fight, to fee how fuddenly

They are destroid, dispatche, consum'd, and dead to horribly.

20 Much like a dream when one awakes, to thall their wealth decay : Their famous names in all mens fight fliall ebbe and paffe away. The third part.

zt Yet thus my heart was grieved then, my minde was much opprest:

22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a bealt.

22 Yet neverthelelle by my right hand thou hold t me alwayes fait :

21 And with thy counsel dost me guid to glorie at the laft.

25 What thing is there that I can wish but thee in heaven above ?

And in the earth there is nothing like thee that I can love.

26 My

Fo

27

11

PSAL. Ixxiiii. 26 My flefh and eke my heart doth fail. but God doth fail me never : For of mine health God is the ftrength, my portion eke for ever. 27 And lo, all fuch asthee forfake thou thalt deftroy each one : And those that trust in any thing, faving, In thee alone. 28 Therefore I will draw near to God, and ever with him dwell: In God alone I put n:y truft, his wonders I will tell. PSAL. LXXIIII. J/Hy art thou Lord fo long from us in all this danger deep?

ıt fight,

d.

ces,

id

My

Why art thou Lord fo long from us in all this danger deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus at thine own pasture sheep?
2 Lord call the people to thy thought, which have been thine fo long: The which thou haft redeemd and brought from boudage fore and ftrong.

Have minde therefore, and think upon, remember it full well: Thy pleasant place, thy mount sion, where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift up thy foot, and come in haste, and all my foes deface: Which now at plea fure rob and waste within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all thine enemies roar, O God: They fet as fignes on every wall their banners splaid abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees that on the hils do grow:

So shine the bils and swords of these within thy temple now.

7 The

P S A I. lxxiiii. The feeling fawd, the carved bords, the goodly graven flones, With axes, hammers, bils and fwords, they beat them down at once. Thy places they confume with flame, and eke in all this toil, The house appointed to thy name, they raze down to the foil.
o And thus they say within their heart, Dispatch them out of hand t Then burnt they up in every part Gods houses through the land, to Yet thou no signe of help dost send, our prophets all are gone: To tell when this our plague shall end among us there is none.
and cease thine enemies strong? Shall they alwayes blas pheme thy name, and rail on thee so long? Why dost thou draw thy hand aback and hide it in thy lap? Oh pluck it out and be not slack to give thy foes a rap. The second part.
y O Godthou art our King and Lord, and evermore haft been: Yea thy good grace throughout the world for our good help hath feen. 4 The feas that are so deep and dead, thy might did make them drie. And thou didft break the serpents head, that he therein did die.
of whales that are fo fell: And gavift them to the folk to eat that in the defart dwell.

16 Thou

16 fi

> 17 Th

PSAL. Ixxiiii.

ds,

ame, nd,

end

ame

ne,

ack,

at

16 Thou mad'it a fpring with ffreams to from rock both hard and hie : And eke thy hand hath made likewife deep rivers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine, by thee they were begun: Thou fetft to ferve us with their fline, the moon and eke the fun. 18 Thou didft appoint the ends and coaffs of all the earth about : Both fommer heat and winter frosts thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on,O Lord, no time forget, thy foes that thee defame : And how the foolith folk are fet to rail upon thy name. 20 O let no cruell beaft devoure thy turtle that is true :

Forget not alwayes in thy power the poore that much do rue.

at Regard thy covenant, and behold thy foes possesse the land :

All fad and dark, forworn and old, our realm as now doth ftand.

21 Let not the simple go away, nor yet return with shame : But let the poore and needy aye give praise unto thy name.

23 Rife Lord, let be by thee maintaind the cause that is thine own : Remember how that thou blasphemd art by the foolish one. 24 The voice forget not of thy foes, for the prelumption hie

Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

PS AL.

PSAL. LXXV. J. H.

Nto thee, Lord, will we give thanks, we will give thanks to thee:
Sith the name is fo near, declare the wondrous works will we.

2 I will uprightly judge when get convenient time I may:

The earth is weak, and all therein, but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people fay, Deal not fo furionfly: And unto the ungodly ones, Set not your horns on hie.

4 I faid unto them, fet not up your raifed horns on hie:

And fee ther you do with fiften

And see that you do with stiffe neck not speak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern part, nor from the western side: Nor from forsaken wildernesse

For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous Judge alone:

He putteth down the one, and fets another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mightie wine is in the hand of God:

And all the mightic wine therein himselfe doth poure abroad.

S As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it,

The wicked of the earth shall drink and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I fay, of Jacobs God therefore: And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore. To

But

To

PSAL. Ixxvi.

To In funder break the horn of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men thall be exalted hic.

Gloria Patr.

To Father, Son and holy Ghoft, all glorie be therefore:
As in beginning was is now.

As in beginning was, is now, and shall be evermore.

PSAL. LXX VI. J.H.
To all that now in Jurie dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:
His name is great in Ifrael,

a people of his own.

At Salem he his tent hath pitcht to tarrie there a space :
In Sign eke he harh deligh t

In Sion eke he hath deligh t to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow, the sword, the spear, and shield:

And brake the ray to overthrow in battel on the field.

4 Thou are more worthy honour Lord, more might in thee doth lie

Then in the strongest of the world that rob on mountains hie.

5But now $ proud are spoild through thee, and they are faln on sleep:

Throng men of war no help can be, themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God, when thou dost them reprove, As half on sleep their chariots stood,

no horsemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeed, what man the courage hath To bide thy fight, and doth not tear when thou art in thy wrath?

8 When

PSAL. IXXVII.

8 When y dost make thy judgements heard from heaven through the ground, Then all the earth full fore atraid in filence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O Lord, dost stand in judgement for to fpeak: To fave th'afflicted of the land on earth that are full weak.

To The furie that in mand oth raigne, fhall turn unto thy praise : Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats alwayes.

II Make vows, and pay them to our God, ye folk that nigh him be : Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad, for dreadfull fure is he.

13 For he doth take both life and might from princes great of birth : And full of terrour is his fight to all the Kings on earth.

PSAL LXXVII. J.H.

With my voice to God do crie with heart and heartie chear: My voice to God I lift on hie, and he my fuit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I fought to God. by night no reft I took : But stretche my hands to him abroad, my foul con fort for look.

3 When I to think on God intend, my trouble then is more: I fpake, but could not make an cud.

my breath was stopt fo force 4 Thou heldft mine eyes fuch wife from reft that I alwayes did wake :

With fear I was to fore opprest, my speech did me forsake.

5 The

The

6 B

Au

50

PS AL. Ixxvii. ard The dayes of old in minde I caft and oft did think upon The times and ages that are past full many years agone. By night my fongs I call to minde, once made thy praise to show : And with my heart much talk I finde, my spirits do tearch to know. 7 Will God, faid I, at once for all cast off his people thus: So that henceforth no time he fhall be friendly nato us? 8 What, is in goodnesse clean de: id for ever and a day? Oris his promife now delaid? and doth his truth decay? . And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold ? Or fhall his wrath increase so hote, his mercie to withhold? To At laft I faid my weakneffe is the caufe of this miftruft : Gods m ghtie hand can help all this, and change it when he luft. The fecond part. II I will regard and think upon the working of the Lord: Of all his wonders past and gone I gladly will record. 12 Yea all his works I will declare. and what he did devile: To tell his facts I will not fpare, and eke his counsel wife.

> 12 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright, and holy all abroad: What one hath ftrength to match the might of thee, O Lord our God?

14 Thou

nd

PSAT. Ixxviil. 14 Thouart a God that doft forth flew thy wo ders every houre: And fo doft make thepeople know thy vertue and thy power.

Is And thine own folk thou didft defend with strength and stretched arm; The lons of Jacob that defcend, and losephs feed from harm.

16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee, the waters faw thee well:

And they for fear away did flee, the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick & blad did rain most plenteously: The thunder in the air did crack.

thy that's abroad did flie.

18 Thy thunder in the air was heard, the lightning from above,

With flathes great made men afraid, the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy wayes within the fea doth lie, thy paths in waters deep: Yet none can there thy steps espie, nor know thy paths to keep. 20 Thou ledft thy folk upon the land as theep on every fide & Through Moles and through Aarons hand No thou didft them fafely guid.

PSALLXXVIII. T.S.

A Ttend my people to my law, 2 My mouth shall speak strange parables and fentences divine.

3Which we our felves have heard & learns 16 even of our fathers old:

And which for our instruction our fathers have us told.

4 Becaufe

PSAL. Ixxviii. hew Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after: Who should Gods power to their race and all his works of wonder. (praife, To Jacob he commandment gave efend how Ifrael flooded live : Willing our fathers should the same unto their children give. 2 That they and their posteritie that were not fprung up tho, Should have the knowledge of the law. and teach their feed alfo. That they may have the better hope in God that is above : and not forget to keep his laws and his precepts in love. d. 8 Not being as their fathers were rebelling in Gods fight : and would not frame their wicked hearts to know their God aright. How went the people of Ephraim lie, their neighbours for to spoil ? Stooting their darts the day of war, and yet they took the foil. nd In For why? they did not keep with God the covenant that was made: is han Nor yet would walk or lead their lives according to his trade. But put into oblivion his counsel and his will ? ad all his works most magnifique which he declared fill. arables The fecond part. & learns What wonders to our forefathers did he himfelf disclose Egypt land, within the field that called is Thancos ? I; He Because PSAL. Ixxviii. I ? He did devide and cut the fea, that they might paffe at once ; And made the waters fland asftill as doth an heap of ftones. 14 He led them fecret in a cloud by day when it was bright: And in the night when dark it was with fire he gave them light. Is He brake the rocks in wildernesse, and gave the people drink, As plentifull as when the deeps do flow up to the brink. 18 He drew out rivers out of rocks that were both drie and hard: Of fuch abundance, that no flouds to them might be compard. 17 Yet for all this against the Lord their fin they did increase:

And ftirred him that is most high to wrath in wilderneffe.

18 They tempted him within their hearts like people of mistrust: Requiring fuch a kinde of meat as ferved to their luft. 19 Saying with murmuration in their unthankfulnefle :

What, can this God prepare for na a feast in wildernesse ?

20 Behold, he ftrake the fonie rocks, and flond forthwith aid flow : But can he now give to his folk both ficth and bread also? 21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth with Jacob and his feed:

So did his indignation on Ifrael proceed.

The

PSAL. Ixxviii.

The third part. 2 Because they did not faithfully beleeve, and hope that he Could alwayes help and fuccour them in their accofficie.

ffe,

hearts

23 Wherefore he did command the clouds, forthwith they brake in funder :

24 And raind down Manna for them to eat,

a food of mickle wonder.

When earthly men with Angelsfood were fed at their request:

He bad the cast winde blow away. and brought in the fouth west.

And raind down fleth as thick as duft, and fowls as thick as fand:

Which he did cast amidst the place where all their tents did flaud.

Then did they eat exceedingly, and all men had their fils:

Yet more and more they did defire to feeve their lufts and wills.

But as the meat was in their mouths his wrath upon them fell:

And flue the flower of all their youth. and choice of Ifrael.

Yet fell they to their wonted fin, andstill they did him grieve :

For all the wonders that he wrought they would nim not beleeve.

Their dayes therefore he thortened, and made their honour vain :

Their years did wafte and paffe away with terronr and with prin.

wroth 34 But ever when he plagued them they fought him by and by : Remembring that he was the r ftrength, their help and God most hie. 35 Though The PSAI. Ixxviii.

36 Though in their months they did he and flatter with the Lord: (glod And with their tongues and in their heard diffembled every word.

The fourth part.

37For why?their hearts were nothing ber to him nor to his trade: Nor yet to keep or to perform the covenant that was made.

38 Yet was he still so mercifull when they deferred to die,

That he forgave them their misdeeds, and would not them destroy,

Yeamany a time he turnd his wrath, and did himfelf advise:

And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.

29 Considering that they were but field, and even as a winde That paffeth away, and cannot well return by his own kinde.

40 How often times in wildernesse did they the Lord provoke?
How did they move and stir the Lord to plague them with his froke?

41 Yet did they turn again to fin,
and tempted God eftsoon:

Prescribing to the holy Lord what things they would have done.

48 Not thinking of his hand and power, nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands of their herce enemie.

43 Nor how he wrought his miracles, (as they themselves beheld) In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

44 N

45N

And

6

Inc

PSAL. Ixxviii. d by 14 Nor how he turned by his power the waters into bloud : That no man might receive his drink at river nor at floud. as Nor how he fent them fwarms of flies which did them fore annoy: And fild their countrey full of frogs which did their land deftroy. The fifth part. Nor how he did con mit their fruits unto the caterpiller: and all the labour of their hands ds, he gave to the grashopper. With hailftones he deftroid their vines fo that they were all loft : nd not fo much as wilde fig-trees but he confum'd with froft. 8 And yet with hailstones once again the Lord their cattel fmote: and all their flocks and herds likewife with thunderbolts full hote. 9 He cast upon them in his ire and in his furie strong, Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits, to trouble them among. rd 2 Then to his wrath he made away and spared not the least > But gave unto the pestilence the man and eke the beaft. lone. I He strake also the first-born all. that up in Egypt came : ניבייום And all the chief of men and beafts within the tents of Ham. 32 But as for all his own dear folk es, he did preserve and keep: And carried them through wildernesse even like a flock of theep. 53 Without PSAL. Ixxviii.

he brought them out of thrall:

Whereas their foes with rage of fea were overwhelmed all.

A

d

dn

V

and]

B

h

54 And brought them out into the coally of his own holy land:

Even to the mount which he had got by his strong arme and hand-

55 And there east out the heathen folk, and did their land devide:

And in their tents he fet the tribes of Ifrael to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most high, they stird and tempted still: And would not keep his testament, nor yet obey his will.

57 But as their fathers turned back,

even fo they went aftray:
Mach like a bow that would not beud,
but flip and that away.

The fixt part.

58 And griv'd him with their hill altars, with offrings and with fire :

And with their dols vehemently provoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his weath began again to kindle in his breaft:

The naughtinesse of Israel he did so much detest.

60 Then he forfook the tabernacle of Silo, where he was Right converfant with earthly men, even as his dwelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might and power in bondage for to stand:

And gave the honour of his ark

62 And

PSAL. Ixxvii. ound And did commit them to the fword. wroth with his heritage : The young men were devoured with fire maids had no mariage. And with the fword the priefts also coaffi did perifh every one : And not a widow left alive. 2 their death for to bemone. k, And then the Lord began to wake, like one that flept a time : like a valiant man of war refreshed after wine. With emerods in the hinder parts gli, he ftrake his enemics all: and put them then unto a shame that was perpetuall. Then he the tent and tabernacle of Joseph did refuse : ıd, for the tribe of Ephraim he would in no wife chufe. But chose the tribe of Jehuda, whereas he thought to dwell : lta:3, en the noble mount sion, which he did love fo well. Whereas he didhis temple bui'd both fumptuoully and fure: ke as the earth which he hath mide for ever to endure. Then chose he David him to ferve his people for to keep: hom he took up and brought away even from the folds of theep. power As he did follow ewes with young the Lord did him advance o feed his people Ifrael, and his inheritance. 2 And 72 Then PSAL. Ixxix. 72 Then David with a faithfull heart his flock and charge did feed: And prudently with all his power G did govern them indeed. PSAL. LXXIX. J.H. God the Gentiles do invade thine heritage ofpoil: Terufalem an heap is made, n thy thy temple they defoil 2 The bodies of thy faints most dear abroad to birds they caft : The flesh of them that do thee fear the beafts devour and waste. Their bloud throughout Jerufalem as water fpilt they have: So that there is not one of them of fac to lay their dead in grave. 4 Thus are we made a mocking flock almost the world throughout; The enemies at us jeft and mock which dwell our coasts about-5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thine ite T S against us ever fume? And thew thy wrath as hote as fire thy folk for to confume? 6 Upon those people poure the fame which did thee never know:

0

igh

be

th

fo

H

ic

min

The

All realms which call not on thy name confume and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand, and Jacobs feed destroid : His habitation and his land they have left waste and void.

8 Bear not in minde our former faults with speed some pitie shew: And aid us, Lord, in all affaults, for we are weak and low.

PSAL. lxxx. art The fecond part. Goddhat giv'ft ail health and grace, on us declare the fame : Weigh not our works, our fins deface, for honour of thy name. Why Hail the wicked ftill alway, to us as people dumb, le by reproch rejo ce and fay, where is their God become ? lear mire, O Lord, as thou feelt good, 12 before our eyes in fight of il thef folk thy fervants bloud, which they toilt in despight. lem It Receive into thy fight in hafte the clamour grief and wrong, of uch as are in prison cast, fultaining irons itrong. ock The force and strength to celebrate, at ; Lord, fet them out of band, Which unto death are destinate, ut. and in thei enemies hand. ire the nations which have been fo bold, as to blaspheme thy name : 2 nto their laps with feven fold repay again the fame. me , we thy folk and pasture sheep will praise the evermore: 1300 teach all nations for to keep for thee like praise in store. nd, PSAL. LXXX. J. H. Hou Herd that Ifrael doit keep, give ear and take good heed: d. Wichleadest Joseph like a theep, faults, and doft him watch and feeds Thou Lord I fay, whose feat is let on Cherubins most bright : w forth thy felf, and do not let, fend down thy beams of light.

PSAL. IXXX.

2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin, Manaffes eke likewife': To flew thy power do thou begin, come help us Lord, arife. a Direct our hearts unto thy grace, convert us Lord to thee: Shew us the brightnesse of thy face, and then full fafe are we.

6 Lord God of hofts of Ifrael, how long wilt thou, I fay, Against thy folk in anger swell, and wilt not hear them pray :

Thou doft them feed with forrows de their bread with tears they eat: And drink the tears that they do weep in measure full and great.

7 Thou haft us made a very strife to those that dwell about : And that our foes do love alife, they laugh and jest it out.

S O take us Lord unto thy grace, convert our hearts to thee:

shew forth to usthy joyfull face. and we full fafe thall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well thou broughtft a vine full dear: The heathen folk thou didit expell, and thou didft plant it there. 10 Thou didit prepare for it a place, and fet her roots full faft: That it did grow and fpring apace, and fild the land at lait.

The second part.

21 The hills were covered round about with thade that from it came: And eke the cedars high and flout, with branches of the fame.

Be jo hat a

The

The fi

de

de fr

th

Th

W

Th

W

W

t

An

ar

C

The far

And th

In Let

and w

Then !

10 O I

chol

holo

PSAL. IXXXI.

Why then didft thou her wall deftroy? her hedge pluckt up thou haft:
That all the folk that paffe thereby, thy vine may spoil and wafte.

The boar out of the wood so wilde doth dig and rout it out:
The furious beafts out of the held devoure it all about.

O Lord of hofts return again.

ep

il

from heaven look betime: hold, and with thy help fustain this poore vineyard of thine.

Thy plant, I fay, thine Ifrael, whom thy right hand hath fet:
The fame which thou didft love fo well,
O Lord, do not forget.

they burn it eke with fire:

Ind through the frowning of thy face
we perith in thine ire.

Tet thy right hand be with them now, whom thou haft kept fo long: and with the fon of man whom thou to thee hast made so strong.

8 And so when thou hast set us free,

and faved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy name.

9 O Lord of hofts through thy good grace convert us unto thee: schold us with a pleafant face, and then full fafe are we-

PSAL LXXXI. J.H.

Be light and glad, in God rejoyce, which is our strength and stay: to joyfull and lift up your voice, to Jacobs God, I say,

H

2 Prepare

2 Prepare your instruments most meer fome joyfull plalm to fing Strike up with harp and late so sweet, on every pleasant string.

Blow as it were in the new moon with trumpers of the best:

Asit is used to be done at any solemne feast.

4 For this is unto Ifrael
a statute and a trade:

A law that must be kept full well, which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed, when he from Egypt came: That as a witnesse all his seed thould still observe the same.

When God, I say, had thus prepared to bring him from that land:

Whereas the speech that he had heard he did not understand.

7 I from his houlders took, faith he, the burthen clean away:

And from the furnace quit him free from burning brick of clay. 8 When thou in grief didft crie and call

And I did infwer thee withall in thunder fecretly.

• Yea at the waters of discord of I did thee tempt and prove : Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord with mutting thou didst move.

To Hear, O my folk, O Ifrael, and I after; it thee:

Regard and markemy words full well, if thou wilt cleave to me.

The

Th

or it

Then.

of

Ia

m

Nor 1

TOW

Toll.

And

PSAL. IXXXII. tee The fecond part. Thou fhalt no god in theereferve t, of any land abroad: Nor in no wife to bow or ferve in a strange or forrain god. I am the Lord thy God, and I. from Egypt fet thee free: Then afk of me abundantly. and I will give it thee. And yet my people would not hear my voice when that I fpake: Nor Ifrael would not obey. but did me quite torfake. It Ih ndid I leave them to their will in herdneffe of their heart : To walk in their own counfels ftill, themfelves they might pervert. d oh that my people would have heard rd the words that I did fay : and ek, that Ifrael would regard to walk within my way. fellow foon would confound their foes and bring them down full low : And turn mine h nd upon all those that would them overthrow? call And they that at the Lord do rage, as flaves fhould fe k him till: of his folk the time and age flould ourish ever ftill. 8 I would have fed them with the crop, and fin it of the wheat: And made the rock with honie drop. that they their fils should eat. PSAL. L XXII. J.H. Mid the presse with men of might the Lord himself doth stand, To plead the cause of truth and right with judges of the land. The 2 How A4

PS AL. Ixxxiii. 2 How long, faid he, will you proceed false judgement to award: And have respect for love of meed, the wicked to regard? 2 Whereas of due you should defend Ag the fatherleffe and weak: And when the poore man doth contend, For in judgement justly speak. 4 If ye be wife defend the caute of poore men in their right : And rid the needy from the claws of syrants force and might.

But nothing will they know or learn, in vain to them I talk : They will not fee or ought difcern, but ftill in darkneffe walk. 6 For lo, even now the time is come that all things fall to nought: And likewife laws both all and fome, for gain are fold and bought.

I had decreed it in my fight, as gods to take you all: And children to the most of might, for love I did you call.

7 But notwithstanding you shall die as men, and fo decay:

O tyrants I shall you destroy, and pluck you clean away.

8 Up Lord, and let thy ftrength be known, and judge the world with might :

For why? all nations are thine own to take them as thy right.

PSAL. LXXXIII. J.H.

O not, O God, refrain thy tongue, in filence do not flay : Withhold not, Lord, thy felf fo long, and make no more delay.

a For

And th

50 t

Th

Agai

The

Th

An

PS AL. IXXXIII. For why ? behold thy foes, and fee how they do rage and crie : And those that bear a hate to thee hold up their heads on hie. Against thy folk they use deceit.

and craftly they enquire, end. For thine elect to lie in wait their countel doth conspire. Come on, faid they, let us expell and pluck thefe folk away :

to that the name of I frael may utterly decay.

end

arn,

Wñ,

For

They all conspire within their hearts how they may thee withstand: against the Lord to take a part they are in league and band. The tents of all the Edomites. the Ismaelites alfo:

The Hagarens and Moabites. with divers others mo.

Gebal with Ammon, and likewife. doth Amalek confpire: The Philiftims against thee rife, with them that dwell at Tyre. B And Ashur eke is well apaid with them in league to be : And doth become a fence and aid to Lots posteritie.

Asthou didit to the Madianites, to ferve them, Lord, each one: As to sifer and to Jabin befide the brook Kifon.

. Whom thou in Endor didft deftroy and waste them through thy might: That they like dung on earth did lie, and that in open fight.

The

12 Which faid, Let us throughout the land in all the coafts abroad, Possesse and take into our hand the fair houses of God. 13 Turn them, O God with forms as falt as wheels that have no fray: Or like the chaff which men do cast with vindes to Hie away. 14 Like as the fire with rage and fume the mightie forrests spils: And as the flame doth quite confirme the mountains and the hils. 15 So let the tempest of thy wrath upon their necks be laid: And of thy stormie winde and shower, Lordmake them all atraid. 16 Lord bring them all, I thee defire, to fuch rebuke and thame, That it may cause them to enquire, and learn to know thy name. 17 And let them evermore daily to shame and slander fall: And in rebuke and obloquie to perifficke withall. 18 That they may know and fee full weil that thou art called Lord : And that alone thou dost excell and reigne throughout the world. PSAL. LXXXIIII. J.H. Tow pleafant is thy dwelling place, O Lord of hofts to me : The tabernacles of thy grace how pleasant, Lord, they be ? 2 My

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than:

As Zeba and Zalmana were, the Kings of Madian. My

a T

And

5 (

T

R

PSAL IXXXIII.

My foul doth long full fore to go into thy courts abroad:

My heart doth luft, my flesh also, in thee the living God.

The fparrows finde a room to reft, and fave themselves from wrong: And eke the swallow hath a nest wherein to keep her young.

4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to fit and fing:

O I ord of hosts, thou art, I say, my God and eke my King.

and

ft

5 O they be bleffed that may dwell within the honfe alwayes:
For they all times the facts do tell, and ever give thee praife.

8 Yea happie fure likewife are they whole stay and strength thou art:

Which do thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

7 As they go through the vale of teats.
they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pirs dost fill.
Efrom strength to strength they walk full no faintnesse there shall be: (fast,

And then the God of gods at last in Sion they do sec.

9 O Lord of hofts to me give heed, and hear when I do pray: And let it through thine ears proceed, O Jacobs God, I fay. Io O Lord our fhield of thy good grace regard and to draw near :

Regard, I fay, behold the face of thine anointed dear.

PSA E. IXXXV.

It For why? within thy courtsone day is better to abide,
Then other where to keep or stay,
a thousand dayes beside.

Much rather would I keep a doore within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickednesse to settle mine abode.

r: For God the Lord, light and defence, will grace and worthip give: And no good thing will he withhold from them that purely live.

14 O Lord of hosts, that man is bleft, and happie fure is he,

That is periwaded in his breft to trust all times in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV. J.H.

Thou hast been mercifull indeed, Q Lord, unto thy land: For thou restoredst Jacobs seed from thraldome out of band.

The wicked wayes that they were in, thou didn't them clean remit:

And thou didft hide thy peoples fin, full close thou coveredit it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst affwage, that all thy wrath was gone.

And fo did!t turn thee from thy rage, with them to be at oue.

4 O God our health do thou convert thy people unto thee:

Put all thy wrath from its apart, and angriccease to be.

5. Why, shall thine anger never end, but still proceed on us? And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?

6 Wile

shew

And

F

An

13

He

PSAL. Ixxxvi.

Wilt thou not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us, that we
And all thy folk may evermore be glad and joy in thee ?

7 O Lord, on us do thou declare thy goodneffe to our wealth; shew forth to us, and do not spare thine aid and saving health. I will heark what God faith, for he fpeaks to his people peace:

And to his faints, that never they return to foolidlinesse.

For why? his help is ftill at hand to fuch as do him fear: Whereby great glorie in the land thall dweh and flourith there.

to For truth and mercie there inall meet inone to take their place:

And peace thall justice with kiffe greet,
and there they shall embrace.

r As truth from earth thall fpring apaces and flourith pleafantly:

So righteoufnesse thall show her face, and look from heaven hie-

12 Yea God himself doth take in hand to give us each good thing: And through the coasts of all the land, the earth her fruits shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go much like a guid or stay: He shall direct his steps also, and keep them in the way,

PSAL. LXXXVI. J.H.

Ord bow thine ear to my request, and hear me by and by: With grievous pain and grief opprest full poore and weak am I.

2 Preferve

PSAL. IXXXVI. 2 Preferve my foul because my wayes and doings holy be: And fave thy servant, O my Lord, that puts his trost in thee.

0 10

12 T

And

13 F

Tho

1 0

The

Thy

Oh

17

And

Up

He

3 Thy mercie, Lord, on me expresse, defend me eke withall: For through the day I do not cease

For through the day I do not cease on thee to crie and call

4 Comfort, O Lord, the fervants foul, that now with pain is pin'd: For unto thee, Lord, I extoll and lift my foul and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free: And eke thy mercie plentifull to all that call on thee. O Lord likewife when I do pray, regard and give an ear:

Mark well the words that I do fay,
and all my prayers hear.

7 Intime when trouble doth me move to thee I do complain: For why? I know and wel do prove thou answerest me again.

8 Among the gods, O Loid, is none with thee to be compared:

And none can do as thou alone

And none can do as thou alone, the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

The Gentiles and the people all, which thou didft make and frame; Before thy face on knees shall fall, and glorifie thy name.

all power is thine own:

Thou workest wonders still in fight, for thou art God alone.

II O teach

PS A E. IXXXVII.

It O teach me Lord, the way, and I thall in the truth proceed:

O joyn me heart to thee fo nigh that I thy name may dreed.

It To thee, my God will I give praise, with all my heart, O Lord:

And glorifie thy name alwayes for ever through the world.

13 For why? the mercie shewd to me

Thou fetst my foul at libertie out of the lower hell:

out of the lower hell:

1. O Lord, the proud against me rise; and heaps of men of might:

They feek my foul, and in no wife will have thee in their fight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek, full flack and flow to wrath: Thy goodneffe is full great, and eke thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turn to me, and mercie grant,
thy strength to me apply:

O help and fave thine own fervant, thy handmaids fon am I.

17 On me fome figue of favour fhew; that all my foes may fee, And be afham'd because, Lord, thou dost help and comfort me.

PSAL. LXXXVII. J.H.

Hat citie shall full well endure, her ground work still doth stay Upon the holy hills full sure, it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion belt, his grace doth there abide: He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

ch

2 Full

PSAL. IXXXVIII.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad:
Great things, I fay, are faid of thee, thou citie of our God.

4 On Rahab I will caft an eye, and bear in minde the fame:
And Babylon shall eke apply and learn to know my name.

5 Lo,Palestine and Tyre alfo, with Ethiope likewise,
A people old, full long ago

with Ethiope likewife,
A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rife.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad, that divers men of fame,
Have there sprung up and the high God hath founded fast the fame.

7 In their records to them it shall, through Gods device appeare:
Of Sion that the chief of all had his beginning there.
8 The trumpeters with such as sing, therein great plentie be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs are compast all in thee.

PSALLXXXVIII. J.H.

Cord God of health, the hope and flay
thou art alone to me:
I call and crie throughout the day
and all the night to thee, 2 Olet my prayer foon afcend unto thy fight on hie: Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend, and hearken to my crie.

For why? with wo my heart is fild, and doth in trouble dwell? My life and breath almost doth yeeld, and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am

An

The

7 Y

In

I 2

Th

II

Sha

Or

PSAL. lxxxviii,

I am esteemd as one of them,
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remain : It were more ease for me to be with them the which are flain.

6 As those that be in grave, I fay, whom thou hast clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cur away.

and thou regardst them not.

7 Yez like to one flut up full fure within the lower pit: In places dark and all obfeure, and in the depth of it.

S Thine anger and thy wrath like wife full fore on me doth lie:

And all thy stormes against me rife, my soul to vex and trie.

9 Thou putst my friends far off from me, and mak'ft them hate me fore:

I am that up in prison fast, and can come forth no more.

Io My fight doth fail through grief and we I call to thee O God: Throughout the day my hands also

The (ccond part.

Ir Doft thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?

Shall dead again to life repair,
and praife thee for the fame?

Ta Or shall thy loving kindnesse, Lord,
be preached in the grave:
Or shall with them that are destroid thy truth her honour have?

I; shall

ps AI. lxxxix.

13 Shall they that lie in darkneffe low of all thy wonders wot?

Or there that they thy justice know where all things are forgot?

14 But I,O Lord, to thee alwayes do crie and call apace: My prayer eke ere it be day thal come before thy face.

x5 Why doft theu, Lord, abher my foul in grief that feeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why doft thou hide thy face away from me?
x6 I am afflict as dying ftill from youth this many a year?
The terrours which do yex me ill.

withtroubled minde I bear.

7 The furies of thy wrathfull rage full fore upon me fall:

Thy terrours eke do me affwage, and me suppresse withall.

18 Allday they compasse me about as water at the tide:

And all at once with streames full flour befet me on each fide.

To Thou fetst me far off from my friends,

Yea, and lovers every one:
Yea, and my old acquaintance all out of my fight are gone.

PSALLXXXIX. J. H.

Ofing the mercies of the Lord,
nry tongue shall never spare,
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.
2 For I have said, that mercie shall for evermore remain:
In that thou dost the heavens stay thy truth appeareth plain.

My

To mine elect, faith God, I made a covenant and beheft: My fervant David to perswade,

I fwore and did protest.

4 Thy feed for ever I will stay and stablish it full fast:

And still uphold thy throne alway

And still uphold thy throne alway from age to age to last:

5 The heavens thew with joy and mirth thy wondrous works, O Lord:

Thy faints within thy church on earth thy faith and truth record.

Who with the Lord is equal then in all the clouds abroad?

Among the fons of all the gods what one is like our God?

7 God in affembly of the faints is greatly to be droad:

And over all that dwell about interrour to be had.

8 Lord God of hofts in all the world what one is like to thee?

On every fide most mightie Lord, thy truth is seen to be.

9 The raging fea by thine advice thou rulestat thy will:

And when the way is thereofarife thou mak'st them calm and still.

no And Fgypt. Lord thou haft subdued, and thou hast it destroid:

Yea thou thy foes with mightie arme haft scattered all abroad.

The feemed part.

It The heavens are thin, & ftill have been, likewife the earth and land: The world and all that is therein thou foundest with thy hand.

12 Both

ds.

PS A.L. IXXXIX.

12 Both north and fouth with east & west,
thy self did make and frame:
Both Tabor mount and eke Hermon rejoyce and praise thy name.

12 Thine arme is strong and full of power,

all might therein doth lie:
The ftrength of thy right hand each houre,
thou liftest up on hie.

14 In righteousnette and equitie thou hast thy feat and place: Mercie and truth are fish with thee, and go before thy face.

25 That folk is bleft that knowes aright thy prefent power, O God: For in the favour of thy fight they walk full fate abroad.

16 For in thy name throughout the day they joy and much rejoyce:
 And through thy righteou finesse have they a pleasant fame and noise.

17 For why? their glorie, ftrength, and aid, in thee alone doth lie:

Thy goodnesse eke that hath us staid, thall lift our horn on hie.

18 Our ftrength that doth defend us well, the Lord to us doth bring: The holy One of Ifrael he is our guidand King.

in visions thou didst flow:

And thus then didst thou shew to them thy minde to make them know:

to A man of might I have erect your King and guid to be: And fet him up whom I elect among the folk to me.

The

22

Ar

25

An

An

27

My

28

Hi

29

My

P S A L. IXXXIX.

The third part.

I My servant David I appoint, whom I have searched out:
And with my holy oil annoint him king of all the rout.

For why? my hand is ready still with him for to remain:
And with mine arme also I will him strengthen and sustain.

The enemies shall not him oppresse,
they shall not him devoure:
No yet the sons of wickeduesse on him shall have no power.

24 His foes likewife I will destroy before his face in fight: And those that hate him I will plague and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercie eke withall fhall still upon him lie: And in my name his horn eke shall be listed up on hie.

26 His kingdome I will fet to be upon the fea and land:

đ,

11.

ha

And eke the running flouds shall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart on me, and thus shal fay:

My Father and my God, thou art my rock of health and stay.

28 As my first-born I will him take of all on earth that springs:

His might and honour I will make above all worldly things.

29 My mercie shall be with him still, as I my self have told:

My faithfull covenant to fulfill, my mercie I will hold.

20 And

PS AT. Ixxxix. 20 And eke his feed I will fustait for ever ftrong and fure: So that his feat thall ttill remain while heaven doth endure. The fourth part. at If that his fons forfake my law. and fo begin to fwerve: And of my judgements have none aw. nor will not them observe: 32 Or if they do not use aright my statutes to them made : And fet all my commandments light, and will not keep my trade. 33 Then with the rod will I begin their doings to amend: And fo with fcourging for their fin, when that they do off nd. 3 + My mercie yet and my goodnesse I will not take him to: Nor handle him with craftineffe, and fo my truth for go. 35 But fure my covenant I will hold ith all that I have fpoke : No word the which my lips have told al alter or be broke. 35 On fivare I by my holineffe, and that perform will I: With David I will keep promise, to him I will not lie. 37 His feed for evermore flul raigne, and eke his throne of might : As doth the fun it that remain for ever in my fight. 38 And as the moon within the fkie for ever ftandeth faft, A faithfull witnesse from on hie, to thall his kingdome laft.

Yes

40

And

Tho

And

PS AL. lxxxix.

39 But now, O Lord, thou doest reject, and now thou changest chear:
Yea thou ar wrath with thine cleat, thine own anointed dear.

40 The covenant with thy fervant made, Lord, thou haft quite undone:

And down upon the ground also hast cast his royall crown.

The fifth part.

41 Thou pluckst his hedges up with might, his wals thou dost contound:

Thou beat-ft eke his bulwarks down, and breakft them to the ground.

42 That he is fore deftroid and torn of comers-by throughout:

And fo is made a lock and fcorn to all that dwell about.

43 Thou their right hand haft lifted up that him fo fore annoy:

And all his foes that him devoure, lo, thou half made to joy.

44 His twords edge thou doft take away that should his foes withstand:

To him in war no victorie thougivest nor upper hand-

His glorie thou doft alfowafte, his throne, his joy and mirth,

By the is overthrown, and caft full low upon the earth.

From haft cut off and made full fhore his young and luftle dayes:

and rais'd of him an ill report with thame and great dispease.

7 How long away from me,O Lord, for ever wilt thou turn? and shall thine anger still alway as fire confirme and burn?

48 O call

PSAL. XC. 48 O call to minde, remember then, my time consumeth faft: Why haft thou made the fons of men as things in vain to wafte?

49 What man is he that liveth here, and death shall never fee? Or from the bands of hell his foul shall be delivered free ? 50 Where is, O Lord, thine old goodneffe fo of: declar'd beforn? Which by thy truth and uprightnesse to David thou haft fworn.

51 The great rebuke to minde I call that on thy fervants lie: The railing of the people all born in my breaft have I.

52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies blasphemed have thy name:

The steps of thine announted One they cease not to defame.

All praise to thee O Lord of hofts, both now and eke for ave : Through fkie and earth, and all the coals Amen, Amen, I fay.

PSAL. XC. J. H. Hou Lord haft been our fure defent our place of ease and reft : In all times past, yea fo long fince, as cannot be exprest:

2 Ere there was made mountain or hill, tet of the earth and world abroad:

From age to age and alwayes still, for ever thou art God.

3 Thou grindft man through grief and pa to dust or clay, and then :

And then thou fayft again, return again ye fons of men.

sye

So

Wh

15

an ort

01 of

W

The u tho

pri

thy

the yea

and Durt

tha

he fe

the s and N'ho

wha

2660 n his minio

WC

For the

PSAL. xc. The lafting of a thousand years, what is it in thy fight? syetterday it doth appear. or as a watch by night. So foon as thou doft fcatter them, then is their life and trade: as a fleep, and like the graffe whole beautie foon dothfade. Which in the morning thines full bright but fadeth by and by: and is cut down ere it be night, and withered, dead and drie. For through thine anger we confume, our might is ioon decaid: and of thy fervent wrath and fume we are full fore afraid. The wicked works that we have wrought thou fett before thine eve : privie faults yea eke our thoughts thy countenance doth ipie. For through thy wrath our daies do waste thereof doth nought remain : coaft years confume like words or blafts, and are not cald again. Our time is three score years and ten that we do live on mold : efend the fee fourescore, surely then we count him wondrous old. The Second part. hill, wet of this time the ftrength and chief the which we count apon, s nothing else but painfull grief, and we as blafts are gone. Nho once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath: (there, in his heart who doth thee fear according to thy wrath?

13 Instruct

PSAL. xci.

r3 Instruct us Lord to know and trie how long our dayes remain, That then we may our hearts apply true wisedome to attain.

14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed? Shew favour to thy fervants now, and help them at their need.

15 Refresh us with thy mercies soon, and then our joy shall be All times so long as life shal last, in heart rejoyce that we.

16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:

And for the years, wherein full fore

17 O let thy works and power appear, and on thy fervants light:

And they unto thy children dear thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord let the grace and glorie stand on us thy lervants thus:

Confirm the works we take in hand and prosper them to us.

PSAL. XCI. J. H.

He that within the fecret place of God most high doth dwell, In shadow of the mightieft grace, at rest shall keep him well.

Thou art my hope and my strong hold I to the Lord will sav:

My God is he in him will I my whole affiance stay.

a' He shall defend thee from the frare the which the hunter laid: And from the readly plague and care whereof thou are agraid.

4

11

Th

PSAL. xci. & And with his wings thall cover thee, and keep thee tafely there :. His faith and truth thy fence shall be. as fure as thield and spear. So that thou fhalt not need, I fay, to fear or be affright, of all the thates that fire by day. nor terrours of the night. o Nor of the plague that privily doth walk in dark to taft: Nor yet of that which doth deftrov. and at noon day doth wafte. 7 Yea, at thy fide as thou doft ftand. a thousand dead thall be: Ten rhousand eke at thy right hand, and yet fhalt thou be free, 8 Bur thou falt feeit for thy part, thine eyes that well regard : That even like to their deterts the wicked have reward. 9 For why? O Lord, I only luft to flay my hope on thee: And in the Highest I put my trust, my fure defence i he. To Thou thalt not need none ill to fear, with thee it shall not mell : Nor yet the plague thall once come near the house where thou doft dwell. It For why? unto his angels all with charge commanded he. That it il in all thy wayes they thall preferve and profper thee: 12 And in their hands thall bear thee up.

still waiting thee upon:

So that thy foot that never chance to fourn at any stone.

re Upon

and ce vell,

ng ho

finare

d care

PSAL. xeii. Te Upon the lions thou thalt go. the adder fell and long: And tread upon the lions young. with dragons frout and ftrong-MA For he that trufteth unto me I will dispatch him quite : And him defend, because that he doth know my name aright. Is When he for help on me doth crie an answer I will give : And from his grief take him will I, in glorie for to live. 36With length of years & dayes of wealth I will fulfill his time: The goodnesse of my faving health I will declare to him.

PSAL. XCII. J.H.

IT is a thing both good and meet to praise the highest Lord : And to thy name, O thou most High. to fing with one accord. 2 To fhew the kindnesse of the Lord betime ere day be light : And eke declare his truth abroad when it doth draw to night.

2 Upon ten ftringed inftruments. on lute and harp fo iweet: With all the mirth you can invent of inftruments most meet.

For thou haft made me to rejoyce in things fo wrought by thee: And I have joy in heart and voice thy handy works to fee.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great are all thy works fo front ? So deeply are thy counfels fet that none can trie them out.

The

II

of 12

An

Wi

14 /

And

PSAL. xcii.

The man unwife hath not the wich this gear to passe to bring:
And all such fools are nothing fit to understand this thing.

When as the wicked at their will as graffe do spring full fast: They when they flourish in their ill for ever shall be waste. 8 But thou art mighted, nord most high yea thou doft raigne therefore:

In every time etern lly,
both now and evermore.

9 For why ? O Lord, behold and fee, behold they toes, I lay:
How all that work iniquitie fluil perith and decay.
10 But thou like as an unicorn that lift my born on hier.

that lift my born on hier With fresh and new prepared oil thine ointed King am I.

II And of my foes before mine eyes thall fee the fall and thame of all that up against merite, mine ear thall hear the fame.

12 The just thal flourish up on hie,
as date-trees bud and blow:

And as the cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.

The

13 For they are planted in the place and dwelling of our God: Within his courts they fpring apace, and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age much fruit shal bring, both fat and well befeen:

And pleafantly both bud and fpring with boughs and branches green.

1 2

. T

PSAL. xciii. xciiii. 25 To shew that God is good and just, and upright in his will:

He is my rock, my hope and trust, in him there is none ill.

PSAL XCIII. J. H.

The Lord as King aloft doth raigne with glorie goodly dight:

And he to thew his strength and main,

hath girt himfelf with might.

The Lord likewise the earth hath made,

and thaped it fo fure:
No might can make it move or fade,
at flay it doth endure.

Ere that the world was made or wrought thy f at was fet before:

Beyond all times that can be thought thou haft been evermore.

4 The flouds, O Lord, the flouds do rife,

The flouds, I tay, did enterprise and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea though the ftorms appear in fight, though feas do rage and fwell: The Lord is ftrong and more of might,

for he on high doth dwell.

6 And look what promife he doth make his houshold to defend:

For just and true they shall it take all times withouten end.

PSAL. XCIIII. J.H.

O Lord thou doft revenge all wrong, that office long to the : Sith vengeance doth to the belong, declare that all may fee.

Set forth thy felf, for thou of right the earth dost judge and guid:

Reward

Ag:

T

hs

Cal

II

PS A L. xciiii.

eward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

How long thall winked men bearfy

How long thall wicked men bearfway with lifting up their voice?
ow long thall wicked men, i fay,
that triumph and rejoyce?
How long that they with brags burft out,
and proudly poate their fill?
hall they rejoyce that be fo itout, whose works are ever ill?

Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage they spoil and vex full fore:

against thy people they do rage still daily more and more.

The widows which are comfortlesse, and strangers they destroy:

they slay the children fatherlesse, and none doth put them by.

de,

ht

And when they take these things in hand, this talk they have of thee? an Jacobs God this unde stand? tush no he cannot see O folk unwise, and people rude, some knowledg, now differn;

le fools among the multitude at length begin to learn.

The Lord which made the ear of man he needs of right must hear: Hemade the eye, all things must then before his fight app ar.

The Lord doth all the woold correct, and make them understand: Shall he not then your deeds actect, how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

It The Lord doth know the thoughts of his hearths secth full plain: (man,

4 Th

PSAL. xciii.
The Lord, I say, mens thoughts doth I can, and find them but vain.

12 But Lord that man is happie fure whom thou doft keep in aw,
And through correction doft procure to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest, in time of trouble sit: When wicked menthal be supprest, and fall into the pit.

14 For fure the Lord will not refuse his people for to take:

His heritage whom he did chufe
he will no time forfake.

15 Untill that judgement be decreed to juffice to convert: That all may follow her with speed.

that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the curfed train:

Or who thall rid me from their hand that wicked works maintain?

27 Except the Lord had been mine aid mine enemies to repell

My foul and life had now been laid almost as low as hell.

18 When I did f.y, My foot did flide, I now am like to fall:

Thy goodnesse Lord did so provide to stay me up withall.

19 When with my felf I mused much, and could no comfort finde: Then Lordthy goodnesse did m touch, and that did ease my minde.

20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy felf, and draw with wicked men to fit:

Which

PSAL. xcv.
Which with pretence in flead of law much mischief do commit?

If For they consent against the life of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are rife to shed the guiltlesse bloud.

2 But yet the Lord he is to me a strong defence or lock:

fcan,

ď

d

1

d

d

ch.

raw

Vhich

He is my God to him I flee, he is my strength and rock.

3 And he flial cause their mischief all themselves for to annoy: nd in their malice they shal fall, our God shal them destroy.

PSAL XCV. J. H.

Come let us lift up our voice and fing unto the Lord: him our rock of health rejoyce, let us with one accord. Yea let us come before his face to give him thanks and practe: finging pialmes unto his grace let us be glad alwayes.

For why? the Lord he is, no doubt, a great and mightie God:
King above all (.ods throughout in all the world abroad.
The fecrets of the earth fo deep, and corners of the land:
e tops of hills that are fo freep

he hath them in his hand.

The fea and waters all are his,

for he the fame hath wrought :
he earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of nought.

Is 6Come

PSAL. xcvi

6 Come let us bow and praife the Lord, before him let us fall: And kneel to him with one accord,

the which hath made usall.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God, for us he doth provide:
We are his flock he doth us feed, his sheep, and he our guid.
8 To day if ye his voice will hear,

As ye with grudging many a year provokt him in defart.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me my power for to prove: My wondrous works when they did fee Be yet still they would me move.

8

To Twife twenty years they did me gries and I to them did fay: They erre in heart, and not beleeve, they have not known my way.

was kindled in my breaft:
That they should never tread the path to enter in my rest.

PSAL. XCVI. J.H.

Sing ye with praife unto the Lord new fongs with joy and mirth a sing unto him with one accord all people on the earth-2 Yea, fing unto the Lord, I say, wratte we has holy name:

pratte ye his holy name: Declare and thew from day to day falvation by the fame.

Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about: PSAL. xcvi.

To she w his wonders do not spare in all the world throughout.

4 For why? the Lord is much of might, and worthy praise alway?

And he is to be dread of right above all gods, I (ay.

ord,

d,

ne

d fee,

griev

th

5 For all the gods of heathen folk are idols that will fade: But yet our God he is the Lord

But yet our God he is the Lord that hath the heavens made.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell for aye b fore his face: Both power and might likewise excell within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway

All might and worthip eke, I fay,

8 Afcribe unto the Lord also the glory of his name:

And eke unto his courts do go with gifts unto the iame.

The second part.

o Fall down and worship ye the Lord within his templ bright:

Let all the people of the world be fearfull at his fight.

To Tell all the world, be not agast,

Yea he hath fet the earth fo fast that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might ? To judge the nations every one with equity and right.

Ta The

. PSAL. xevii.

12 The heavens shall great joy begin,
the earth eke shall rejovce:
The fea with all that is therein shall shout and make a noise.

13 The field shal joy, and every thing that springeth on the earth:
The wood and every tree that sing with gladnesse and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord.

and coming of his might.
When he shal justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

PSAL. XCVII. I.N.

THe Lord doth raigne, whereat the earth may joy with pleasant voice:
And eke the Iles with joyfull mirth may riumph and rejoyce.

2 Both clouds and darknetle eke do fwell, and round about him beat:

Yea right and justice ever dwell and bide about his seat.

3 Yea fire and heat at once do run and go before his face : Which shall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.

His lightnings eke full bright did bla

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze, and to the world app ar:

Whereat the earth did look and gaze with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hils like wax did melt in fight and presence of the Lord: They fled before that Rulers might, which guideth all the world.

The heavens eke declare and thew his justice all abroad:

That all the world may fee and know the glorie of our God.

7 Confusion

An

And

For

Great

D Y

or he his Vith I

he

W

nd ge

PS AL. xeviii.
7 Confusion sure that come to such as worthin idols vain:
And cke to chole that glorie much dumb pictures to maintain:
For all the idols of the world which they as gods do call:
Shall feel the power of the Lord, and down to him shall fall.

8 With joy did $ ion hear this thing, and Judah did rejoyce: And at thy judgements they did fing, and make a pleafant notice, 9 For thou, O Lord, art fit on hie in all the earth abroad:

And art exalted wondroufly above each other God.

to All ye that love the Lord do this,
Hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the fouls of his from fuch as would them fpill.
It And light doth fpring up to the just with pleasure for his part:
Steat joy with gladuesse, mirth and lust.

to them of upright heart.

Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce, his holinesse proclaim; thankfull eke with heart and voice, and mindefull of the same.

PSAL. XCVIII. J.H.

Sing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleafant fong:
For he hath wrought throughout 5 world his wonders great and itrong:
With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devoure:
ad get himself the victorie

With his own arm and power.

fulion

h

11, ze,

PS'AL. xcix.

The Lord doth make his people know his faving health and might:

The Lord doth eke his justice thew in all the heathens fight.

His grace and truth to ifrael in minde he doth r cord:

That all the earth nath feen right well the goodnede of the Lord.

4 Re glad in him with joyfull voice all people of the earth:

Give thanks to God, fing and rejoyce to him with joy and mirth.

give thanks to him with pfalmes.

6 Rejoyce before the Lord our King with trumpets and with thalmes.

7 Yea let the fea with all therein with joy both roar and fwell:
The earth likewife let it begin with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the flouds rejoyce their fils, and clap their hands apace:

And eke the mountains and the hils, before the Lord his face.

 For he shall come to judge and trie the world and every wight;
 And rule the people mightily with justice and with right.

PrS A I. X C I X. J.-I.

The Lord doth reigne, although at it
the people rage full fore:

Yea he on Cherubins doth fit though all tho world do roar.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell is high and wondrous great : Above all folk he doth excell, and and he aloft is fet. PSAL. c.
3 Let all men praife thy mighty name, for it is fearfull fure:
And et them m guifie the fame that holy is and pure.
4 That princely power of our King

4 That princely power of our King doth love judgement and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing in Jacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our Goddevise, all honour to him do: Before his footstood worship him, for he is holy too.

6 Moles, Aaron and Samuel, as prietts on him did call:

When they did pray he heard them well, and gave them answer all.

7 Within the clouds to them he spake, then did they labour still To keep tuch Leves as he did in the

To keep tuch Is vesashe did make, and pointed them untill.

8 O Lord our God thou didft them hear, and anfweredft them again: Thy metric did on them appear, their deeds didft not maintain.

9 Give laud and praise to God our Lord within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever ftill.

PSAL. C. J.H.

A Ll people that on earth do dwell, fing to the Lord with chearfull voices Him ferve with fear, his praife forth tell, come ye before him and rejoyce.

? The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make: PSAL C.

We are his flock, he doth us feed, and for his sheep he doth us take.

4 O enter then his gates with praife, approch with joy his courts unto a Praife, laud, and bieffe his name alwayes, for it is feemly fo to do.

T

In

An

8 B

Tha

3 In

o Inc

For a

a An

And w

By

Ast

H

5 For why? the Lord our God is good, his mercie is for ever fure: His truth at all times firmly stood, and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

IN God the Lord be glad and light, praise him throughout the earth: Serve him and come before his sight with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is, he did us make and keep: Not we our felves, for we are his own flock and pasture theep.

3 O go into his gates alwayes, give thanks within the fame: Within his courts fet forth his praife, and laud his holy name.

4 For why? the goodnesse of the Lord for eveniore doth raigne: From age to age throughout the world his truth doth still remain.

PSAL. CI. J.H. Mercie will and judgement fing,

O Lord God anto thee:
2 And wifely do in perfect way
untill thou come to me.
And in the midft of my honse walk in purenesse of my spirit.

And I no kinde of wicked thing will fet before my fight.

4 I hate

PSAL. cii.

I hate their works that fall away, it shall not clave tome:

From me fhall part the froward heart, none evil will I fee.

5 Him will I ftroy that flandereth his nighbour privily:

The loftie heart I cannot bear, nor him that looketh hic.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them within the land that faithfull be: In perfect way who walketh shall

7 I will no guilfull person have within my house to dwell :

And in my prefence he thall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all the wicked of the land: That I may from Gods citie cut the wicked workers hand.

PSAL CII. J.H.

Hear my prayer Lord, and lee my crie come ento thee: In time of trouble do not hide thy face away from me. Incline thine ear to me, make haft to hear me when I call:

For as the fmoke doth fade, fo do my dayes confume and fall.

And as a harth my bones are burne, my heart is finition dead: And withers like the graffe that I forget to eat my bread. By reafon of my groning voice my bones cleave to my ikin:

As Pelican in wilderneise fuch case now am I in.

PSAL. cii.

And as an owl in defart is, lo,1 am fuch a one 7 Iwatch, and as a sparrow on the house top am alone.
8 Lo, daily in reprochfull wise mine enemies do me scorne?
And they that do against me rage, against me they have sworn.
9 Sur ly with ashes as with bread
my hunger I have fild:
And mingled have my drink with tears,
that from mine eyes have stild.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy dissan;

For thou halt lifted me aloft,

and caft me down again.

In The dayes wherein I paffe my life are fleeting like the lhade:

And I am withered like the graffe that foon away doth fade.

Page 22 But thou O I ord, for ever doft remain in fleady place:

And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

13 Thou wilt arife, and mercie thou to 5 ion wilt extend:
The time of mercie, now the time for fet is come to end.

14 For even in the stones thereof thy fervants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their spirit.

15 Then shall the heathen people fear the Lords most holy name: Andall the Kings on earth shall dread thy glorie and thy fame.

16 Then

nd

and

TI

tl

My

th

My

n

tro

hy ye.

nd ih

PSAL. cii.

To Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion tear:

And then when he most nobly in his glorie shall appear:

7 To prayer of the defolate, when he himself doth bend; When he doth not distain unto their prayers to attend.
8 This shall be writt u for the age that after shall fucced; The people yet uncreated the Lords renown shall spread.

hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
below the earth alfo.

That of the mourning captive he might bear the wofull clie:
and that he might delive those that damned are to die.

That they in sion may declare the Lords most holy name and in letting letting for the lords most holy name.

the praifes of the fame.

Then when the people of the lands, and kingdomes with accord

all be all inbled for to do their fervice to the Lord.

The third part.

My former force of ftrength he hath abated in the way:
ad inorter us did cut my dayes, thus I therefore did tay:
My God, in midth of all my dayes now take me not away:

from age to age for aye.

25 Thou

Then

d

PSAL. ciii. 25 Thou the foundation of the earth before all times haft laid : And Lord the heavens are the work which thine own hands have made.

26 Yea they shall perish and decay, but thou fhalt tarry ftill : And they shall all in time wax old.

even as a garment will.

27 Thou as a garment shalt them change, and chang d shall they be : But thou doft still abide the same, thy years do never flee. 28 The children of thy fervants shall continually endure:

And in thy fight their happie feed for ever thal stand fure.

PSAL. CIII. T.S.

Y foul give land unto the Lord, my fpirit shall do the same : And all the fecrets of my heart praise ye his hely name.

2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts. thew not thy felf unkinde; And fuffer not his benefits to flip out of thy minde.

3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults, and thee reftor'd again : For all thy weak and frail difeafe, and heald thee of thy pain.

. That did redeem thy life from death, from which thou couldft not flee: His mercie and compassion both he did extend to thee.

That fild with goodnesse thy desire, and did prolong thy youth : Like as the eagle cafts her bill, whereby her age renewth.

Th

No

o N

or 15 t G

fai

An

re p 28

The

WW

ou

2110

PSAL ciii. 6 The Lord with juffice doth repay all fuch as be oppreft: so that their fuffrings and their wrongs are turned to the beft. 7 His wayes and his commandements to Mofes he did fhow: His counfels and his valiant acts the Ifraelites did know. R The Lord is kinde and mercifull when finners do him grieve : The flowest to conceive a wrath, and readieft to forgive.

ge,

5.

alts.

ath.

flee:

lefits

6 The

He chidesnot us continually though we be full of ftrife: Nor keeps our faults in memorie for all our finfull lite. Nor yet according to our fins the Lord doth us regard : for after ona iniquities he doth us not reward. But as the space is wondrous great twixt earth and heaven above: is his goodnesse much more large to them that do him love.

God doth remove our fins from us, and our offences all,

far as is the fun rifing, full diftant from his fall.

The second part.

And look what pitie parents dear unto their children bear : ke pitie beareth God to fuch as worthip him in fear. The Lord that made us knows our thape our mould and fashion just : w weak and frail our nature is, and how we be but duft.

IS And

PSA L. ciii.

15 And how the time of mortall men is like the withering hay: Or like the flower right fair in field that fade full foon away.

do utterly diffrace:

And mak that after their affault fuch bloffomes have no place.

17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord with his shall ever stand: Their childrens children do receive his righteon shelden dand.

18 I mean which keep his covenant with all their whole ceffre:

And not forget to do the thing that he doth them require.

19 The heavens high are made the feet and footifuol of the Lord,

And by his power imperial!
he governs all the world.

20 Ye angels which are great in power, praife ye and bieffe the Lord,

Which to obey, and do his will, immediately accord.

21 Ye noble hofts and ministers céase not to laud him still; Which ready are to execute his pleasure and his will. 22 Yea all his works in every place, praife ye his holy name:

My heart, my minde, and eke my foul,
praife ye also the same.

PSAL CIIII. W.K.

1

M foul praise the Lord, fpeak good of his name:
O Lord, our great God, how dost thou appear?

PSAL ciiii.
So paising in glorie,
that grat is thy fame:
Honour and majette
in thee thine most clear.
With light as a rob
thou haft thee beelad, Whereby all the earth thy greatnesse may see:
The heavens in such fort thou also hast spread, That it to a curtain compared may be.

Wind

rd

he feat power,

td,

lace,

y foul,

.K.

3 His chamber beams lie in the clouds full fure: Which as his chariots are made him to bear,

And there with much fwiftness his course doth endure:

upon the wings riding of windes in the air.
4 He maketh his fpirits

as heraults to go:
And lightning to ferve,
we fee also pr ft:

His will to accomplish
they run to and fro
To fave or continue things,

as feemeth him beft.

5 He groundeth the earth

fo firmly and fast:
That it once to move none thall have fuch power the deep a fair covering for it made thou haft:

Which by his own nature
the hils would devoure.

7 But at thy rebuke the waters do flie:

And

PS A L. citii.

And fo give due place
thy word to obey:

At thy voice of thunder fo fearfull they be: That in their great raging

That in their great raging they halte toon away.

8 The mountains full hie they than up afcend:

If thou do but speak thy word they fulfill. So likewise the valies most quickly descend:

Where thou hem appointest remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou haft fet how far they fhal run:

So as in their age not paffe it they can:

For God hath appointed
they shall not return,
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man,

The second part.

to He fendeth the fprings to strong streams or lakes:
Which run do tull swift among the huge hils.

their thirst oft times slakes :

And beafts of the mountains thereof drink their fils. 12 By thete pleafant springs or fou tains full fair:

The fowls of the aire abide that and dwell:

Who moved by nature to hop here and there

Among

16

8

And

97

The

The c o W

t

by

PSAL. ciiii.

Among the green branches their fongs shal excell.

13 The mountains to moist the clouds he doth use :

The earth with his works are wholy repleat.

are wholy repleat.

he doth not refuse,

But graffe doth provide them, and herb for mans meat-

15 Yea read wine, and oil, he made for mans fake :

His face to refresh, and heart to make strong.

this great Lord did make :

Which trees he doth nourish that grow up so long.

17 In thefe may birds build, and make there their neft;

in fir-trees the ftorks remain and abide.

8 The high hils are fuccours for wilde goats to reft:

And eke the rocks fronte

for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is fet her feafons to run : The dayes from the nights

ther by to differn:

And by the descending

alfo of the fun: The cold from heat alway thereby do we learn.

When darknesse doth come by Gods will and power:

hen creep forth do all the beafts of the wood.

Among

PS A L. ciiii.

their proy to devoure:
But yet it is thou Lord which givest them food.

22 As foon as the fun is up they retire:

To couch in their dens,
then are they full fain:

as right doth require:

Till night come and call him to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How fundrie, O Lord, are all thy works found! With wifedome full great they are indeed wrough &C So that the whole world

So that the whole world of thy praise doth sound:

And as for thy riches, they passe all mens thought.

25 So is the great fea which large is and broad:

Where things that creep Iwarm, and beafts of each fort.

26 There both mightie thips fail, and fome lie at rode:

The whale huge and monstrous there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait, thou don't them relieve: And thou in due time full well doft them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee

the fame for to give: They gather full gladly those things that they need.

The

PSAT. citif.
how openest thine hand,
and they finde such grace, at they with good things are fill develope.
But fore are they troubled sit non-turn thy face; are fill on their breath take vile duit then they be.

Again, when the Spirit from the doth proceed, things to appoint. and what thall enfue: en are they or ated asthou ha't decr ed : doo't by thy good reffe the drie earth rene .. The praise of the Lord tor ev r thall latt: to may in his works by right ell rejoyce. His Looks can the earth make to tremole full fart : d likewise the mountains to imoke at his voice.

To this Lord at d God fing will I alwayes: borg as I live my God practic will I. Then am I most certain my works thall him pleafe; will rejove in him, to him will I crie. The finarts, C Lord, co tume in thate ire: deke the precrie them root out with shame, as for my foul now, let it thild clire.

thee

d.

Ap

And fay with the faithfull, Praife ye the Lords name.

PS AL. CV. N.

Among the people eke declare his works to fpread his fame.
Sing ye unto the Lord, I fay, and fine upon his no ife.

and fing unto his proife:

And talk of all his wondrous works that he hath wrought alwayes.

3 In honour of his holy name rejoyce with one accord:
And let the heart also rejoyce of them that se k the Lord.
4 Seek we the Lord and seek the strength of his eternal might:
And seek his face continually,

and presence of his fight.

The wondrous works which he hath do

Ne let the judg ments of his mouth out of your minde depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham his fervant are the feed: Ye his alect, he children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he,he only is, I fay, the mightic Lord our God ? And his most rightfull juagements as through all the earth acroad.

8 His promife and his covenant which he hath made to his?

We hath remembred evermore to thousands of degrees,

PSAL. ev.

The second part.

The covenant which he hath made with Abraham long ago:
adfaithfull oath which he hath fworm to Ifaac alfo:
and did confirm the lame for laws that lacob fhould abov.

that Jacob should obey, and for eternal covenant, to Israel for aye.

Lord.

ne.

rks

ves.

Arenge

hath do

uth

id.

t When he thus faid, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance wherein your feed thall live.

Although their number at that time did very fmall appear, [eavery fmall, and in the land they then but firangers were.

While yet they walkt from land to land without a fure abode : and while from fundrie kingdomes they did wander all abroad.

4 And wrong at no oppreflours hands
he fuffered them to take:

ut even the great and mightie Kings reproved for their fake.

15 And thus he faid, Tonch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Nedo the prophets any harm that do pertain to me.
16 He cald a dearth upon the land of bread he spoild the store and bad feat a man before.

The third part.

to live a flave in wo:

Whole

PS AL. cv.

Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose south the irons pierst also.
18 Untill the time came when his cause was known apparently :

The mighty word of God the Lord, his faultleffe truth old trie.

19 The Kingfent and d livered him from prison wh re he was:

30 The ruler of the people then did freely let him paffe.

21 And over all his house he made him Lord to hear the fway: And of his substance made him have the rule and all the ftay.

That he might to his will inftruct the princes of the land: 'And wise domes lore his ancient men might couse to understand.

22 Then into the Egyptians land came if ael alto:

And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live affranger tho.

24 His prople he exceedingly in number made to flow:

And eve, all their enemis

25Whofe heart beturnd that they with hat his pople cid intrest:

And di his terva its vrongfully abufe with falle decrit.

The fourth part.

26 His faithfull fervant Moses then, and Aaron whom h chose:

He did command to go to them his message to disclose.

The wondrous meffage of his fignes among them he did show:

PSAL. cv. hofe for and wonders in the land of Ham, then did they work alfo. is cause 8 Darknesse he fent and made it dark rd. in ftead of brighter day : nd un to his commission they did not disobey. im o He turned their waters into bloud, he di their fittes flay. Their land brought frogs even in the where their King Pharaoh lay. ide He pake, and at his voice there came ave great iwarmes of noisome flies; and all the quarters of the land were fild with crawling lice. truct He give them cold and stonie hail in itead of milder rain : en An fire flames within their land he fent unto their pain. He smote their vines, and all their trees whereon their figs oid grow : Anda'l the trees with n their coafts down did he overthrow. the fpak then caterpillers did. and grafliopp is abound. W. 35 Which ate the graffe in all their land, with hat and fruit of all their ground. The fifth part. 36 The first begotten in their land eke deadly did he fmite: n, Ye, the b ginning and first fruit of all their itrength and might. 37 With gold and filver he them brought from Eg pt land to pafe: fignes And in the number of their tribes no techle one their was. And K 4 28 Egypt PSAL. cvi.

38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then when they did thense depart : For terrour and the fear of them was fall upon their heart.

a cloud he did display:

And fire he fent to give them light when night had hid the day.

They asked, and he caused quails to rain at their request:

And fully with the bread of heaven their hunger he represt.

41 He opened then the stonie rock, and waters gushed out :

And in the drie and parched grounds like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant aye mindefull was he tho. Which to his fervant Abraham he plighted long ago.

4: He brought his people forth with mirth and his el & with joy.

Out of the cruell land, where they had liv'd in gread annoy.

And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands:
The labours of the people cke

they took into their hands.

45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore:

And faithfully obey his laws, praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CVI. N.

PRaifeye the Lord, for he is good, his mercie dures for aye:
Who can expresse his noble acts.
or all his praise display?

2 The

P S A L. evi. e They bleffed are that judgement keep and juttly do alway. With favour of thy people, Lord, remember me, I pray And with thy faving health, O Lord, vouchlafe to vific me: That I the great felicitie of thine cleft may fee : And with thy peoples joy I may a joyfull minde pottelle : And may with thine inheritance a glogying heart expresse. Both we and eke our fathers all have finned every one : We have committed wickednesse, and lewdly we have done. The wonders great which thou, O Lord haft done in Egypt land: Dur fathers though they faw them all, yet did not underft and. Nor yet thy mercies multitude did keep in thankfullmindes But at the fea, yea the red fea, rebelled moft unkinde. Nevertheleffe he faved them for honour of his name: That he might make his power knows and ipread abroad his fame. The red sea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was dride : and as in wildernesse, so through the deep he did them guide. o He fav' dthem from the cruell hand of their despiteful foe: nd from the enemies hand he did deliver them alfo. The ig heat,

le

en

nda

h mirth

we ght

PSAL. cvi.

The second part.

It The waters their oppressours whelind, not one was left alive:

12 Then they believed his word, and praise in song they did him give.

And for his counfel and his will they did neglect to wait.

with fond and greedy fuft :
And in the defartt inpted God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton mindes defite, he suffred them to have:

But wasting leannesse therewithall into their fouls he gave.

at 4 f sthey did grutch:

Aaron the holy of the Lord to did they envie much.

17 Thereforeth: earth d.d open wide, and Dathan did devoure:

And all Ani ams companie did cover in that houre.

18 In their affembly kindled was the hote confuning fi e:

And wasting same did then burn up the wicked in his ire.

39 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol calf did frame:
And there the molten image they

And there the molten image they did worthip of the fame.

20 Into the likenesse of acals, which feedeth on the grasse ?
Thus they their g'orieturnd, and all their honour did deface,

PSAL. cvi.
21 And God their only Saviour unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighry things in Egypt land had wrought.

The third part.
22 And in the land of Ham, for them most wondrous things had done:
And by the red fea dreadfull things performed long agone.
22 Therefore for their to thewing them

helmd,

d praise defire, eir tent wide, ar And

forgetfull and unkinde :
To bring destruction on them all he purpos'd in his minde :

Had not his chosen Moses stood
b. fore him in the break, Toturn his wrath lest he on them with stught r should him wreak, they did despise the pleasant land that he behight to give:

Yes and the words that he had stooks

Yea and the words that he had fpoke they did no whit believe.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart they wickedly repin'd: Nor to the voice of God the Lord they gave an hearkning minde, 26 Therefore against them litted he his strong revenging hand: Them to destroy in wildernesse

27 And to deftroy their feed among the nations with his rod: And through the countries of the world to featter them abroad. 28 To Baal-Peor then they did ere they should fee the land.

adjoyn themselves also:
And eat the offrings of the dead,
so they for look him tho.

29 Thus

PSAL. cvi.

Thus with their own inventions his wrath they did provoke:

And in his fore inkindled wrath the plague udon them broke-

3. But Phinees ftood up with zeal
the finner vile to flay:

And judgement he did execute, and then the plague did flay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed unto him for righteousnesse that day? And from thenceforth so counted is from race to race for aye.

22 At waters eke of Meribah they did him angrie make ? Yea fo far forth that Mofes was rea fo far forth that Moles was then punisht for their lake.

33 Because they vext his spirit so fore, that in impatient heat

His lips spake unadvisedly, his feryour was so great.

34 Nor as the Lord commanded them, they flue the people tho:

2; But were among the heathen mixt, and learnd their works also.

36 And did their idols ferve, which were their ruin and decay:

37 To fiends their fons and daughters they did offer up and flay.

38 Thus with unkindly murdering kuife the guiltleffe bloud they spile:

Yea their own fons and daughters blond without all cause of guilt:

Whom they to Canaan idols then offred with wicked hand a

And so with bloud of innocents defiled was the land.

19 Thus

PSA L. evi.

79 Thus were they flained with the works of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions
awhoring sid they itray.

10 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled fore:

And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hatefull enemies oppress them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stong as subjects to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before.

But with their counfels they to wrath

But with their counfels they to wrath provokt hen evermore.

Therefore they by their wicke duesse were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he faw them in distresse.

he hearkned to their crie.

45 He cald to minde his covenant which he to them had fwore:

And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

46 And favour he them made to finde before the fight of those That led them captive from their land, when earlt they were their foes.

47 Save us, O Lord, that art our God, fave us, O Lord, we pray:
And from among the heathen folk,

Lord, gather us away:

48 That

ore, were they kuife nd

Thus

PSAL. cvii.

48 That we may spread the noble praise of the most holy name:

That we may glorie in thy praise and founding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the Cod of Head be bleft for evermore: Let all the peop e fay, Amen, pails we the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CVII. W.K.

Give thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:
And that his mercie hath no end

all mortall men may fee.

2 Such as the Lord rede med bath, with thanks that praife his name:

And thew how they from fo s were freed, and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands, that lay fo far about:

From eaft to weit, from north to fouth, his haud did finde them out.

4. They wandred in the wildernesse, and strayed from the way:

And found no citie where to dwell, that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great in these desarts so void, That faintnesse did them fore assault, and eke their fouls annoid.

Then did they crie in their diffresse unto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state

according as they praid.

7 And by that way which was most right, he led them like a guid: That they might to a city go, and there also abide.

& Let

PSAL. cvii. g Let men therefore before the Lord praise co fesse his goodnesse then : And shew the wonders that he doth before the fons of men. o For he the emptie foul fustaind. whom thirt had made to faint : The hungrie foul with goodnesse fed. and did them eke acquaint. 10Such as do dwell in darkneffe deep, where they on death do wait . God. Faft bound to tafte fuch troublous ftorms as iron chains do threat. The fecond vart. It For that against he Lords own words me e they fought for to rebell: freed. Efteeming light his coun els hie. which do fo far excell. 12 But when he humbled them full low, nds, they fell down flat with grief: And none was found fo much to help, th, whereby to get relief. 1: Then did they crie in their diftreffe unto the Lord for aid: Who did remove their troublous flate according as they praid. 14 For he from da knes out them brought reat and from deaths dreadfull shade: Burfting with force the iron bands which their before did lade. Is Let them therefore before the Lord confeste his kindnesse then : ate And he w the wonders that he doth before the fous of men. 16 For he threw down the gates of braffe, ght, and brake them with ftrong hand : The iron bars he fmote in two, nothing could him withstand. 17 The Let

PS A L. cvii. 17 The foolith fork great plagues do feel. and cannot from them wend t But heap on more to those they have. because they do offend. Their foul fo much did loath all meat. that none they could abide : Whereby death had them alm, it caught, as they full truly tride. Then did they crie in their diftreffe unto the Lord for aid : Who did remove their troublous state, according as they praid. 20 For he then fent to them his word, which health did toon restore : And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before. The third part. 21 Let mentherefore before the Lord confesse his kindnesse then : And thew the wonders that he doth before the tons of men. 22 And let them offer facrifice with thanks and also fear : And speak of all his wondrous works with glad and joyfull chear. 32 Such as in thips or brittle barks into the lea descend, Their merchandize through fearfull flouds to compatte and to end: 24 Those men are forced to behold the Lords work, what they be: And in the dangerous deep the fame most marvellous they ice. 25 For at his word the stormic winde ariseth in a rage : And stirreth up the furges fo as nought can them affwage.

27

As

20

So

20

A

36 Then

PSAL cvii. feel. 26 Then are they lifted up fo high. the clouds they feem to gain : And plunging down the depth untill their fouls confume with painicat. 27 And like a drunkard to and fronow here now there they reel: it, As men with fear of wit bereft. or had offense no feel. Te 28 Then did they crie in their diffreste unto the Lord for aid: te,

Who did remove their troublous fate. according as they praid.

20 For with his word the Lord doth make the flurdy ftormes to cease: So that the great waves from their rage are brought to rest and peace.

to Then are men glad when rett is come, which they fo much did crave: And are be him in haven brought,

which they fo fain would have.

leep

nde

Then

The fourth part.

Il Let men therefore before the Lord confesse his kinduelle then; And the v the wonders that he doth before the tons of men.

12 Let then in presence of the folk with praile extoll his name & And where the elders do convent let them there do the fame.

3) For running flouds to drie defarts he doth oft change and turn : And drieth up, as it were duft, the fpringing well and bourn. 14 A fruitfull land with pleafures deckt fullbarren doth he mak: :

When on their fins th t diveil therein juit veng ance he doth take.

35 Again.

PSAL. cyii.

35 Again, the wi'dernesse fall rudo
he maketh fruit to bear:
With pleasant iprings of waters clear,
though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungrie souls are set,
as he doth freely choic:

That they a city may them build to dwell in for their use.

27 That they may sow their pleasant land and vineyards also plant: To yeeld them from of such increase,

as none may frem to want.

Solution 18 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth bleffe them fo:

Who doth also the bruit beafts make by numbers great to grow.

by the oppressours stout:

And minith do through many p'agues, that compafie them about.

which did them fore oppress:

And likewise caused them to erre
within the wildern ste.

41 But yet the poore he raifeth up out-of their trougle dep;
And of times doth his train augment much like a flock of the p.

42 The righteons thall behold this fight, and also much rejoyce: Whereas the wicked and perver'e with grief shall stop their voice.

4? But who is wife, that now full well he may the f things record:

For cert inly he shall perceive the kindnesse of the Lord.

PS A L.

U

PSAL CVIII. J.H.

God my heart prepared is, and eke my rongue is fo: I will advance my voice in fong, and giving praife also.

2 Awake my viol and my harp fweet melody to make: And in the morning I my felf right early will awake.

and nght me

it,

A L.

3 By me among the people, Lord, ftill praifed that thou be:

And I among the heathen folk will fing O Lord to thee.

4 Because thy mercie Lord, is great above the heavens hie:

And eke thy truth doth rach the clouds within the lottic fkie.

Above the starrie heavens his exalt thy self, O Go : And Lord display upon the earth thy glorie all abroad.

6 That thy dearly beloved may be let at libertie:

Help, O my God, with thy right hand, and hearken note me.

God in his holinesse hath spoke, where fore my joyes abound: Sichem will devide and mete.

the vale of Succoth ground.

8 And Gilead' flat be mine own,

Manafles mine thall be: My headfrengt Ephraim, and law thall ludah give for me.

9 Mosb my washpot, and my thoe on Edom will ! throw : Upon the land of Palestine in triumph will I go.

Io Who

PSAL cix.

who shall into the citie ftrong be guid to conquet me? Or how,by whom to Edom land conveyed (hall I be ?

at Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadft us torfaken quite ? And thou, O Lord, which with our hofts didft not go forth to fight?

Is Give us, O Lord, thy faving aid when troubles do affail: For all the help of man is vain, and can no whit avail.

13 Through God we that do valiant acts. and worthy of renown : He fhal fubdue our en mies, yea he shal tread them down.

PSAL CIX. N.

IN speechlesse filence do not hold, O God, thy tongue alwayes: O God, even thou, I lay, that art the God of all my praife.

3 The wicked and the guilfull mouth on me disclosed be: And they with false and lying tongues have spoken unto me.

2 They did befet me round about with words of hatefull fpight : Without all cause of my desert against me they did fight.

4 For my good will they were my foes, but then gan I to pray:

My good with ill,my friendlineffe with hate they did repay.

Set thou the wicked over him to hate the upper hand:

Ic

P. S. A. L. cix.

At his right hand cke fuffer thom
his hatefull foe to fland,
When he is judged, let him them condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes be turned into fin.

8 Few be his dayes, his charge also let thou another take: 9 His children let be fatherlesse.

his wife a widow make.

to beg and feek their bread,

Wandring out of the wasted place where earst they have been fed.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store: And let the stranger, spoil the fruits of all his toil before.

12 Let there be none to pitic him, let there be none at all,

That on his children fatherlesse will let their mercie falle

The second part.

13 And so let his posteritie for ever be destroid: Their name out blotted in the age that after shall succeed.

14 Let not his fathers wickednesse from Gods remembrance fall : And let not thou his mothers sin be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord let them remain for aye: That from the earth their memorie he may cut clean away.

16 Sith mercie he forgot to fhew, but did pursue with spight.

Ac

efic

PS AL. CIX. The troubled man and fought to flay the worull hearted w ght. 17 As he did curfing love, it shall beride anto him fo: And a he did not bl fling love, it shall be far him fro. 18 As he with curfing clad him felf, fo it like water thall Into his bowels, and like oil into his bones pefall. 19 As garment let it be to him to cover him for ave: And as a girdle, wher with he thall guded be alway. 20 Lo let the fame be from the Lord, th guerdon of my to : Yea, and of those that evil speak against my foul alio. 21 But thou, O Lord, hat art my God.

21 But thou, O Lord, hat art my God.
deal thou, I fay, with me:
After thy name deliver me,
for good thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distresse
I a edy in and poore:
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded fore.

The third part.

23 Even fo do I depart away, as do h declining thad: 2

And as the grath pper, fo I am thaken off and fade.

24 With fatting long from needfull food
enf. ebled are my kn es:

And all her farness harb my sleih

25 And I also a vile reproach to them am made to be:

And

28

30

An

To

PS AL. CX.

And they that cid upon me look did thake their heads at me-

25 But thou, O Lord that art my God, mine aid and fuccour be:

According to thy mercie Lord, fave and deliver me-

27 And they shall know thereby, that this, Lord is thy mighty hand: And that thou, thou halt done it Lord,

And that thou, thou halt done it Lord, fo that they understand.

28 Although they curie with spite, yet thon that olesse with loving voice?

They shall arise and come to shame, thy servant shall rejoyce.

29 Let them be clothed all with fliame that enemies are to me;
And with confusion as a cloak eke covered let them be

30 But greatly I will with my mouth give tanks unto the Lord; And i among the multitude his prairies will record.

3t For he with help at his right hand will thand he poore man by, To fave him from the man that would condemne his foul to die.

PSAL. CX. N.

He Lord did fay unto my Lord,
Sit thou at my right hand,
I'll I have made thy foes a ftool where on thy feet may ftand.
The Lord shall out of sion fend the feepter of hy might:

Amid thy mortall foes be thou the ruler in their fight.

3 And food

PSAL exi.

and in the day on which thy raigne and power they thail fee: Then hereby free-will-offerings shall the people offer thee. Yea with a holy worshipping then shall they offer all:

Thy births dew is the dew that doth from wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say:

By the order of Melchisedech thou art a Priest for aye.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand that standeth for thy stay.

Shall wound for thee the stately Kings upon his wrathfull day.

The heathen he shall judge, and fill the place with bodies dead: And over divers countries shall in funder timite the head.

And he shall drink out of the brook that runneth in the way:

Therefore he shall lift up on high his royall heat that day.

PSAL CXI. N.

Ith heart I do accord
To praise and land the Lord
In presence of the just,
For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,
As do him love and trust,
His works are glorious,
Also his righteousnesse,
It doth endure for ever.
His wondrous works he would

We ftill remember should, his mercie faileth never.

His

of

th

1)

PSAI. exii.
Such as to him love bear, portion full fair,
He hath up for them laid;
or this they shall well finde,
le will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
For he did not dissain
h worksto shew them plain

By lightn ng and by thunders;
Then he the he then land
Idgive into their hand,
Where they beliefd his wonders.

of all his works enfueth th judgement, right, and truth, Whereto his statutes tend. They are decreed fure,

Which equitie doth end, demption he gave

s people for to fave.

9 And hashalto required,
3 promife not to fail,
4 alwayes to prevail,
His holy name be feared.

Who fo withheartfullfain a wifedome would attain, The Lord fear and obey: whas his laws do ke p, all knowledge have full deep: His praife thall laft for aye.

PSAL. CXII. W.K.

And that his law doth love indeed a Bis feed on earth cod will uprear, adbleffe fuch as from him proceed. this house with good he will suffil, his righteousnesse endure shall stiff.

5 SH

vill

and ugs

11 rook

PSAL. cxiii.

Compaffion is in his eyes,

And mercie alwayes in his fight.

5 Yea pitie moveth fuch to lend, He doth by judgement things expend.

A

So

The

An

Ye

Bed

6 And furely such shall never fail, For in remembrance had is he: 7 No tidings ill can make him quail, Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His heart is firm, his fear is past, For he shall tee his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poore provide, His righteousnesse doth still remain: And his estate with praise abide, Though that the wicked man distain.

And so consume his flate to see.

PSAL. CXIII. W.K.

YE children which do ferve the Lord Praif ye his name with one accordance as year bleff do be alwayes his name. Who from the rifing of the Sun,

Till it return where it begin, is to be praifed with great fame.

4 The Lord all people doth furmount,
As for his glorie we may count

Above the heavens high to be, 5 With God the Lord who may compare Whose dwellings in the heavens are: Of such great power and force is he

6 He doth abase himself we know Things to behold both here below, And also in heaven above 7 The needy out of dust to draw, And eke the poore which help none saw,

His only mercie did him move...

An

PSAL. cxiiii. 3 And fo him fet in bigh decree, With princes of great dignitie, I hat rule his people with great fame. o The barren he doth make to bear, And with gr at joy her truit to rear Therefore praise ye his holy name. PSAL CXIIII. W.W. Hen tirael by Gods addresse from tharaohs land was bent, And Jacobs hou'e the strangers left. and in the lame train went: 2 In Judah God his glorie thewed, his holineffe moit bright: So did the Ifraclites declare his kingdonie power and might-? The fea it faw and fuddenly as all amaz'd did flie : The roaring streams of Jordans floud reculed backwardly. 4 As rams afraid the mountains fkipt. Lord their thrength did them fortake a cord. And as the filly crembling lambes their tops did beat and fhake. What aild thee fca as all amazd, fo tuddenly to flie? Ye rolling waves of Jordans floud, why ran ve backwardly? 6 Why thook ye hils as rambs afraid? ompare why did your friength fo thake? Why did your tops as trenthling lambs ce is he for fear quiver and quake? O earth confesse thy foveraigne Lord and dread his mightie hand; Before the face of Jacobs God feat ye both for and land;

8 I mean the God who from hard rocke doth cause main flouds appear :

đ.

pend

paft, aft.

e, hal he name.

ne.

ount,

ne law,

ve..

And from the stonic flint doth make gush out the fountains clear.

PSAL CX V. N.

Ev

To

15

The

17

Sou

2 18

: E

Deli

Ot unto us, Lord, not to us, but to thy name give praise: Both for thy mercie and thy truth that are in thee alwayers.

2 Why shall the heathen scorners say, Where is their Godbecome?

3 Our God in heaven is and what he will that hath he done.

4 Their idels filver are and gold, works of mens hands they be:
They have a mouth, and do not fpeak,

and eyes and do not fee.

And they have ears joynd to their heads, and do not hear at all:

And notes eke they formed have,
and do not fmell withall.

7 And hands they have, and handle not, and feet, and do ot go:

A throat they have, yet through the fame they mak no found to blow.

8 Those that make them are like to them, and those whose trust they be.

9 O Ifrael truft in the Lord, their help and shield is he.

to O Aarons house trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he.

It Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord, their help and shield is he.

22 The Lord h th mindefull been of us, and will us bleffe also:

On Ifrael and on Aarons house his blessing he will show.

13 Them

PS AI. cxvi. 12 Them that be fearers of the Lord. the Lord will blede them all: Even he will to the hen every one. the great and the tin fulle 14 To you, I jay the loving Lord willimuitiply ins grace : To you and to the children that thail follow of your race. Is Ye are the bleffed of the Lord. even of the Lord, I fay: Which both the heaven and the earth hath made and fecun itay. 16 The heavens, year the heavens high belong unto the Lord: The earth unto the fons of men he gave of free accord. 17 They that be dead, do not with praise fet forth the Lords renown : Nor any that into the place of filence do go down. 8 But we will praife the Lord our God. from henceforth and for aye: sound ye the praifes of the Lord, praife ye the Lord, I fay. PSAL. CXVI. N. Love the Lord because my voice and prayer heard hath he: When in my dayes I cald on him, he bowed his ear to me. Even when the fnares of cruell death about befet me round : When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and forrow found. Upon the name of God my Lord, then did I call, and fay, Deliver thou my foul, o ord, I do thee humbly pray. 5 The fay,

ak.

heads,

ot,

me

chem,

rd,

115,

Them

ps AL. cxvi.

The Lord is very mercifull, and just he is also:
And in our God compassion doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in fafetie doth preferve all those that simple be:

I was in wofall miterie.

7 And now my foul fish thou art fave, return unto thy reft:

For largely, lo. th. Lord to thee his bountie hath exprest.

S Because thou hast delivered my soul from deadly thrall; My moistned eine from mornfull tears, my sliding for from fall.

my fliding feet from fall.

Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk the refore.

To I did beleeve, therefore I spake, for I was troubled fore.

The fecond part.

II Ifaid in my diftreffe and fear, That all men liers be:

What thall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

I; The wholfome cup of faving health
I thankfully will take:

And on the Lords name I will call when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows that I to him behight:

Yea even at this present time in all his peoples fight.

Right dear and precious in his fight the Lord doth age effects

The death of all his holy ones, what ever men do deem.

16 Thy

Son

18

Yea

0 t

B

2

PS A L. exvii, exviii. 16 Thy fervant, Lord thy fervant lo. I do my felf conteffe Son of thy handmaid, thou haft broke the bonds of my diffreffe. 17 And I will offer up to thee a lacrifice of praise: And I will call upon the name of God the Lord alwayes. 18 I to the Lord will pay my yows that I to him behight: Yea, even at this prefent time in all his peoples fight. 19 Yea, in the courts of Gods own house, and in the midft or thee, O thou Jerufalem I fay, wherefore the Lord praise ye. PSAL. CXVII. N. All ye nations of the world, praile ye the Lord alwayes: And all y: people every where, fet forth his noble praise. 2 For great his kindneste is to us. his truth endures for aye: Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God, praise ye the Lord I fay. PSAL. CXVIII. N. Give ye thanks unto the Lord, for gracious is he : Because his mercie doth endure for ever toward thee. 2 Let Ifrael confelle, and fay, his mercie dures for we: 3 Now let the house of Azion say, his mercie dures for aye. 4 Let all that fear the Lord our God, even now confesse, and fay, The mercie of the Lord our God endureth still for aye. 5 In es

alch

5 In trouble and in heavinesse unto the Lord I cride: Which lovingly heard me at large,	rs T
my fuit was not denide.
6 The Lord himfelf is on my fide,	16
I will not it ind in doubt, Norfear what man can do to me, when God flands 'me about.	Hisl
7 The Lord doth tak my part with them	17 I
Therefore I shall see my defire upon mine enemie.	The 8 Better it is to trust in God	18 7 or princes in our need.	But to All nactions have inclosed me, and compafled meround:	19
But in the name of God that! I	Tha
11 They kept me in on every fide,	20
But in the Lordsmost mighty name	But I shall work their decay.
12 They came about me all like bees, but yet in the Lords name	21
I quencht their thornes that were on fire,
and will deftroy the fame.	An

The jecond part.

13 Thou haft with force thrust force at me, that I indeed might fall; But through the Lord I found such help, that they were vanquisht all. 14 The Lord is my defence and it rength, my joy, my mirth, my fong:

He is become for me indeed a Saviour most strong.

15 The

PSAT. CXVIII. If The right hand of the Lord our God doth bring to pasic many things: He caufeth voice of joy and health in righteous mens dwelling. 16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mightie things to passe: His hand hack the prehimmence, his force is as it was. them an I shall not die, but ever live to utter and declare The Lord his might, and wondrous power, his works, and what they are. 18 The Lord himfelf hath chaftened, and hath corrected me: But hath not given me over yet to death, as ye may fee. 19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and right confueffe, That I may enter into them the Lords praise to confesse. to This is the gate even of the Lord, which shal not so be thut, But good and righteous mes alway thall enter into it. The third part. I I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,

The third part.

If I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, because thou has heard me a land art become most lovingly a Saviour unto me.

The from which ere this time among the builders was refused, Is now become the corner stone, and chiefly to be used.

re,

me,

p.

h,

The

this was the Lords own fact:
and it was marvellous to behold with eyes that noble act.

L 5

24 This

This was the mightie work of God,

PSAL cxix.

24 This is the joyfull day indeed, which Godhimfelfhath wrought: Let us be glad and joy therein in heart, in minde, in thought.

25 Now help us Lord, and prosper us, we wish with one accord:

26 Bleffed is he that cometh to us in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light, bind: ye therefore with cord

Your facrifice to the altar, and give thanks to the Lord.

and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God and I will praife thy m reie towards me.

for gracious is he:

Because his mercie doth endure for ever towards me-

PSAL CXIX. W.W.

ALEPH.

B Lessed are they that perfect are, and pure in minde and heart: Whose lives and conversations from Gods laws never start.

2 Bleffed are they that give themselves his statutes to observe; Seeking the Lord with all their heart, and never from him (werve-

2 Doubtleffe fuch men go not aftray, nor do no wicked thing: Which itediately walk in his way without any wandring.

It is thy will and commandment, that with attentive heed,

Thy

Thy

And

For

Oh

Th

PS A L. exix.

Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.

s O would to God it might thee pleafe my wayes fo to addresse, That I mucht both in heart and voice

That I might both in heart and voice thy laws keep and conteste

6 So thould no thame my life at ain, whilst I thus tet mine eyes: And bend my minde alwayes to muse on thy facred decrees.

ght,

ta

Th

7 Then will I praise with upright heart, and magnific thy name,

When I shall learn thy judgements just, and likewise prove the same.

8 And wholy will I give my felf to keep thy laws most right; For ake me not for ever Lord but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. 2.

9 By what means may a young man be? his life learn to amend? If that he mark and keep thy word, and therein his time (pend.

to Unfainedly I have thee fought, and thus feeking abide:

Oh never fuffer me, O Lord, from thy precepts to flide.

II Within my heart and fecret thoughts thy word I have hid ftill:

That I might not at any time offend thy holy will.

Is We magnifie thy name, O Lord, and praise thee evermore: Thy statutes of most worthy fame,

O Lord, teach me therefore.

3 My lips have never ceast to preach, and publish day and night,

The

PSAL. exix.

The judgements all, which did proceed from thy month full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy wayes please me no lesse indeed.

Then all the treasures of the earth, which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse, and thereto frame my talk:

As at a mark so will I aim, thy wayes how I may walk.

16 My only joy shall be so fixt, and on thy laws so set:

GIMEL. 3.

That nothing can me fo far blind,

17 Grant to thy fervant now fuch grace as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which are dim and thut up, footen and make bright.

fo open and make bright: That of thy law and marvellous works I may have the clear fight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth, wandring now here, now there? Thy word therefore to me disclose my footsteps for to clear.

20 My foul is ravishe with defire, and never is at rest:

But feeks to know thy judgements high, and what may pleafe thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious thou hast destroid each one: And curled are such as do not thy hests attend upon.

sa Lord turn from me rebake and thams which wicked men conspire;

For

23

Bu

Re

He

28

Ac

20

16

PSA L. CXIX. d For I have kept thy covenants with zeal as hote as fire. 23 The princes great in counfel fate, and did agunft me fpeak : But then thy fervant thought how he ecd. thy statutes might not break. 24 For why? thy covenants are my joy, and my hearts great folace? They ferve in iteed of counfellours, my matters for to paffe. DALET 1. de es I amalas! as brought to grave, and almost rurnd to dutt : Restore therefore my life again, as thy promife is juit. 25 My wayes when I acknowledged, tace with mercie thou didft hear : Hear now eftfoon and me instruct thy laws to love and f. ar. 7 Teach me once throughly for to know it up, thy procepts and thy lore : The works then will I meditate. rks and lay them up in ft ire. 28 My foul I feel to fore opprest that it melteth for grief : According to thy word therefore halte, Lord, to fend relief. 29 From lying and deceitfull lips let thy grace me defend. And that I may learn thee to love, thy holy law me fend. 30 The way of truth both ftraight and fure I have chosen and found : I fet thy judg ments me before, which keep me fafe and found. st Since then, O Lord, I forc'd my felf thy covenants to embrace :

Let

Fol

PSAL. cxix.

Let me therefore have no rebuke or check in any cate.

32 Then will I run with joyfull chear, where thy word doth me call: When thou hast fet my heart at large, and rid me out of thrall.

H E. 5.

33 Instruct me Lord in the right trade, of thy statutes divine:

And it to keep even to the end, my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law, and I shall it obey:

With heart and minde, and all my might, I will it keep, I say.

35 In the right paths of thy precepts guid me, 1 ord, I require:
None other pleasure do I with,

nor greater thing defire.

36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenant to embrace;

And from all filthy avarice, Lord, thield me with thy grace.

37 From vain defire and worldly luft turn back mine eyes and fight: Give me the spirit of life and power to walk thy wayes aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promife Lord, which thou haft made to me, Whick am thy fervant, and do love and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and thame which I fo fear, from me,O Lord, expell:

For thou dost judge with equitie, and therein dost excell.

40 Behold my heartsdesire is bent, thy laws to keep for aye;

Lord

A

Fo

Fo

Lord strengthen me to with thy grace, that it perform I may.

VAU. 6.

r,

W.

ht,

ıÆ

ď,

ir,

ord

41 Thy mercies great and manifold let me obtain, O Lord:
Thy faving health let me enjoy according to thy word.
42 So thal I ftop the fland rous mouths of lewd men and unjust:
For in thy faithfull promifes frands my comfort and truft.

43 The word of truth within my mouth let ever still be prest:
For in thy judgements wonderfull my hope doth stand and rest.
44 And whilst that breath within my brest doth naturall life preserve:

Yea till this world shall be dissolved thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I as fet at large, and made free from all dread; Because I fought how for to keep thy precepts and thy trade.

45 Thy noble acts I will describe, as things of most great fame: Even before kings I will them blaze, and thrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce then to obey thy worthy helts and will:
Which evermore I have loved beft, and to will love them still.

47 My hands will I list to thy laws which I have dearly sought:
And practise thy command-ments,
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N.

PS	A	L.	cxix.
			Ñ. 7.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'it to me thy i rvant, Lord, remember:

For therein have I put my trust and could nee for eyer.

50 It is my confort and my joy hen troubles me affail:
For were my life uot by thy word,
my life would foon me fail.

5 t The providend fuch as God contemne,

Wh

But

And

fill made of mea forn: Yet would I not thy law forfake as he that were forlorn.

52 But cald to minde Lord, the great works
thewd to our fathers o.d.:

Whereby I feel my joy turmount my grier an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas ! for fear I quake, feeing how wicked men Thy laws for fook, and did procure thy judgements, who knoweth when,

54 And as for me I fram'd my fongs thy flatures to exalt,

When I among the strangers dwelt, and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord, by night when others fleep: As for thy law also I kept, and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain because thy covenants sweet and dear:
Liddenbyson and elso keet.

I didembrace and also keep with reverence and with fear,

HETH. 8.

57 O God, which art my part and lot.
my comfort and my ftay:
I have

PSAL. cxix.

I have decreed and promifed thy law to keep alway.

8 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue in presence of thy face:
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

ne

orks

en.

nave

55 My life thave examined, and tried my fecret heart: Which to the statutes caused me my feet straight to converte for I did not stay nor ling whose as they that floathfull are: But hattily thy laws to keep

I doe my felf prepare.

It The cruell bands of wicked men have made of my their prey;

yet would I not thy law forget, not from the go altray.

62 Thyrighteous judgements towards me

That even at midnight will I rife thy name to magnific.

(; Companion am I to all them which fear thee in their heart : Induces will for love nor dread from thy commandm nesttart.

4 Thy mercies, Lo d.m. it plenteously do all the world fulfill:

thy statutes and thy will.

TETH. 9.

fo half thou with me dealt:

for of thy grace in fundric forts have I thy fer van felt.

6 Teach me to judge alwayes aright, and give me knowledge fure:

For

For certainly beleeve I do that thy precepts be pure. 67 Ere thou didft touch me with thy rod I erred and went aftray: But now the p thy holy word, and make it all my fray. 68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giveft most liberally Thy ordinances how to keep, therefore, O Lord, teach me. 69The proud and wicked men have forg' against me many a 'ie : Yet thy commandments still observe with all my heart will I. 70 Their hearts are fwoln with worlding (wealth as greafe fo are th y fat: But in thy law do I delight, and nothing leek but that. 71 O happy time may I well fay, when thou didft me correct: For as a guid to learn thy laws, thy rod did me direa. 72 So that to me thy word and law is dearer manifold, Then thousand great of filver and gold, or ought that can be told. 1 0 D. 10. 73 Seeing thy hands have made me Lord, 12 M to be thy creature : Grant knowledge likewife how to learn bh w to put thy laws in are. 74 so they that fear thee shall rejoyce when ever they me fee, Becaufe I have learnd by thy word to put my truit in thee. 75When with thy rods Sworld is plagu 4 A I know the cause is just:

PSAL. CXIX.

77

For

But

And

Ind et w

10

b

PSAL cxix. so when thou doft correct me Lord, the cause just needs be muft. rod 76 Now of thy goodueffe I thee pray, fo ne comfort to me find: As thou to me thy fervant hightit, fo from all ill me thenu. 77 Thy tender mercies poure on me. and I thall furely live: For joy and consolation both thy laws to me do give. & Confound the proud whose false preis me for to dettroy : But as for me thy heits to know. I will my felf imploy. worldly Who fo with reverence do thee fear, wealth to me let them retire : And fuch as do thy covenants know. and them alone defire. o Me heart without all wavering let on thy laws be bent : hat no confusion come to me, whereby I should be thent. CAPH. II. I My foul doth faint, and ceafeth not gold, thy faving health to crave : nd for the words fake ttill I truft, my hearts defire to have. Lord, & Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I fay : learn oh when wilt thou me comfort Lord, why doft thou this delay? rejoyce Asa fkin bottle in the Imoke, foam I parcht and dride : et will I not out of my heart let thy command nents flide. s plagu 4 Alas! how long thall I yet live, betore I fee the houre, us,

That

forg'

2W

rd

P SA L. cxix.

That on my foes which me torment thy veng ance thou wilt poure?

85 Pre fumpt ous men have digged pits, thinking to make me fure:

Thus comer rie against thy law my bure they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true, and cantele ffe they me grieve:

To thee theretore I do complain that thou mightit me relieve.

87 Almost they had me clean destroyd, and brought me quite to ground;

Yet by thy flatures I abode, and therein succour found.

88 Reftore me Lord ag in to life, forthy mercies excell:

And (6 thall I thy covenants keep till death my life expell.

LAMED. 12.

89 In heaven, Lord, where thou doft dwell thy word is stable the fure:

And thall for all eternise fait graven there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides, as doch the earth witnesse:

Whose ground-work thou halt laid so sure as no tongue can expresse.

or Even to this day we may well fee how all things perfevere

According to thy ordinance, for all things thee revere.

92 Had it not been that in thy law my foul had comfort fought:

Long time ere now in my diffresse
I had been brought to nought.

25 Therefore will I thy precepts aye in memoric keep fast:

2v

2 I

a

PSAL. CXIX. By them thou haft my life reftor'd when I was at last cast. 94 No wisht to me can title make. for I am only thine : save me therefore, for to thy laws mine ears and heart inclue. The wicked men do feck my bane, and thereto lie in wait: But I the while confidered thy noble works and great. of I fee nothing in this wide world, at length which hath not end: but thy comman ments and thy word beyond all endextend. M E M. 13. What great defire and fervent love do I bear to thy law ? the day long my shole device is only on thy fare. dwell & Thy word hath taught me far to paffe my foes in policie: or ftill I keep it as a thing of most excellencie. My teachers which did me inftruct in knowlegde I excell: fo fure caufe I do thy covenants keep, an them to others tell. o In w fedome I do paffe alfo the ance at men indeed : adall because to keep by laws I held it aye beff reed. t My feet Thave refrained eke from every evil way: cause that I continually the word might keep, I fay. I have not fwerv'd from thy judgenor yet thrunk any dell :

s, ne,

rd.

nd:

es.

20

ye

PS AL. cxix. For why ? thou haft me taught thereby to live godly and well. 11 103 O Lord, how fweet unto my tafte finde I thy words alway? Ev Doubtleffe no honey in my mouth feel ought fo weet I may. Ios Thy laws have me fuch wifedom that utterly I hate (learn'd ris All wicked and ungodly wayes, in every kinde or rate. But N U N. 14. Ior Even as a lantern to my feet, fo doth thy word thine bright : And to my pathes where ever I go, ir is a flaming light. 106 I have both I worn, and will perform 15 molt certainly doubtleffe : That I will keep the judgements just, and them in life . xpreffe. 107 Affliction hath me fore oppreft, and brought me to deaths dore : 01 O Lord, as thou haft promised, fo me to lifereftore. 108 The offrings which with heart & vol 7 1 most frankly I thee give. Accept and teach me how I may nd I after thy judgements live. W Too My foul is aye fo in my hand, T that dangers me affail : 25 on 10 Yet do I not thy law forget, t nor it to keep will fail.

once fwerve or go aftray.

It Thy law I have fo claimed alway,
as mine own herit ge:

Ito Although the wicked laid their nat to catch me at a bay :

Yet did I not from thy precepts

9 Lil

ner ef

wi

lov My

25

PSAL exix. And why ? for therein I delight. and fet my whole courage. III For evermore I have been bent thy itatutes to tulfil: Even fo likewife unto the end I will continue ftill.

SAMECH.

dom arn'der; The crafty thoughts and double hearts I do al way deteft:

But as for thy law and precepts, I love them ever beft.

14 Thou art my hid and fecret place. my thield of ftrong defence : herefore have I thy promifes lookt for with patience.

rform is Go to therefore ye wicked men. depart from me anone;

or the commandments will I keep, of God my Lord alone.

6 As thou haft promised, so perform, that death me not affail :

or let my hope abufe me fo, that through diffruft I quail.

t & voi 17 Uphold me, and I shall be safe. for ought they do or fav:

ad in thy itatutes pleafure take will I both night and day.

8 Thou haft trod tuch under thy feet, as do thy ftatutes break :

brnought avails their Inbriltie, their counsel is but weak.

heir net p Like droffe thou cafts the wicked out where ever they go or dwell: terefore can I as thy statutes love nothing half fo well. My flethalas! is taken with fear, as though it were benumm'd:

d alway,

S

just,

eft,

: 9

For

PSAL. CXIX.

For when I fee thy judgements straight, I am as one altond.

A I N. 15.

and give to all men right: Refign: me no to them that would oppresse me with their might.

122 But for thy fervant furety be in that thing that is g od:

That proud men give me not the foil,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde thy health formuch t crave:

And the thy right ous promite Lord, whereby thou wilt me fave.

124 Intreat thy fervant lovingly, and favour to him thew: The fractices of most excellence

Thy fractites of most excellencie teach me also to know.

ra; Thy humble fervant Lord, Lam, great me to understand How by thy statures I may know best what to take in hand.

126 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite deard:

Thy law likewife they have tranfgrest, and none against them faid.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love the laws etter then gold: Or jewels fine which are effected most costly to be fold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just, it is and to them laid in store:

All craftie and malicious wayes

I do abhor therefore.

PE

a

Ou

ed w

PSAL. cxix.

P E. 17.

Thy covenants are most wonderfull, and full of things profound:

Soul therefore doth keep them sure,

when they are tride and found.

When men first enter into the word,

they finde a light most clear.

they finde a light most clear; nd very idiots understand when they it read or hear.

r For joy i have both gap'd and breathing to know thy commandment: hat I might guid my felf thereby,' I fought what thing it meant.

With mercie and compassion, Lord, behold me from above:
sthou art wont to behold such as thy name fear and love.

g Direct my footsteps by thy word that I thy will may know: ad never let iniquity thy servant overthrow. From slanderous tongues&deadly lighted preserve and keep me sure:

precepts then I will observe, and put them eke in ure.

1) hy countenance which doth furmouse the sun in his bright hew: 2 shine on me; and by thy law teach me what to eschew.

teach me what to eichew.
Cout of mine eyes great flouds guth our,
of dreary tears and fell;
Yen I behold how wicked men thy laws keep never a dell.

Z A D 1. 18.
off juft, 7 In every point, Lordsthon art juft,
the wicked though they grudge:
ad when thou doft fentence pronounce thou art a righteous Judge.

P

d, reft,

I love

And fuc	nmanded us straightly.	Bed
To fee to for 140 So as at	ought that I do may, pure and perfect is thy word, by heart can deem:	Th.
Yet do no 143 Th fo Alfo th	ne of bale degree: I not thy laws forget, I hrink away from thees yrighteousnesse Lord, is most just r ever to endure:	V IST
Yet do del 144 Th dot Then to	d brought me wondrous low: I still of thy precepts ight to hear and know. e righteousnesse of thy judgement h last for evermore: ach them me for even in them	Tha Is a K O P H. 19.

#45 With fervent heart I cald and cride now answer me,O Lord : That thy commandments to observe I may fully accord.

145 To thee my God I make my fuit with most humble request: Save me therefore,and I will keep thy precepts and thy hefts.

Fron

PS AL. cxix. n guil 147 To thee I crie even in the morne, : before the day wax light : Because that I have in thy word my confidence whole plight. fum'd 48 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night, and ere they cal I wake: That by deviling on thy word i might fome comfort take. ord, 149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice, and pitte on metake: As thou waft wont fo judge me Lord, let life thould me torfake. 150 My toes draw near, and do procure by, my death malicioufly: Which from thy law a c far gone back, and straid from it lendly. oft juit 15t Therefore. O I ord, approch thou near, for need doth to r quire: for all t. v precept true they are, then help I thee defire. tez But thy commandments have I learnd on ! not now but long go : ow: That they remain for ev. mire, thou half them grounded fo. geme R E S H. 20. 53 My trouble and ffliction em confider and behoid: Deliver me, for of the law I evertake fatt hold. 154 Delend my good and righteous cause, d cride with speco me succour lend: from death, as thou haft promifed, e Lord, keep me and defend. fuit 155 As for the wicked, far they are from having h althand grace : Whereby they might thy fatutes know, they enter not the trace. 147

M 2

116 Great

PS A L. cxix. 156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant, what tongue can them attain? And as thou haft me judged ere now, fo let me life obtain.
157 Though many men did trouble me, and perfecute me fore: Yet from thy laws I never thrunk, nor went away therefore.
158 And truth it is for grief I die

159 Behold, for I do love thy laws with heart most glad and fain a As thou art good and gracious Lord, restore my life again 250 What thy word doth decree, must be, when I thele traitours fee : Because they keep no whit thy word, nor yet feek to know thee.

and fo it hith been ever:

Thy righteous judgements are also most true, and decay never.

SCHIN. 21.

Princeshave fought by erneltie causesse to make me crouch:
But all in vain, for of thy word,
the fear did my hear touch.

1st And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Then he that of rich spoils and prey great store of plentie had.

Thate most and detest:
For why? thy holy law do I show all things love best.

sty seven times a day I braile the Lord, singing with heart and voice:
Thy right our acts and wonderfull se cause me to rejoyce.

as As for all lies and fallities

Lisig Creat

PSAL cxix.

165 Great reft and peace shall all such have as do thy statutes love:
No danger shall their quiet state empaire or once remove.

166 My only health and comfort lord, I look for at thy hand:
And therefore I have done those things which thou dids me command.

which my foul most defired:
which my foul most defired:
so much to them my love was bent,
that nought elfe I required.
If the state and commandements
I kept, thou knowst, aright:

For all the things that I have done are prefent in thy fight.

T A U. 22.

ben

169 O Lord, let my complaint and crist before thy face appear:
And as then haft me promife made, fo teach me thee to fear.

170 Mine humble fur pleation toward thee let finde accesses and grant me Lord deliverance, for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak after most ample fort;
When thou thy statutes hast me taught, wherein stands my comfort, 172 My tongue shalling & preach thy word, and on this wife fay shall: Gods famous acts and noble laws are just and perfect all.

178 Stretch out thy hand I thee befeech, and speedly me fave: For thy commandments to observe thosen, O Lord, Thave.

M -

174 OF

PSA L. CXX.

Lif

hat 2 T

Vhic

nd a

3 T

nd v

or h

4 1

No fl

ut h

5 T

h 1

le at 61

Not 1

hall

7 TI

And

And t

8 I

Whe

God

TD

To

In

2 F

And

TI

; Ou Shal

Wh

Muc

T

874 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health, for other I know none;

Ano in thy law and nothing elfe,
I do delight alone.

175 Grant motherefore long dayes to live thy n. m. to magnifie: And of thy judg ments merciful let me thy layour trie.

176 For I was loft and went aftray much like a wandring theep?
Oh feek me, for I have not faild thy commandments to keep.

PSAL CXX. T.S.

IN trouble and in the all Unto the Lord I call: And he doth me comfort.

Z Deliverme, I fay, From hers lips alway. And rongues of falle report.

3 What wa tage or what thing Getit thou thus for to fting, From falle and flattering lyer ? 4 Thy tongue doth host I ween,

No leffe then arrows keen, Or hote couluming fire.

4 Alas! too long I flack
Within their tents to black,
Which Ki dars are by name 3
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Ifacks feet,
Are put to open thame.

With them that place did hate
I came a peace to mak,
And I to quiet life.
Plut when my tal was told Caufleff: I was controld
By them that would have frife.

PSAL.

PSAL CXX I. W.W.

Lift mine eyes to Sion hill, From whence I do attend, hat succour God me fend, 2 The mightle God me successively

tita

2 The mightie God me fuccourwill, Vhich heaven and earth framed, and all things therein named,

3 Thy foot from flip he will preferve, and will thee fafely keep, or he will never fleep.
4 Lo, he that If rael doth conferve, No fleep at all can him catch, at his eyes shall ever watch.

y The Lord is thy warrant alway,

h Lord eke doth thee cover,
h at thy right hand ever.

o the fun thall not thee parch by day,

Not the moon not half to bright, hall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from diffreffe, and will thy life fure fave:
and thou shalt also have,
8 In all thy businesse good successe:
Where ever thou goest in or out,
and will thy things bring about.

PSALCXXII. W.K.

I Did to heart rejoyce
To hear the peoples voice
In off ring so wiltingly.
For let us up, say they,
And in the Lords house pray?
Thus spake the folk tull lovingly,
Our feet that wandred wide,
Shall in thy gates abide:
O thou Jerusalem full fair:
Which art so feemly set,
Much like a citie neat,
The like whereof is not elsewhere.

M 4

AT.

b

PSAL. exxiii.

The tribes with one accord, The tribes of God the Lord, Are unther bent their way to take, So Godbefore did tell, That there his Ifrael Their prayers thould together make.

For there are thrones creek, And that for this respect, To set forth justice orderly: Which thrones right to maintain, To Divide house pertain, Histolk to judge accordingly.

To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalems p ace,
Thy founds God prosper mightily.
Place be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout Thy palaces continually.

I with thy prosperous state
For my poore breturens sake:
That comfort have by means of these God house doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure,
So much alwayes as lies in me.

PSAL CXXIII. T.S. Lord that heaven doft possesse,

I lift mine eyes to thee,

Even as the feet of lifteth his,
his univers hands to fee.

2 As handanide watch their miffris hand form grace for to atchieve:

So we b. h. lift the Lord our God, till he do us forgive.

and mercie in thy fight:

For

10

0 1113

If t

he

Encl

Had

ps AL. exxiii.

for we are fild and overcome with hat ed and despight.
Our mindes be stuft with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wise,
o make of as their mocking stock,
the proud do us despise.

PSAL. CXXIIII. W.W.

may fay and that truly:
If that the Lord
had not our caufe finaintain'd:
that the Lord
had not our right fuftain'd:
When all the world against us furiously

against us furiously sade their oproats, and faid, We should all die.

Now long ago
they had devoured us all,
And fwallow, d quick,
for ought that we could deem:
Such was their rage,
as we might well effects.
And as the houds
with mightic force do fall:
So had they now.

our life even brought to thrall.

s The raging streams
most proud in roaring noise, Had long ago overwhelmed us in the deep.
6 But loved be God, which doth us fafely keep from bloudy teeth.
and their most cruell voice.

Which as a prey to eat us would rejoyce. M 5

5 Even

For

and

PSAL. CXXV.

7 Even as a bird out of the fowlers grin

Escapeth away.

right foit fareth with us:

Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.

8 God that made heaven and earth is our help then:

His name hath saved us from tiese wicked men.

PSAL. CXXV. W.K.

Sick as in God the Lord do truft,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand:
The Lord will count them right and just,
So that they shall be sure,
For ever to endure,

s As mightic mountains huge and great,
Jerusalem about do clote:
So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait:
Such as to him most dear,
They never need to fear.

2 For though the righteons trie doth he, By making wicked men his rod: Lest they through grief for lake their God, It shall not as their lot still be.

4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked wayes which they out fought,
The Lord will furely bring to nought,
With workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Anothe

Th

Gre

Mo

Ste

Th

To

Su

HIS

Sta

Fre

An

Th

Te

Lel

Fal

0

Th

Th

Su

An

SII

W

Bu

Ar

Ar

Sh

P & A L. CXXV.

Another of the same, by R.W.

Those that do put their confidence Upon the Lord our God only, And flie to him for their desence In all their need and miterie: Their faith is firm still to endure, Grounded on Chaist the corner stone: Moved with none ill, but standeth still, Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem,
The mightie hils do it compasse,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that town in any case;
So God indeed in every need.
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end,

juft,

eat.

h he,

God

ht.

ought,

Anoth

e:

Right wife and good is our Lord God,
And will not fuffer certainly,
The finners and ungodlies rod
To tarrie upon his family.
Left they also from God should go,
Falling to fin and wickedness:
O Lord, defend world without end,
Thy Christian flock through thy goodnesse.

O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in the word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide:
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites throwne down to hell,
God will them send pains without end:
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glorie to God the Father of might, And to the Son our Saviour, And to the holy Ghoft, whose light Shine in our hearts, and us succour.

Tha

PSAL. cxxvi.

That the right way from day to day We may walk and him glorific. With hearts defire all that are here Worthip the Loid, and fay, Amen.

PSAL. CXXVI. W. K.

When that the Lord
again his Soonhad forth broughe From bondage great,
and also revitude extream:

His work was fuch as aid furmount mans heart & thought;
So that we were much like to them that use to dream.

Our mouths were with laughter filled then: And eke our ongues did shew us joyfull men.

The heathen folk were forced then this to confede:

How that the Lord for them allo great things had done.

and therefore can confesse no lesse :

Wherefore to joy
whav good cause, as we begund
O Lord, godorch,

thou can't our bondage end;
As to defarts

the flowing rivers fend.

y Full true it is, that they which fow in tears indeed, Atime will come, when th y thall reap in mirth and joy

They went and wept
in bearing of their precious feed:

For that their ioes full oftentimes did them annoy:

But t

The

E

Lil Citie Exce

And Feed

Ye But

> Tha It is > > of I

The In 1

> Of Frie

Fur For

W

A A

PS AL. CXXVII.

But their return

me

ie.

es

leed,

107

1:

Bu

with joy they shall fure fee: Their theaves home bring. and not empaired be.

PSALCXXVII. W.W.

Xcept the Lord the honfe do make and thereunto do fet his hand : What men do build it cannot stand. Likewife in vain men under take Cities and holds to watch and ward. Except the Lord be their fafegard.

Though ye rife early in the morne, And fo at night go late to bed, Feeding full hartily with brown bread : Yet wer your labour lott and worne.

But they whom God doth love and keep, Receive all things with quiet fle ep.

Therefore mark well when ever ye fee, That men have heires to enjoy their land, It is the gift of Gods own hand : For God himfelf doth multiply of his great liberalitie The blessing of posteritie.

And when the children come to age, They grow in ftrength and activenetie: In perion and in comelineffe : So that a thaft thot with courage Of one that hath a most strong arme, Frieth not to fwift, nor doth like harme.

5 Oh well is he that hath his quiver Furnished with fuch artillerie: For when in perill he shall be,

Such one thall never shake nor shiver, When that he pleadeth before the judge Against his foes that bear him grudge.

PSAL CXXVIII. T.S.

B Leffed art thou that fearest God, and walkest in his way: a For of thy labour thou shalt eat,

2 For of thy labour thou shalt eat happie art thou. I say.

Jake fruitfull vines on the house fide, fo doth thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive plants, thy table round about.

4 Thus are thou bleft that fearest God, and he thall let thee fee

5 The promifed Jerulalem, and her felic tre.

6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see to thy great joves increase:

And likewise grace on Ifrael, prosperitie and peace:

PSAL. CXXIX. N.

Ft they, now Ifrael may fay,
me from my youth affaild:
Oft they affaild me from my youth,
yet never they prevaild.

3 Upon my back the plowers plowed, and furrows long did caft:

4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked fees at last.

They that hate me shall be asham'd, and turned back also:

6 And made as graffe upon the house, which withereth ere it grow: 7 Whereof the mower cannot finde enough to fill his hand : Nor he can fill his lap that goeth to glean upon the land.

8 Nor paffers by, pray God on them, to let his blefsing fall: Nor fay, we bleffe you in the name of God the Lord at all.

PS A L.

Ica

An

Th

Fo

Mo

He

A

PSAL CXXX. W.W.

Cord to thee I make my mone,
when dangers me oppreffe :
I call, I figh, plath and grone, trufting to finde relief.
2 Hear now, O Lord, my requeft, for it is full due time:

And let thine ears aye be prest unto this prayer mine.

de,

d.

fee

ords

A L.

3 O Lord our God, if then weigh our fins and them perufe: Who shall them escape, and say, I can my self excuse? 4 But thou, O Lord, art mercifull, and turnst to us thy grace : That we with hearts most carefull should fear before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole truft, my foul waits on his will: For his promife is most just, and I hope therein still. 6 My foul to God hath regard, withing for him alway: More then they that watch and ward to see the dawning day,

7 Let Israel then boldly in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercie, that his deliver must.
8 For he it is that must save Israel from his sin:
And all such as surely have

O Lord, I am not puft in minde,
I have no scornfull eye:
Ido not exercise my self in things that be too hie.

their confidence in him.

PSAL. cxxxii.

2 But as the childe that wained is even from his mothers breft; So have I Lord behaved by felf in filence and in reit.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord, let him be all thy stay: From this time forth for evermore, from age to age, I say.

PSAL. CXXXII. N.

Remember Davids troubles Lord, how to the Lord he fwore: And vowd a vow to Jacobs God, to keep for evermore.

3 I will not come within my house, nor climb up to my bed:

4 Nor let my temples take their rest, nor the eyes in my head :

5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to fit thereon:
An house for Jesobs God to be

An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.

6 We heard of it at Ephrata,

And in the fields and forrests there these voices first were found.

7 We will affay, and go into his tabernacle there: Before his footftool to fall down upon our knees in fear.

upon our knees in fear.

8 Arife, O Lord. arife, I fay, into thy holy place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the prefence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord, with truth and righteousuesse;

Let

PSAL. exxxil.
Let all thy Saints and holy men fing all with joyfulueffe.
to And for thy fervant Davids fake refule not, Lord, I day.
The face of thine anointed, Lord, not turn thy face away.

The second part.

IT The Lord to David fwore in truly and will not thrink from it a saying, the fruit of thy body upon thy feat thall fir.

And if thy foas my covenant keep.

that I thall learn each one:
Then thall thy fons for ever fit upon thy princely throne.

n The Lord himfelfhathchofe Sion, and loves therein to dwell: Siying, this is my retting place, I love and like it well.

4 And I will bleffe with great increafe her victuals every where : And I will fatisfie with bread the needy that be there.

yca, I will deck and cloath her priests with my falvation.

and all her Saints thall fing for joy of my protection.

of David for to bud:

of David for to bud:
for there I have ordaind for mine
a lantern bright and good.

7 As for his enemies I will cleath with shame for evermore: lat I will cause his crown to shine more fresh then heretofore.

Let

PSALCXXXIII. W.W.

O How happie a thing it is, and joyfull for to fee.

Brethren tegether fast to hold the band of amitic!

2. It cals to minde that fweet perfume, and that costly ointment,
Which on the facrificers head, by Gods precipt was spent.

It wet not Agronshead alone, but drencht his beard throughout,
And finally it did run down his rich attire about.
3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of rermon hill:
And S. on with his filver rops

Pr

It is 501

Hei

H

He t

8 H

c H

the fields with fruit doth fill:

4 Even fo the Lord doth powre on them his blefsings manifold,

Whose hearts and mindes without all guil

PSAL. CXXXIIII.W.W.

Behold and have regard.
ye fervants of the Lord:
Which in his house by night do watch,
praise him with one accord.
Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place:

And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.

3 For why? the Lord who did both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bleffe, and will conterve for evermore the fame.

Ps A L. C X X V. M.

Praife the Lord, praite him, praife him with one accord;

O praife

PSAL. exxxy.

O praise him still, all ye that be the servants of the Lord.

a O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord, ye of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.

Praife ye the Lord, for he is good, fing praifes to his name:
It is a comely and good thing, alway sto do the fame.
For why? the Lordhath chofe Jacob, his very own ye fee:
So hath h chofen Ifrael his treafure for to be.

12.

them

ll guil

tch, praile

For this I know and am right fure, the Lord is very great : He is indeed above all gods molterfie to interat. For whitfoever pleafed him, all that full well he wrought, in heaven, in earth, and in the fea, which he hath made of nought.

y He lifts up clouds even from the earth, he makes lightnings and rain: He bringeth forth the windes also, he made nothing in vain.

8 He froste the first born of each thing in Egypt that took rest: He spart dehere no living thing, the man nor yet the beast.

6 He hath in thee shewd wonders great,

Egypt void of vaunts,

On Pharaoh thy cursed king, and his severe servants.

The smoote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:

H:

PS AL. exxxv.

He flue the great and mightieft, and chiefeft of their kings.

11 Schon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Rafan: He flue alto the kingdomes all that were of Canaan. 12 And gave their land to Ifraela an heritage we fee:

To Ifrael his own people an heritage to be.

The second part,

13 Thy mane, O Lord, thall ftill endure, and thy memorial!

Throughout all generations that are, or ever shall.

14 The Lord will furely now averge his people all indeed:

And to his fervants he will shew favour in time of need,

35 The idols of the heathen are made in all the coafts and lands:

Of filver and of gold they be, the work even of mens hands. 16 They have their mouths & cannot specified and eyes that have no fight.

17 They have eke ears and hear nothing their mouth is breathless: quite.

18 Wherefore all they are like to them that so do set them forth:

And likewise those that trust in them, or think they be ought worth.

fee that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.

a And

fo

fo

5 60

fe

be n

fo

igr

And fa

Wie

ior

And

for

PSAL. CXXXVI. And ye that be of Levies house, praise ye likewise the Lord. nd ye that trand in awe of him, praid him with one accord. And out of Sion fing his praife, the great praise of the Lord : hich dwelleth in Jerusalem, praife him with one accord. PSAL. CXXXVI. N. Raife ye the Lord for he is good, for his mercie endureth for ever. Give praise unto the God of gods, for his mercie endureth for ever-Give praise unto the Lord of lords. for his mercie, &c. Which only doth great wondrous works, for his mercie, &c. thich by his wisdome made the heavens, for his mercie, & c. Shich on the waters firetcht the earth, for his mercie,&c. Thich made great lights to fhine abroad. for his mercie, &c. s fun to rule the lightfome day, for his mercie &c. he moon and ftars to guid the night, t fpeak

for his mercie, &c.

The his mercie, &c.

The his mercie, &c.

And I frael brought out from thence,
for his mercie, &c.

With mightie hand and firetched arms,
for his mercie, &c.

Which cut the red fea in two parts, for his mercie, &c. and Ifrael made paffe there through, for his mercie, &c.

20 An

ge

de

PSAL CXXXVI.

15 And drowned Pharaoh and his hoft, for his mercie endureth for ever-

16 Through wilderne "e his people led, for his mercie endureth for ever.

17 He which did smite great noble kings, for his mercie, &c. 18 And which hath flain the mightie kings 5 for his mercie,&c. 19 As Schon king of Amorites.

for his mercie.&c.

20 And Og the king of Baian land, for his mercie, &c.

21 And gave their land for heritage, for his mercie, &c.

22 Even to his fervant Ifrael, for his mercie, &c.

23 Remembring us in bale eftate, for his mercie,&c.

24 And from oppre fours refcued us, for his mercie, &c.

25 Which giveth food unto all flesh, for his mercie &c.

26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above, for his mercie, &c.

27 Give thanks unto the Lord of Lords for his mercie, &c.

Another of the same by T.C. Laud the Lord benigne, Whose mercies latt tor aye ; Give thanks, and praifes fing To God of gods, I lay. 2 For certainly, His mercies dure Both firm and fire, Eternally.

The Lord of lords praife ye, Whose mercies aye do dure:

Bv Th Die For

6 Y

of.

D

Fo Hi

Ro

Et

And The G For

8 Su To r for c An

Wh. And f To gi or co

110 II E he fi effu

or cer An Tir I.W.

ad ffre ur cer

PSAL. exxxvi. 4 Great wonders only he Doth work by his great power : For cercainly. ed, His mercies dure Both firm and fure, ngs, Eternally. kings 5 Which God omnipotent, By his great wifedome hie, The heavenly firmament Did frame as we do fee. For certainly, &c. 6 Yea, he the heavie charge of all the earth did ftretch: And on the waters large, The fame he did out reach. For certainly. &c. Great light he made to be, For why ? his love is ave: 15, 8 Such as the fun we fee. To rule the lightfome day. for certainly, & c. fh, And eke the moon fo clear, Which thineth moor fight: bove, Lords And stars that do appear to guid the dark tome night. or certainly, &c. . 14 ith grievous plagues and fores, Il Egypt mote he then ! he first-born lette and more, effue of beafts and men, or certainly, & c. And from amids their land i Ifrael forth brought : Which he with mightie hand ud ffretched arme hath wrought. or certainly, &c. 13 The PSAL. CXXXVI.

1? The fea he cut in two, Which stood up like a wall : 14. And made through it to go His chosen children all.
For certainly, &c.

15 But there he whelmed then The proud king Pharaoh With his huge hoft of men, And chariotseke alfo; For certainly,&c.

x5 Who led through wildernesse. His people safe and found:
And for his love endlesse.
x7 Great kings he brought to ground:
For certainly,&c.

18 And flue with puissant hand Kings mightie and of fame, 19 As of Amorites land, schou the king by name: For certainly, &c.

20 And Og the giant large, Of Baian king alfo: 20 Whofeland for heritage He gave his people tho: For certainly,&co

22 Even unto Israel
His servant dear, I say,
He gave the same to dwell,
And there abide for aye;
For certainly, &c.

23 To minde he did us call.
In our most base degree:
24 And from oppressors all.
In safetie set ustree.
For certainly, &c.

Vith Vith Volation

ud in

th ir in had

w le

Alas his pr

But you le the And that thy There

the at Ed whe memb

PSAL. exxxvii.

All fleits on earth abroad

Vith tood he doth fulfill,

Wherefore of heaven the God,

Uland, be it your will.

or certainly, &c.

PSAL. CXXXVII. W.W.

Hen as we fate in Babylon,
the rivers round about:
ad in remembrance of Sionthe tears for grief burit out:
We hang'd our narps and infiruments
the willow trees upon:
r in that place men for their use,
had planted many a one.

Then they to whom we prifoners were, faid to us taun ingly.

we let us hear your hebrew fongs, and pleafant me lody.

Alas!! aid we who can once frame his force full heart to fing a prafes of our-loving God, thus under a frame king?

But yet if I Jerufalem out of my heart let flide;
en let my fingers quite forget the warbling harp to guid.
And let my tongue within my moutls be tied for ever faft;
that I foy before I fee
thy full deliverance paft.

Therefore, Dord, remember now the curfed norse and crie, at Edoms sons egainst us made, when theyraed our citie member, Lord their cruels words, when as with one accord, PSAL. exxxviji.
They cride on fack, and raze their wals in despight of their Lord.

B

F

It

01

3 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon, at length to dust be brought?
And happie shall that man be cald, that our revenge hath wrought.

9 Yea, blessed shall that man be cald, that take thy children young.
To dash their bones against hard stones.

that lie the streets among.

PSALCXXXVIII. N.

Thee will I laud with my whole hear my Lord, my God alwayes:
Even in the prefence of the gods
I will advance thy praife.
Toward thy holy temple, I will look, and worthip thee:
And praifed in my thankfull mouth thy holy name thall be.

Even for thy loving kindnesse sake, and for thy truth withall: For thou thy name hast by thy word advanced over all.

When I did call, thou heardeft me, and thou hast made also The power of increased strength, within my soul to grow.

* Yea, all the kings on earth, they shall give praise to thee, O Lord: For they of thy most holy mouth have heard the mightie word.

They of the wayes of God the Lord,
in finging thall intreat:

Because the glorie of the Lord,

PSAL. CXXXIX 6 The Lord is high, and yet he down behold the lowly fprite: But he (contemning) knowsafar the proud and loftie wight. 7 Although in midft of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand, Renewed by thee, O my Lord, thou wilt fretch out thy hand, Upon the wrath of all my foes, and faved thall I be By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me. 8 Thy mercie Lord endureth for aye, Lord do me not forfake : For fake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make, PSAL. CXXXIX. N. Lord thou haft me tride and known. my fitting thou doft know: 2 And rifing the: my thoughts afar thou underflandit alfo. 3 My paths, yea, and my lying down thou compafieft alwayes: And by familiar custome art acquainted with my wayes. 4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord, but known it is to thee: 5 Thou me behinde holdst and before, thou layft thine Laud on me. 6 Too wonderfull above my reach, Lord is thy cumning fkill; It is fo high, that I the tame cannot attain untill. 7 From light of thy all-leeing fpuits Lord, whither fhall I go ? Or whither thall I flie away, thy prefence to escape fro? No 3

215

nesi

d ic.

all

P & A L. CXXXIX. 8 To heaven if I mount aloft. lo, thou art prefent there : In hell if I lie down below, even there thou doft appear. o Yea, let me take the morning wings, and let me go and hide,

Even there where are the furtheft parts, where flowing fea doth flide.

To Yea, even thither alfo thall thy reaching hand me guid : And thy right hand thall hold me faft. and make me to abide.

II Yea, if I fay, the darkneffe fhall yet fhroud me from thy fight:

Lo, even also the darkest night about me thall be light.

are both alike alway.

12 Yea darkneffe hideth not from thee. but night doch thine asday : To thee the darkneffe and the light

The second part.

I: For thou poffeffelt haft my reins, and thou haft covered me,

When I within my mothers womb incloted was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully, and wonds oufly I am: Thy works are marvellous, right well my foul doth know the fame. By My bones they are not hid from thee, although in fecret place

I have been made, and in the earth beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formleff:, then thine eye faw me: for in thy book

Were written all, nought was before, that after fathion rook.

17 The

An 18

The

Cos

PSAL cxl.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God. how dear are they to me : And of them all how passing great.

the cudlette number be !

18 If I should count them, to their fumme more then the fand I fec : And when oever I awake, yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloudy men. O that thou wouldeft flay ! Eventhole O God, to whom, depart, depart from me, I fay. 20 Even thofe of thee, O Lord my God, that [peak full wickedly:

Those that are lifted up in vain, being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord, and that in earnest wife ? Contend I not against them all, against thee that arise ? 22 I hat them with unfained hate. even as my nater focs.

23 Trieme, O God, and know my heart, my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Confider Lord if wickednesse in me there any be: And in thy way O Lord my guid, for ever leads thou me.

ec,

eye

The

PSAL. CXL. N.

Ord fave me from the evil mans and from the cruell wight : 2 And from all those which evildo, migine in their fprit: Which make on me continuall war, their tongues, lo, they have whet P S A L. cxl.

Like ferpents: underneath their lips is adders porfou fet.

Keep me, O Lord, from wicked hands,
preferve me to abide:

preferve me to abide:
Free from the cruel man that means to cause my steps to slide.

y. The proud have laid a fnare for me, and they have fpred a net With cords in my pathway and grins for me cke have they let.

d Timrefore I faid unto the Lord, thou art my God alone: Ifear me, O Lord, and hear the voice wherewith I pray and mone.

7 O Lord, my God, thou only art the firength that faveth me: My, head in day of battel hath been covered fill by thee.

3 Letnot, O'Lord, the wicked have the end of his defire: Perform not his ill thoughts, left he with pride be fet on fire. 9 Of them that compafie me about, the chiefest of them all, Lord, let the mischief of their lips upon themselves befall.

To Let coals fail on them, let him calt them in coal uming flame:
And in deep pits, fo as they may not rise our of the fame.

In For no backbiter shall on earth be fet in stable plight:

And evil to de fruction fill fluil haunt the cruell wight.

La I know the Lord the fill and will revenge and judge the poore :

As

M

Wit

5 B

such

W

6

Th

A

PSAL. cxli.
The just shall praise thy same, just shall dwell with thes evermore.

PSAL CXLI. N.

Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord, halte thee unto me:
And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do crie to thee.
As incenfelet my prayers be directed in thine eyes:
And the uplifting of my hands,
as evening facrifice.

My Lord for guiding of my mouth, 22 fet thou a watch before;
And also of my moving lips 10 O Lord, keep thou the kee.

4 That I should wicked weene commit.

with ill men of their delicates

Lord let me eat no part.

f But let the righteons smite me Lord,
for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same a precious oil shall be.
Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their missie.

When I shall in their miferie make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stonie places down their judges shall be cast:
Then shaltiney hear my words, for then they have a pleasant taste.
7 Our bones about the graves mouth fo scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth up the ground.

2 Più

P S A L. cxl.

E Like ferpents: underneath their lips is adders poifou fer.

Reep me, O Lord, from wicked hands,
preferve me to abide:

Free from the cruel man that means to cause my steps to slide.

The proud have laid a suare for me,

and they have fored a net
With cords in my pathway and grins

for me ekehave they let.

Therefore I faid unto the Lord, thou art my God alone:
Hear me, O Lord, and hear the voice

wherewith I pray and mone.
7. O Lord, my God, thou only art

My head in day of battel hath been covered ftill by thee.

3 Letnot, O'Lord the wicked have the end of his defire: Perform not his ill thoughts, left he

9. Of them that compaffe me about, the chiefest of them all, the chiefest of them all, Lord, let the mischief of their lips upon themselves befall.

To Let coals fail on them, let him cast them in consuming flame:
Aud in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.

he fee in stable plight:
And evil to de struction still flall haunt the cruell wight.

La I know the Lord the filleted will revenge and judge the poore's

The j

DLor nd hea

As indefined the

My L fee nd all O Tha

Vith L But

in

Let hi

Whe r

6 Th

7 C

Ash

PSAL. cxli.
The just shall praise thy same, just shall dwell with thee evermore.

PSAL CXLI. N.

Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord, hafte thee unto me;
ad hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do crie to thee.
As incenfelet my prayers be
directed in thine eyes;
ad the uplifting of my hands,
as evening facrifice.

My Lord for guiding of my mouth, 22 fee thou a watch before 2 and also of my moving lips 2. O Lord keep thou the re.
That I should wicked we commit, incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicates
Lord let me eat no part.

But let the righteons smite me Lord, for that is good for me:

let him reprove me, and the same a precious oil shall be.

such smiting shall not break my head, the time shall shortly fall,
When I shall in their miserie make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stonie places down their judges shall be cast:
Then shalt they hear my words, for then they have a pleafant taste.
7 Our bones about the graves mouth fo scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he that diggeth up the ground.

2 Rite

PSAL. exlii.

8 But, O my Lord my God, mine eyes do look up unto thee :

In thee is all my truft, let not my foul forfaken be.

Which they have laid to catch me in, Lord keep me from the share:

And from the subtill grins of them that wicked workers are.

together let them fall:
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

PSAL. CXLII. N.

B fore the Lord God with my voice I did feed out my crie:
And with my cained voice unto the Lord od prayed I.

2 My med. ... as in his fight to powre I did not ipare : And in the prefence of the Lord my trouble did d.clare.

and Although perplexed was my fpirit, my path was known to thee: In way where I did walk, a fnare they flilv laid for me.

4 Hookt and viewd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:

All refuge failed me: and for my foul none cared tho.

y Then cride I, Lord, to thee, and faid, My hope thou only art: Thou in the land of living art my portion and my part.

6 Heark to my crie, for I am brought full low: deliver me

From them that do me perfecute, for me too firong they be.

7 That

Whe

Lord

For

And

M

PSAL. exlisi.
7 That I may praise thy name, my foul from praisen, Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me the just shall presse me round about.

PSAL CXLIII. N.

Lord hear my prayer, heark the plaint that I do mak to thee:
Lord in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.
2 In judgement with thy fervant, Lord, Oh enter not at all:

For just fied be in thy fight not one that liveth shall.

in,

ice

That

3 The enemie hath purfu'd my foul, my life to ground hath thrown : And laid me in the dark, like them that dead are long agone. 4 Within me, in perplexitie was mise accumbred (pirit : And in me was my troubled heart amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time paft, in all thy works I meditate: Yea, in thy works I meditate: that thy hands have create. & To thee, O Lord my Cod lo, I do stretch my craving hands:

My foul defireth after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed my spirit doth fail, hide not thy sace me fro:
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
3 Let me thy loving kindnesse in the morning hear and know:
For in thee is my truft: shew me

the way where I fiall go.

PSAL. exliii. A For I lift up my foul to thee, O lord, deliverme	75
From all mine enemies: for I have hidden me with thee.	Ta
thou art my God, I fay, Est thy good Spirit unto the land	8 V
of mercie me convay.	An
Pr For thy names take with quickning grace alive do thou me make :	9 A
And our of troublebring my foul, even for thy justice take. La. And for thy mercie flay my foes,	On
O Lord, destroy them all, That do oppresse my foul, for I	10
thy fervant am and thall. PSAL. CXLIIII. N.	Unt
B Left be the Lord my ftrength, that doth
The Lord that doth my fingers frame to buttel by his might.	And te liverer and shield: Le him I trust: my people he	12 .
tubdues to me to yeeld.	Our
2. O Lord, what thing is man, that him thou holdelt fo in prife ?	13 (
Or for of man that upon him thou thinkeft in this wife?	Our
4. Man is but like to vanitie, fo patte his dayes to end,	14 (
g. As fireting thade: bow down, O Lord, the heavens, and defcend.	The sThe mountains touch, & they that fmoke 15 . cast forth thy lightning flame, And featter them; thine arrows thoot, Yes, confune them with the lame.

Ther

PS A L. cxliiii. Send down thine hand even from above, O Lord deliver me: Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers make me free. 3 Whose subtill mouth of vanitie and fondneffe doth intreat? And their right hand, is a right hand of falthood and deceit. o A new long will I fing. O God. and finging will I be, On viol and on instrument, ten ftringed unto thee. Io Even he it is that only gives deliverance to kings : Unto his fervant David help from hurtfull fword he brings. doth It From it angers hand me fave and fhield whose mouth talks vanitie : And their right hand is a right hand of guil and subtiltie. 12 That our fons may be as the plants whom growing youth doth rear : Our daughters as carv'd corner ftones, like to a pallace fair. 13 Our garners full, and plentie may with fundrie forts be found : Our sheep bring thousands, in our freets ten thousands may abound. 4 Our oxen be to labour ftrong that none do us invade: Lord, There be no goings out, nor cries within our itreets be made, fmoken; The people bleffed are, that with fuch bleffings are fo ftor'd: 100t, Yea, bleffed all the people are, whose God is God the Lord.

.

m

PSAI. LXIV. N. Thee will I land, my God and king, and bleffe thy name for aye; and bleffe they name, and bleffe thee day by day. Greatis the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach; From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record; And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull as declare; And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great; And they aloud thy righteouinesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed; 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show; 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 12 And of thy mightie kingdome eke. 13 For ever will I ray. 14 And of thy mightie kingdome eke. 15 For ever will I praise they do thy singdome spraise;
I and bleffe thy name for aye: 3 For ever will I praise thy name, and bleffe thee day by day. 3 Greatis the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach: 4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acs declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous nesses in finging shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment by power to know. The second paye. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	PSAL LXLV. N.
I and bleffe thy name for aye: 3 For ever will I praise thy name, and bleffe thee day by day. 3 Greatis the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach: 4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acs declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous nesses in finging shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment by power to know. The second paye. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	Hee will I land my God and king.	Thy
2 For ever will I praise thy name, and blesse thee day by day. 3 Greatis the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach: 4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull as declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteouinesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	and bleffe the name for ave;	1
gereatis the Lord, most worthy praise, his greatnesse none can reach: 4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy giorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acts declare: And I to publishall abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteousnesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.		And his greatnesse none can reach: 4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy searfull acts declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous nesses in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. I3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	and bleffe thee day by day.	100
4 From race to race they shall thy works praise, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acs declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous nesses in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment by power to know. The second part. 15 And meditate upon thy works his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment by power to know.	2 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,	14
praife, and thy power preach. 5 I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull acs declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteouinesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of men thy power to know. The second part. 13 And All All All All All All All All All Al	his greatnelle none can reach:	Sant .
s I of thy glorious majestie the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull as declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: Andthey aloud thy righteouinesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of men thy power to know. The second part. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.
the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull as declare: And I to publishall abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteousnesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment by power to know. The second part. I3 All All All The second part. I3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	prane, and thy power preach.	1,
the beautic will record: And meditate upon thy works most wonderfull. O Lord. 6 And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull as declare: And I to publishall abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteousnesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment by power to know. The second part. I3 All All All The second part. I3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	e I of thy glorious majestie	And most wonderfull O Lord. 6 And thry shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull a&s declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous essential in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to auger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I 2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. I 3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	the beautie will record :	the state of
And they shall of thy power, and of thy fearfull ass declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: Andthey aloud thy righteouinesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.		15
thy fearfull 2 as declare: And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous self- in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: Io Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. II Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: I2 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. I3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.		A11
And I to publish all abroad thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous nesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 13 14 15 16 17 18 18 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19	6 And they mall of thy power, and or	MII thy greatnesse will not spare. 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteous essent: Solve the Lord our God's gracious. And mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 13 14 15 16 17 18 18 19 19 19 19 19 19 19 19
7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodnesse great: And they aloud thy righteournesse in singing shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do blesse thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.		17 break of thy goodneffe great: And they aloud thy righteourneffe in finging shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.
And they aloud thy righteournesse in finging shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble see thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.	7 And they into the mention shall	18
in finging shall repeat. 8 The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.	break of thy goodnesse great:
S The Lord our God is gracious. and mercifull allo: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praife thee Lord, and do thy honour ipread. 11 Thy Saints do ble fee thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie flow: 12 And blaze thy power, to caufe the fons of men thy power to know. The fecond part.	And they aloud thy righteou ineffe	19 and mercifull also: Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble see thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of men thy power to know. The second part.	The Lord our God is gracious	An of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is flow. 9 Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.	and mercifull alfo.	1211
y Yea good to all, and all his works his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.		200
his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.	to anger he is flow.	20
his mercie doth exceed: 10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. 11 Thy Saints do ble se thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.
It Io, all thy works do praise thee Lord, and do thy honour spread. It Thy Saints do ble see thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: It And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.		Bu and do thy honour spread. It Thy Saints do ble se thre, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: It And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part.	his mercie doth exceed:
It Thy Saints do ble le thee, and they do thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	10 Lo, all thy works do praile thee Lord,	21
thy kingdomes glorie show: 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons of ment hy power to know. The second part. 13 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	Tr The Saints do ble Te thee and they do	Al of men thy power to know. The second part. The second part.	thy kingdomes glorie show:	11
The second part. The second part.	12 And blaze thy power to cause the sons	300
3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	of ment hy power to know.	4.
3 And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	which are a second	1
	ine jecona part.	I
	To And of thy mightie kingdome eke.	3

PSAT. cxlvi. Thy kingdome, Lord, a kingdome is that doth endure alwayes : And thy dominion through each age endures without delay. 14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall, their fliding he doth itay. is The eyes of all do wait on thee, thou doft them all relieve: And thou to each fufficing food in frafon due doit give. 18 Thou openeft thy plenteous hand, and bounteoufly doft fill All things what foever do live. with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his wayes, his works are holy all. 18 Near all he is that cal on him in truth that on him call. 19 He the defires which they require that fear him, will fultill: And he will hear them when they crie. and fave them all he will.

20 The Lord preferves all thofe, to him that bear a loving heart : But he them all that wicked are will utterly subvert. at My thankfull mouth thall gladly fpeak the praises of the Lord :

All fleth to praise his holy name for ever mal accord.

PSAL. CXLVI. J.H.

Y fonl praise thou the Lord alwayes, my God I will confesse : While breath and life prolong my dayes, my tongue no time thall ceafe.

e.

orks

d,

do ons

PS A L. cxlvii.

3 Trust not in worldly princes then, though they abound in wealth:

Nor in the son of mortall men, in whom there is no health.

4 For why? their breath doth soon depart, to earth anone they fall:

And then the counsels of their heart decay and perish all.

5 O happie is that man, I say, whom lacobs God doth aid:

And he whose hope doth not decay,

Fori

2 Th

And

, He

a He

An

9

6 Which made the earth and waters deep the heavens high withall: Which doth his word and promife keep in truth, and ever shall.

but on the Lord is staid.

7 With right alwayes he doth proceed, for fuch as fuffer wrong. The poore and hungrie he doth feed, and loose the fetters strong.

8 The Lord doth fend the blind their fights
the lame to lims reftore:
The Lord, I fay, doth love the right and just man evermore.
9 He doth defend the father leffe,
the strangers (ad in heart:
And quit the widow from diffresse and ill mens wayes inbvert.

Io Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion fill shall raigue:
In time of all posteritie, for ever to remain.

PSAL. CXLVII. N. PRaise yethe Lord, for it is good, unto our God to sing;

PSAL. cxlvii. For it is pleafant, and to praife, it is a comely thing. 2 The Lord his own Jerufalem he buildeth up alone: And the disperit of Ifrael, doth gather into one. He heals the broken in their heart. their fores up doth he binde. 4 He counts the number of the ftars. an I names them in their kinde. Great is the Lord great is his power, his wifedome infinit. The Lord relieves the meek and throws to ground the wicked wight. 7 Singunto God the Lord with praife, unto the Lord rejoyce : And to our God upon the harp advance you: finging voice. & He covers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain : And on the mountains he doth make the gratle to grow again. 9 He gives to beafts their food, and to

I,

ht

9 He gives to beafts their food, and to young ravens when they crie.
10 His pleafure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.
11 But in all those that sear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight?
And such as do attend upon his mercies thining light.

The fecond part.

thy God, O siou, praire:

1; For he the bars hath forged ftrong, wherewith thy gates he stayes.

Thi

PS AL. exiviti.

14 Thy children he hath bleft in thee, and in thy borders he Doth fittle peace, and with the floure of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon the earth he fendeth out:
And eke his word with fpeedy course doth swiftly ran about.

16 He giveth inow like wool, hear frost live ashes he doth spread:

27 Like mortels cafts his ice, thereof the cold who can abide? 28 He fendeth forth his mightie word, and meit the them again:

Fis winde he makes to blow, and then the waters flow main.

to Jacob he doth flow:

His flatutes and his judgements he gives Ifrael to know.

20 With every nation hath he not fo dealt, nor they have known His fecret judgements: now therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

P S A 1. CXL VIII.

Give land unto the Lord,
From heaven that is so hie:
Pratte him in deed and word
Above the starrie skie.
2 And also ye,

His angels all, Armies royall, Praite him with glee.

3 Praife him both moon and fun, Which are so clear and bright: The same of you be done, Ye glistering stars of light. Ye he

6 For All for At his

To th A lay

All de For it Fire, And

Ex

In ear

o Th And t The c

Yea b it A With Princ That

12 Y Old t

4-4

PSAL. extviii.

4 And eke no loffe

Ye heavens fur,

3 And clouds of the air,

His land express.

6 For at his word they were All formed as we fee: At his voice did appear All things in their degree: Which he fet faft, To them he made A law and trade

For aye to laft.

7 Extoll and praife Gods name In earth ye dragons fell : All deeps do ye the fame, for it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie, Fire, hail, ice, fuow, And fforms that blow, at his decree.

The hils and mountains all, And trees that fruitfull are, The cedars great and tall, His worthy praif declare.

to Beafts and cattel, Yea birds flying, And worms creeping, That on earth dwell.

at All kings both more and leffe, With all their pompous train: Princes and all Judges, That in the world remain.

Exalt his name.
It Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the fame.

PSAL cxlix.

13 For his name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmaments 14 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The horn of his,
And help them all.

15 His faints all shall forth tell His praise and worthinesse, The children of Israel, Each one both more and lesse.

That with good will His words fulfil, And him obeys

PS AL CXLIX. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
a new rejoycing fong,
And let the praise of him be heard his holy saints among.
Let Israel rejoyce in him,
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of ston cke be joyfull in their king.

2Let them found praife with voice of fluts unto his holy name:
And with the timbrell and the harp
fing praifes of the fame.
4 For why ? the Lord his pleafure all hath in his people fer:
And by deliverance he will raife

the meek to glorie great.

5 With glorie and with honour now let all his faints rejoyce:

And now aloud upon their beds advance their finging voice:

And of din

To p the To b

To e l protection of the Adva cord of

Mis p of taile l

Praise or Wit

pra

o pra

agi

And

PSAL. cl.

And in their mouth let be the acts of God the mightie Lord; id in their hand the let them bear a double edged fword.

To plague the heathen and correct the p. ople with their hands. To binde their flately kings in chains, their Lords in fron bands. To execute on them the doom that written is before; its honour all his faints shall have, praifeye the Lord therefore.

PSAL. CL. N.

Teeld unto God the mightie Lord,
I praife in his fanctuarie;
Id praife him in the firmament, that shewes his power on hie.
Advance his name and praife him in his mightie acts alwayes;
cording to his excellencie of greatnesse give him praise.

His praifes with the princely noife of founding trumpets blow : nife him upon the viol, and to upon the harp alfo. Paife him with timbrel and with flute, organs and virginals. With founding cimbals praife ye him, praife him with loud cimbals,

Whatever hath the benefite of breathing praife the Lord: praife the name of God the Lord, agree with one accord.

211

The end of the Pjalmes.

本性状状状状

Along to be fung before morning Prajer I. B.

PRaife ye the Lord ye G ntiles all, wich hath brought you into his light am th O praise him all people mortall. as it is most worthie and right, For he is full determined on us to poure out his mercie; And the Lordstruth be ye affured, abid th perpetually.

Glorie be to God the Father, and to Jefu Chrift histrue Son. With the holy Ghoft in like manner, now and at every feafon.

> A long to be lung before evening prayer.

B Ehold, now give heed, fuch as be Come praise the Lord every degree with fuch longs as to him are due.

O ye that fland in the Loids house, even in our own Gods manfion, Praife ye the Lord fo bounteous. which worketh our falvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place, yea, and that in the time of night: Praise ye the Lord which giveth all gran te th for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of sion, which made heaven & earth by his power Give to you and your nation his bl. fung, mercie and favour. Glorie be to the Father, &c.

Tte

The

OF that d to r

hicak deke ke th Nor f h ave

Ith

ith g Take nfe it foth in heLou bro hou t to

Into t Gods t the arth v

Beivar 1116 lev

liy m wife

fiele my th The X. commandments of God.

Exodus 20. W. W.

Ttendmy prople and give car, Of ferly things I will thee tell: ethat my words in minde thou bear, d to my precepts litten well.

light am thy foveraigne Lord and God, hich have thee brought fro careful thral, deke reclaimed from Pharaohs rod: ke thee no Gods on them to call.

ke thee no Gods on them to call.

Nor fathioned forme of any thing haven or carth to worth pit:
I thy Go by revenging
th grievous plagues this fin will fmite.

r, Cake not in vain his holy name, afe it not after thy will:
fo thou mightit foon purchaf blame,
ing I in his wrath he would thee fpill.

he Lord from work the leventh day ceaft ibrought all things to perfect end; thou and thine that day take reft; it to Gods hefts ye may attend.

30

d tru

due.

,ווכ

Into thy parents honour give, Gods commandments do intendent thou long eaves and good maift live, arth-where God a place doth fend.

ce, twere of morther and cruell hate.

Ill filthy forme tron fear.

ght: All hithy former tion fear.

I grace ke thou it al not in any rate.

alfe witneste against no man bear.

ly neighbours houfe with not to have, wite or ought that he calls mine: held his oxenhis affishis flave, mything which is not thine.

The Lords proger.

A prayer. The Spirit of grace grant us, O Lord Like The Spirit of grace grant us, o Lore, In the To keep these laws our hearts restore, The And cause us all with one accord To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our felves no ftrength we ha To keep thefe laws after thy will : Thy might therefore, O Chrift, we craw That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord for thy names fake grant us this Thou art our ftrength. O Saviour Chris Of thee to speed how should we miffe. In whom our treasure doth confift ?

To thee for evermore be praife, With the Father in each refpect, And with the holy spirit alwayes, The Comforter of thine elect.

The Lords prager. D. Coxe. Ir Father which in heaven art. And makeft us all one brotherhoo To call upon thee with one heart : Our heavenly Father and our Cod. Grant we pray not with lips alone, But with our hearts deep figh and g

Thy bleffed name be fanctified, Thy holy word might us enflame, In holy life for to abide, To magnifie thy holy name. From all errours defend and keep The little flock of thy poore fleep.

Thy kingdome come even at this hou And henceforth everlaftingly: Thine holy Ghoft into us poure, With all his gifts most plentcoufly. From Sathans rage and fithy band

Defend us with thy mightie hands

And Kee

Alfa T F

Reli Ast Wh Pi I

0 Lead To Give

The From

And A In Fo

And Thy in th

An TI The Lords prayer.

Thy will be done with diligence, ord, like as in heaven in earth also:

In trouble grant us patience,

Thee to obey in wealth and wo.

Let not flesh, blond, of any ill,

Prevail against thy holy will.

crav

s this

Chrif

miffe

:59

e.

erhoo

od.

lone,

and g

d.

e, cep

flice P.

is hou

uffy.

band

hand.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war and from bloudshed,
Also from sicknesse, dearth and pine.
That we may live in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefulnesse.

Forgive us our offences all, Relieve our carefull confcience: As we forgive both great and fmall, Which unto us have done offence. Prepare us Lord for to ferve thee, In perfect love and unitie.

O Lord, into temptation
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage,
To withftand his invasion,
Give power and ftrength to every age.
Arms and make ftrong thy feeble hoff;
With faith and with the holy Ghoft.

O Lord, from evil deliver us,
The dayes and times are dangerous a
From ever lafting death fave us,
And in our laft need comfort us.
A bleffedend to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our fouls receive.

For thou O Lord, art King of kings, and the u haft power over all:
Thy glorie shineth in all things, in the wide world universall.
Amen, let at be done, O Lord,
That we have prayd with one accord.

The

The twelve Articles of the Christian faith.

A Li my belief and confidence is in the Lord of might, The Father which all thing hath made, the day and eke the night, The heavens and the firmament, and also many a flar.

The earth and all that is therein, which paffe mansreason far.

And in like manner I believe,
in Christ our Lord his Son, Coequall with the Deitie,
and man in fieth and bone.
Conceived by the holy Ghost,

And of his mother Marie born, yet the a virgine pure.

Because mankinds to sathan was for fin in bond and thrall: He came and offered up himself

An l fuffering most grievous pain, then Pilate being, judge:

Was crucified on the croffe, and there at did not g. udge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the sprite:
His body then was buried,
as is our ife and rite.
His foul did after this descend into the lower parts:
A dread unto the wicked sprits,

but joy to faithfull hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again:

To the end he might be glorified, out of all grief and pain.

Alcending

0 14

the l

and a cles

and t

Witl

Wit

The Creed.

Scending to the heavens high,
to lit in glorie fill,
Godsright hand his father dear,
according to his will.

ntill the day of judgement come, when he that come again, Vith angels power (yet of that day we all be uncertain) to judge all people righteenfly, whom he hath dearly boughts the living and the dead also, which he hath made of nought.

and in the holy Spirit of God, my faith to fatisfie: the third person in Trinitie beleeve I fteadfattly.

The holy and catholick Church,
that Gods word doth maintaig, and holy Scripture doth allow,
which Sathan doth difdain.

and alfo I do trust to have by Jesus Christ his death, selecte and pardon for my sins,
and that only by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise again before the Lord of might:
and see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

tadthen shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats devide,
And give life everlastingly to those whom he hath tride, Within his realm celetiall in glorie for to rest,
With all his holy companie of Saints and Angels bleste

A prayer to the holy Ghoat. Which ferve the Lord omnipotent, obediently each houre: To whom be all dominion, and praise for evermere. of prayer to the holy Ghost, to be fund in ou before the fermon. Ome holy Spirit the God of might, Comforter of us all, Teach us to know thy word aright, that we do never fall. O holy Ghoft vifit our coaft, defend as with the fhield. Against all fin and wickednesse. Lord help us win the field. Lord, keep our King and his Councell, and give them will and might, To perfevere in thy Gospel, which can put fin to flight. O Lord, that giveft thy holy word, fend Preachers plenteoufly : That in the fame we may accord. and therein live and die. O holy spirit direct aright the Preachers of thy word, That thou by them maift cut down fin, as it were with a fword. Depart not from thy paftours pure, but aid them at their need: Which break to us the bread of life, whereon our fouls do feed. O bleffed Spirir of truth keep us in peace and unitie, Keep us from fects and errours all and from all papiffrie. Convert all those that are our foes, and bring them to thy light; That they and we may well agree, and praise thee day and night.

O L

That

And

Allg

The 1

Asit

Asit

TI

Chrif

Thy

Thou

Give

Thre

Wh

Some

Wit

O Lord

TI

Dapacem.

O Lord, increase our faith in us, and love so to abound: That man and wife be void of strife, and neighbours about us rounde sure in our time give thy peace, O Lord,

And teach them all thy holy word, that we may fing to thee.

All glorie to the Trinitie
that is of mighties most:
The living Father and the Son,
and eke the holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time that hath been in rectofore.
As it is now, and so thall be henceforth for evermore.

II,

fin,

Da pacem Domine.

Ive peace in these our dayes, O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with one accord,
Christs name in every land,
Seek to desce,
root our and race,
In true right worthip indeed,
Be thou the stay,

Lord we thee pray, Thou helpft alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we so lack, Through misbeleefe and ill life: Thy word to offer thou dost not slack, Which we unkindly gainstrive. With fire and sword,

With fire and fword,
This healthfull word,
Some perfecute and oppreffe,
Some with the mouth
Conicfle the truth
Without fincere godlineffe,

0 1

Qive.

A prayer to the holy Ghott. Which ferve the Lord omnipotent, obediently each houre: To whom be all dominion, and praise for evermere. A prayer to the holy Ghost, to be freme in ou before the fermon. Ome holy Spirit the God of might, And Comforter of us all, Teach us to know thy word aright, that we do never fall. O holy Ghoft, vifit our coaft, defend us with the fhield. Against all fin and wickednesse, Lord help us win the field. Lord, keep our King and his Conneell, and give them will and might, To perfevere in thy Gospel, which can put fin to flight. O Lord, that giveft thy holy word, fend Preachers plenteoufly : That in the fame we may accord, and therein live and die. O holy spirit direct aright the Preachers of thy word, That thon by them maift cut down fin, as it were with a fword. Depart not from thy pastours pure, but aid them at their need: Which break to us the bread of life, whereon our fouls do feed. O bleffed Spirir of truth keep us in peace and unitie, Keep us from fects and errours all and from all papiffrie. Convert all those that are our foes, and bring them to thy light: That they and we may well agree, and praise thee day and night.

OL

That

Allg

The 1

Asit

ł

1

J

Th

Christ

Thy ti

Thou

Give : Throt

Thy

1

C

Whic

some p

Witho

Dapacems.
O Lord, increase our faith in us, and love so to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife, and neighbours about us rounds in our time give thy peace, O Lord,

And teach them all thy holy word, that we may fing to thee.

ht,

1, fin,

e,

All glorie to the Trinitie
that is of mighties most:
The living Father and the Son,
and eke the holy Ghost.
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore.
As it is now, and so thall be henceforth for ever more.

Da pacem Domine.

Ive peace in these our dayes, O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand:
Thine enemies with one accord,
Christs name in every land,
Seek to deface,
root our and race,
Thy true right worthip indeed,
Be thou the stay,
Lord we thee pray,

Lord we thee pray, Thou helpft alone in all need.

Give us that peace that we so lack,
Through misbeleefe and ill life:
They word to offer thou doft not flack,
Which we makindly gainfrive.

Xive fire and flavord.

With fire and (word, This bealthful) word, some perfecute and oppresse, Some with the mouth Confeste truth Without fincere godlinesse.

Qive

The Lamentation.

Give peace and us thy spirit down fend, With grief and repentance true:

Do pierce our hearts our lives to amend,

And by faith in Christ renew, That fear and dread,

Through the free mercie and grace,
May from us flide,
Thy truth may bide,
And thine in every place.

The Lamentation.

Nord, in thee is all my trust,
give ear unto my wofull crie;
Refuse me not that am unjust,
but bowing down thy heavenly eye;
Behold, how I do still lament
my sins wherein I thee offend, C Lord, for them shall I be shear, fith thee to pleafe I do intend ?

No, no, not fo, thy will is bent, to deal with finners in thine ire; But when in heart they shall repeat, thou grants with speed their just defire, To thee therefore still shall I crie to wash away my finfull crime;

Thy bloud O Lord, is not yet drie, but that it may help me in time. Hafte thee, O Lord hafte thee I fay, to power on the thy gifts of grace,

That when this life shall flit away, in heaven with thee I may have place: Where thou dost reigne eternally with God which once did down thee fend

Where Angels fing continually t

H

A thanksgiving after the receiving of the Lords suppers.

He Lord be thanked for his gifts,
and mercies everyone:

That he doth flew muto his faints, to him be laud therefore.

ıd.

end.

efere.

ace :

fend endo

Our tongues cannot to praife the Loads as he doth right deferve t

Our hearts of him cannot fo thisk as he doth us preferve.

His benefits they be fo great to us that be but fin: That at our hands for recompense

o finfull fleth, that thou shoulds have fuch mercies of the Lord:

Thou dott deterve more worthily of lam to be abhord.

Nought elfe but fin and wretchednede

And stubbornly against the Lord we daily play our parts.

The fun above in firmament

Doth thew it felf more clear and puze, then we be in his fight.

The heavens above, and all therein, more holy are then we: They ferve the Lord in their effate, each one in their digree. They do not frive for maftership, nor flack their (fire fet :

But ferve the Lord, and do his will,
hate is to them no let.

Also the earth, and all therein, of God it is in awe.

It doth observe the Formers will, by skilfull natures law.

0

Th

A thanksgiving.
The sea and all that is therein,
doth bend when God doth beck :

The spirits beneath do tremble all, and fear hie wrathfull check.

But we, alas! for whom all these were made them for to rule,
Do not so know or love the Lord,
as do thathe ox or mule,
A law he gave for us to know what was his holy will:

He would us good, but we would not avoid the thing is ill.

Not one of us that feeketh out the Lord of life to please: Nor doth the thing that might us lead to Christ and quier case: Thus are we all his enemies,

Me can it not denie :

And he again of his good will would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none to bring us unto life, The Son of God our fleth he took to end our mortall strife.

And all the law of God the Lord he did it full obey:

And for our fins upon the croffe his bloud our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget what good he to us wrought: A signe he left our eyes to tell,

that he our bodies bought; In bread and wine here visible unto thine eyes and tafte : His mercies great thou maift record, if that his spirit thou laft.

As one

And t

And a

And

And

So '

B

V

1

A thanksgiving.

As once the corn did live and grow,
and was cut down with fithes:
And threshed out with many stripes,
out from his husk to drive;
And as the mill with violence,
did tear it out so small:
And made it like to earthly dust,
not sparing it at all,

ck :

And as the oven with fire hot,

did close it up with heat:
And all this done that I have faid,
that it should be our meat:
So was the Lord in his ripe age cut down by cruel death
His foul he gave in torments great, and yeelded up his breath.

Because that he to us might be an everlassing bread: With much reproch and torments great on earth his life he led. And as the grapes in pleasant time are pressed very sore, And plucked down when they be ripe, and let to grow no more,

Because the juyce that in them is,
as comfortable drink
We might receive, and joyfull be,
when forrows make us shrink?
So Christs bloud out pressed was with nails and eke with spear?
The juyce whereof doth save all those that rightly do him fear.

And as the corns by unition into one loaf are knit:
So is the Lord and his whole Church, though he in heaven fit.

A

Armany grapes make but one wine, fo should we be but one:
In faith and love in Christ above, and unto Christ alone.

Trading a life without all strife, in quiet rest and peace: From envie and from malice both our hearts and to gues to ceafes. Which if we do, then thall we flaews, that we his choicen be:

By faith in him to lead a life,
as alwayes willed he.

And that we may so do indeed, God send us all his grace: Then after death we shall be sure with him to have a place.

R. W.

Preferve us Lord, by thy dear word, From Turke and Pope defendus Lord? Which both would thruit out of his throne Our Lord Jefus Christ thy dear Son.

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might, That thou art Lord of lords by right: Thy poore afflicted flock defend, That we may peafe thee without end. fe

God holy Ghost our Comforter, Be our patron, holp and succour : Give us one minde, and perfect peace, All gifts of grace in usincrease.

Thou living God in persons three, Thy name be praised in unitie: In all our need to us defend What we may praise thee without end,

A FORME OF

PRAYER TO BE USED IN private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning prayer.

one

ht,

Lmightie God, and most mercifull Father, we do not prefent our felves here before the Majestie, trusting in our own merits or Worthine fe, bot in thy manifold mercies, which halt promifed to hear our prayers, and grant our requefts which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloved sonne Jesus Christ our Lord, who hath alto commanded usto affemble our felves together in his name, with full affurance that he will not only be amongst us, but also be our Mediatour and Advocate towards thy Majestie, that we may obtain all things which thall feems expedient to thy bleffed will for our secelsities. Therefore we be feech thee most mercifull Father) to turn thy loving countenance towards us and impute not unto as our manifold fins and offinces, whereby we juftly deferve thy wrath and therp punithment? 0 5 punifhment : but rather receive us to spir thy mercie, for Jesus Christs sake, accept our aing his death and passion as a just recome cann pence for all our offences, in whom only cann thou are pleased, and through whom thou can canft not be offended with us. And fee fore ing that of thy great mercies wee have of t quietly passed this night, grant (O has wor venly Father) that we may bestow this and day wholy in thy fervice, fo that all out trar thoughts, words, and deeds may redound all to the glorie of thy name, and good en haft famb'e to all men, who feeing our good that works, may glorifie thee our heavenly refi Father. And forasmuch as of thy meet favour and love, thou haft not onely created us to thine owne fimilitude and likeneffe, but alfo haft chofen us to be heires with thy dear sonne Jefus Chrift, of that immertall kingdome, which thou preparedit for us before the beginning of the world: we befeech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thine holy spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integritie of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and fuch like, shall not inherit the kingdome of God.

. And because thou hast commanded us so pray one for another, we do not only mike requeft, O Lord, for our felves, aid them that thou haft already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderfull works that thou art God over all, to they may be instructed by thine holy

And

the

wh

han

by

Go

cau ftre

kee

lor

inc

thy wi

CIC

th

ra

th

th

re

C

111 fo

fo

20 us to spirit to believe in thee their only Savieccept our and Redeemer. But for a much as they eccome cannot believe except they hear, nor in only cannot hear but by preaching, and none in those can preach except they be sent: thereaddeed fore, O Lord, raise up faithfull distributors that of thy mysteries, who setting apart all the worldly respects, may both in their life with and doctrine only seek thy glorie. Conill out trarily confound Sathan, Antichrist, with dound all hirelings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off in a reprebate sense, that they may not by seets, schiffnes, hetresses and errours disquiet thy little flock.

The latter dayes and dangerous times, and wherein ignorance hath gotten the upperhand, and Sathan by his ministers leeks thrist by all means to quench the light of thy though of cause against those ravening wolves and us to spirit to beleeve in thee their only Saving of cause against those ravening wolves and stream themselves all the servants whom they ghtm keep in prison and bondage. Let not the two long-suffering be an occasion, either to committee their tyrannie, or to discourage increase their tyrannie, or to discourage wing thy children, neither yet let our fins and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed, O Lord, consider their great miferie. For thy people Ifrael many times by their finnes provoked thine anger, and thou punishedit them by thy just judgement : yet though their finnes were never fo grievous, if they once returned from their iniquitie, theu receivedit them to mercie. We therefore most wretched finners bewail our manifold finnes and earnestly repent us for our former wickednesse and ungodly behaviour towards thee; and whereas we cannot of our men,

tous,

king-

d us only

,aid the will,

on-all, oly

war felves purchase thy pardon, yet we Hambly befeech thee, for Jefus Christs fike, to thew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (deare Fathet) thefe our requests. and all other things necessarie for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promife in Jesus Christ our Lord, In whose name we beseech thee as he hath eaught us, faying, Om Father which art. ere.

Evening prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pittie, we acknowledge and confesse that we are not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much leffe to prefent our felves before thy Majeitie, with con-Edence that thou wilt hear our prayers, and grant our requelts, if we confider our owne defervings. For our confciences do accuse us, and our finnes do witneffe against us, and we know that thou are an apright Judge, which doeft not justifie she figners and wicked men, but punished the faults of all fuch as transgretse thy commandements. Yet most mercifull Father fince it hath pleated thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and advertities, promiting even then to help us when we feel our felves (as it were I fwallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and fie to thy foversigne bountie as the only flav and refuge : befeeching thee pot to call to remembrance out

77217 we indi gene wor cien thy shet of t up l mic har 0 Te rig for

Lo 25 1 no ing fei fol 21

w

0 21

marifold

t we hrifts

, and Frant

wests.

t us

she

In hath

and

and up enc uno

our ces

·A:

art

ifi:

thy

m-les

20

18

120

112-0

n-

415

ald

manifold finnes and wickednesse, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us, neither our megligence and unkinduelle, which have ne ther worthily effremed, nor in our lives fufficiently expressed the (wet comfore of thy Gospel revealed unto us: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Soane Jefus Christ, who by offering up his body in facrifice once for all, hath mide a sufficient recompence for all our finnes. Have mercie therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them and earnestly repent for the fame; and fo much the rather. O Lord, because that the reprobate and fuch as thou halt forfaken, cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name ; but the reventing heart, the forrowfall minde, the conscience oppressed, hungring and thirsting for the grace, thall ever fet forth the praife and glorie.

And albeit we be but wormes and duft. yet thou art our Creatour, and we be the work of thine hinds : yea, thou art our Father, and we thy children : thou art our Shepherd, and we thy Hock : thou are our Redeemer, and we the people whom. thou half bought : thou art our God, and wee thine inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger (O Lord) neither according to our deferts punish us, but mercifully chaftife us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time foever a finner doth repent him of his finnes from the hottome of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickednate out of thy remembrance, as thou haft promited by thine holy Prophet.

chould

Finally, forafmuch as it hath pleafed thee to make the night for man to reft in, as thou halt ordained him the day to travell in, grant, dear Father, that wee may io take our bodily rest that our fouls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jefus Chrift thall appear for our deliverance out of this mortall life; and in the meane leafon that we. not overcome by any fantafies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully fet our mindes upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our fleep be not excessive or overmuch, after the infatiable defires of our fiefh, but only fufficient to contend our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glorie of thy holy name, and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly prayer to be faid at all times.

Honour and praise be given unto thee, Father of heaven.) for all thy mercies and loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it bath pleafed thy gracious goodnesse, freely and of thine owne accord to eled and chofe us to falvation, before the beginning of the world: And even like continuall thanks be given unto thee, for creating us after thine owne image; for redeeming us with the precions bloud of thy dear Son, when we were uttery loft, for

for the lv in : 115 co lat fo rej fu ha ne de w CO th 0

fe F

21

for fanctifying us with thy holy spirit, in the revelation and knowledge of thy holy word, for helping and fuccouring us in all our needs and necessities; for faving us from all dangers of body and foul, for comforcing us fo fatherly in all our tribulations and perfecutions; for sparing us folong, and giving us fo large a time of repentance. Thefe benefi s, O molt merci: full Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thine onely goodneffe, even fo we befeech thee tor thy dear Sonne Jef is Christs fake, grant us alwayes the holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulnetic towards thee, and be led into all truth, and comforted in all adversities. O Lord, ftrengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventnesse and love towards thee and our neighbours for thy take. Suffer us not moit dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain; but grant us alwayes the afsistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word, and deed, we may fanctifie and do worthip to thy name, help to amplifie and increase thy kingdome, and whatsoev r thou fendelt, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleafure and will. Let us not lack the thing, O Father, without the which wee cannot ferve thee; but bleffe thou fo all the workes of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpfull unto others. Be mercifull,O Lord, to our off-uces: and feeing our debt is great, which thou baft forgiven us in Jefus Christ, make us to love thee, and our neighbours to much the more. Be thou our Fathe Captain, and Defender in all tem-

Pro-

rest to wee

our ime ear

we, or our nee,

our ter nly

nat in hy

en.

es ies

he ke

of t,

prations. Hold thou us by thy mercifull hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the fanctifying and honouring of thy hely name, through Jefus Christ our Lord and only Saviour. So be it.

Let thy mightic hand and outfiretched arme, O Lord, be still our defence; thy mercy and loving kindnesse in Jesus Christ thy dear Son, our salvation; thy true and holy word our instruction; thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation auto the end, and in the ead.

so be it.

Lord increase our Faith,

N.W. A

A

B Blei Reh

> Elel E

> > Gri Gor Giv Giv Giv Giv

න්සන්සන්සන්සන්සි

A Table for the whole number of the Pfalmes.

A Ll laud and praise All people hearken Attend mypople tomy Amid the praise of All people that on earth

nî! ali the olu bar beel

thy

bas ind Cua

Pfalme XXX XLIX IXXVIII LXXXII

CXIX

CXLIIII

B DE light and glad

TXXXX DBleffed are they that perfect Bleffed art thou that feareft CXXVIII Rehold and have regard CXXXIIII CXLIX

Before the Lord Bleft be the Lord

LXXXIII

O not, O God,

E Xcept the Lord CXXVII

Gradge not to fee XXIX XXXVII Creat is the Lord XLVIII God fave me for thy LITTE

Give praifes unto CV Give thanks unto CVII

CXLVIIE Give laud unto Help

THE TABLE. H

Help Lord, for How long wilt Have mercie on me Have mercie Lord, Have mercie on How ever it be How pleafant is He that within.

I INcline thine ears 1 I truft in God In trouble and . I lift mine heart I will give laud Ifaid I will look I waited long and Indge and revenge I with my voice It is a thing both In God the Lord I mercie will and In speechle fle filence I love the Lord In trouble and in thrall I lift mine eyes I did in heart rejoyce.

I. Ord in thy wrath Lord keep me for Lord be my judge Lord plead my Like as the hart Let God arile Lord give thy Lord bow thine car Lord God of Lord to thee Lord fave me Lord hear my

XII IIIX LI My LVI My I LXVII LXXIII My LXXX IIII My f

XCI

XX XXV XXXXIII VI O Lo XLIII O Lo XCII O Ge

CI O G CXXI O'LO CXXII O GO 0 Go O L

XVI 0 G XXXV O Lo XI.II Oco LXVIII O fin IXXII O he

IXXXVI 0 Co CXXX Ogiv CXL 0 Lo

THE TABLE.

XII	My thepherd My heart doth take	201777
IIII	Y inepherd	XXIII
LI	IV! My heart doth take	XLV
LVI	My foul to God	IXII
VII	My Lord, my God	CIII
III	My foul give land	CILI
IIII	My foul praise the
XCI	My foul praise thou	CXTAI
1.	N
V	Now Israel	CXV
XI	Now Ifrael	CXXIIII
XX	0 .
VXV		III
ши	O God, that art	IIII
XIX	O Lord, my God	VII
	D Lord our God,	VIII
LIII	O Lord, within thy	XA
VII	O Lord, give ear	IIVX
KCII	O God my strength	XVIII
C	O God my ftrength O Lord, how joyfall O God, my God, O Lord, I put my	XXI
CI	0 God, my God,	IIXX
CIX	O Lord, I put my	XXXI
XVI	Our ears have heard	XLIIII
	O'Lord, confider my	LI
XXI	0 God, give ear	LA
XXII	0 Lord, thou didst	I.X
	0 Lord, thou didft 0 God, my God, 0 Lord, unto	TXIII
AI	0 Lord, unto	TXIIII
XVI	0 God, to me take	LXX
XXVI	O Lord, the Gentiles	. TXAIX
	0 Lord, then doft	XCIII
	O come let us	XCA
VIII	0 fing ye now	XCVIII
XXII	0 hear my	CII
XXV	O hear my O cod, my heart O alfye nations O give ye thanks	CVIII
VIII	0 allye nations	CXVII
CXXX	Ogive ye thanks	CXVIII
CXI	O Lor that heaven	CXXIII
(LII)	oft they now	CXXIX

THE TABLE.

O Lord, I am not
O how happie a thing
O praife the Lord
O Land the Lord
O Lord, thou half me tride
O Lord, upon thee

Put me not to rebuke, Praise ye the Praise ye the Lord, Praise ye the Lord,

REgard, O Lord, Remember Davids

Send aid and Save me. O God, Sing ye with praise Such as in God Sing ye unto

He man is bleft There is no God, The heavens The Lord is only The earth is The Lord is both Thou art, O Lord. The man is bleft The wicked with The man is bleft that The Lord is our The mightie God The God of gods The foolish man Take pitie for thy Thy praise alone, O To all that now

CXXXI
CXXXIII fina
CXXXV fhou
CXXXX fo fic
CXXX X fo fic
CXL fhou

CXXXVIII the L CXXXVIII the I CXXXVIII the I CXXXVIII the I

> IX Thee CXXXI

CXLIX Wha

XIII Who XXIII Who XXVII XXVII XXXII V

XXXVI le r XLVI le n XLVI le c

LIII LVII LXV LXXVII

XXX	THE TABLE
XIII	hon Herd that hou haft been	LXXX
XXV	Thou haft been	LXXXV
C Y 17 1	hat citie fhall	LXXXVII
XX.X	o fing the mercies	LXXXIX
CXL	nou Lord halt	XC
	the Lord as King	XCIII
CVIII	he Lord doth raigne	XCVII
Cv	he Lord doth	XCIX
XXV	he Lord did fay	CX
LVI	the man is diele that	CXIX
	those that do put	CXXV
	thee will I praise	CXXXVIII
IX	thee will I fand	CXLV
KXXII	, v
II	INto thee God we	TXXA
LXIX	W
XCV		II
CXXV		IX
XLIX	What is the cause	X
	Why dost thou	LII
	Why art thou Lord	TXXIIII
XIII		CIX
YII	When Ifrael by	CXIIII
XXII	When that the Lord	CXXVI
CXIII		CXXXVII
XXVI
XVIII		XXXIII
XXXII	Ve people all in	XLVII
XXXVI	Ye people all in	LVIII
XL	te men on earth	LXVI
XLV	le children which	CXIII
1	teeld unto God the.	CL
1
LII
LX	V	Thefe
XXV
The	NE.
- Taraban 1 2 4 1 5	the second secon	A STATE OF THE PERSON NAMED IN COLUMN TWO IS NOT THE PERSON NAMED IN COLUMN TWO IS NAMED IN COLUMN

THESE YE SHALL HAVE before the beginning of the Pfalmes.

Veni Creator Spiritus.

The humble fuit of a finner.

Venite, exultemus.

The fong of the three childrens

Benedictus.

Magnificat anima mea.

Munc dimittis.

Quiennque vult.

The Lamentation of a finner.

The Pater nofter.

The X. Commandments.

The complaint of a finner.

THESE

THESE YE SHALL HAVE

Pfalmes.

- Praise ye the Lord, ve Gent.
- Rehold, now give heed.
- Attend my people.
- The Lords prayer.
- The Creede.
- A prayer to the holy Ghoff.
 - TDa pacem.

ESE

- O Lord, in thee is all my.
- A thankfgiving.
- Preserve us Lord.

FINIS.

Rita

KAYB TIVE

SHITIST 8 DE 74 USEUN

